EASTON GAZETTE

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, April 23.

There fell between Sunday evening and Wednesday morning of the present week, two and a half inches of rain, very nearly equalling the whole amount that fell during the month of March.

The late rains have been of the greatest service to our crops of wheat, which never looked better than at the present time, or promised more abundantly.

CONGRESS.—Business still progresses but slowly at Washington.

HON. HENRY CLAY.—The Baltimore Sun of yesterday says:—This distinguished gentleman, and late Senator, arrived in this city last evening, from Washington, and took lodgings at Barnum's City Hotel.

From the Nat. Intelligencer of April 14.

THE BALL TO MR. CLAY.

The Ball given in compliment to Mr. Clay, on Tuesday evening, although, from the peculiar circumstances which unfortunately influence the society of Washington at the present moment, not so overflowingly attended as such an assembly would have been under a different state of things, was nevertheless numerously and handsomely attended, by Members of Congress and citizens, visiters and residents, and a brilliant array of Ladies. Among the Members we were grafified to observe that the presence of some gentlemen of the Opposition party constituted an agreeable exception to the general absence of them.

The arrangements were on a most liberal scale, and the brilliancy with which the grand Saloon was lighted, gave a dazzling effect to the uncommon assemblage of female beauty. We have rarely witnessed a similar assembly at which the company seemed to enter more heartily into the enjoyment of the hour. Mr. Clay retired from the gay scene at about 12 o'clock; but the dancing was kept up with spirit until nearly 2 o'clock.

Member of Congress Dead.—The Hon. Joseph Lawrence, a member of Congress from Pennsylvania, died in Washington on Sunday last, aged fifty four years. He has been in public service some fourteen or fifteen years. The Intelligencer says:—"His illness had been of some two weeks' duration, and is supposed to have been induced by fatigue and anxiety of mind consequent upon his late painful attendance upon the deathbed of his eldest son and his son's wife, and upon the illness of other members of his family, from a protracted visit to whom he had but recently returned."

The U. S. steam frigates Missouri, J. T. Newton, Esq. Commander, and Mississippi W. D. Salter, Esq. Commander, came up the river yesterday and anchored off Greenleaf's Point.—Nat. Intel.

From the Globe of April 13.

CONGRESS.

The loan bill in the Senate and the appropriation bill in the House have up to this time held every thing in suspense. Messrs. Graham Berrien, Mangum, and Crittenden, vindicated the twenty years' loan and scrip issues in all its aspects—Messrs. Sevier, King and Walker, vigorously, but with brevity responded. Mr. Linn said a few words in reference to the remarks called out from him on yesterday by the course of the friends of the bill. Nothing uttered by him was prompted by a feeling of personal unkindness towards any to whom he stood opposed. His observations were predicated on the character of the warfare to which he and his political friends had been subjected. They were made in self-defence, and were not urged in a spirit of personal hostility to any portion of the Senate, in regard to every member of which he entertained the most respectful and friendly sentiments.

The debate did not close till half past 5 o'clock, when the vote was taken on the passage of the bill, and decided in the affirmative—yeas 26, nays 18.

Correspondence of the American.

WASHINGTON, April 21, 1842

The loan for the Government, it is said here, will be negotiated without any trouble, notwithstanding all the croaking which has been heard in and out of Congress. It is by no means surprising that there should be such a negotiation, for no investment could be safer. The Intelligencer this morning hints at the fact I name, and I hear the same from other quarters.

Lord Ashburton is going on with his mission here, and most successfully, it would seem, so far as the preliminaries depend upon a good understanding.—Between his Lordship, the Executive and the Executive officers there is the best understanding. Socially his Lordship is treated with marked kindness and respect. Mr. Adams entertained him an evening or two since at his house and made a large party to receive him including all the Foreign Ministers and Mr. Clay.

To day he dines at the house of the Secretary of State, and early next week Lord Ashburton will entertain a large party at his own house. The President has already given a handsome entertainment. So far every thing looks well to a pacific termination of matters. Yours.

CONGRESS—The Correspondent of the Baltimore American of Thursday says:—

The MARYLAND MEMORIAL was presented in the House this morning signed by nine thousand and ninety-four citizens of Baltimore without distinction of party. The petitioners ask for the protection of domestic manufactures and countervailing duties in our intercourse with foreign nations.

Mr. J. T. Mason of Md. took the opportunity of remarking, that but very few of the Democratic party had signed the memorial

Mr. Kennedy said he was very glad to hear there were so many true Whigs in the city of Baltimore.

The memorial was then referred.

U. S. LOAN.—The National Intelligencer of Thursday says—"It gives us pleasure to be able to state that an offer has been made to the Government, at par, and on otherwise favorable terms, for a considerable part of the U. S. Loan lately authorized by an act of Congress."

THE BOUNDARY QUESTION.—In allusion to the report respecting the adjustment of the boundary question through the medium of Lord Ashburton, and the Convening of the Legislature of Maine, the Portland Argus contains the following:

It is now pretty generally understood in this quarter that Mr. Webster has written to Governor Fairfield, requesting him to call forthwith an extra session of the Legislature, for the purpose of appointing commissioners to treat with Lord Ashburton, and the General Government, on the Northeastern boundary question. It is also understood that Gov. Davis, of Massachusetts, has been written to on the same subject, and for the same purpose. If the Legislature of this State should be convened for the single object of taking preliminary steps in the settlement of this perplexing question, we hope that party considerations will not be allowed in the remotest degree to mingle in its deliberations.

☞Among the rumors brought by the Great Western, is one that the Queen is again 'as ladies wish to be who love their lords.' There would seem, therefore, to be no ground for apprehension that, among the failures to which the nation is doomed, there is the least likelihood of there being one of a successor to her Royal house, and in her own family.

GREAT WALKING FEAT.—Mr. G. W. Dixon concluded yesterday afternoon says the American, at four o'clock the extraordinary feat of walking sixty successive hours without taking rest or sleep. A large number of persons was present during the closing hours of the effort.

APPOINTMENT BY THE PRESIDENT.—Benton H. Crockett, to be Collector of the port of Vienna, vice Maj. Charles Leary.

ST. JOHN'S WORT.—A Mr. Mott, in the Maine Farmer, says that this weed will cure the consumption. If it will do that, it is the first thing we ever heard it was good for; but as we live to learn and as every thing was intended by Providence, doubtless, for some good purpose, it may be, that this hitherto considered pest, may prove a blessing.

Amer. Farmer.

RHODE ISLAND.—The letter of President Tyler, which we published on Monday, says the American, in reply to a communication from the Governor of Rhode Island, was accompanied by a report from Mr. Whipple in behalf of the committee that went with the Governor's despatch to Washington.

In this report Mr. Whipple states briefly the real point at issue in Rhode Island—that it is not between the advocates of extended suffrage and the opponents of that measure, for the LEGAL constitution provides for that extension to every native born white male citizen, with no other qualification but that of residence. He refers to the disorganizing principles upon which the revolutionists are proceeding, and says:

Under the operation of such principles no government can exist a single year. It is not merely revolution, but revolution after all the objects that revolution can achieve have been attained. It is a principle not only subversive of a representative republican government, but fatal to the continuance of a democracy in any and in all its forms of real or fancied perfection.

RHODE ISLAND.—The legal election in this State is to take place to-day. The revolutionary party had their election all to themselves on Monday, and according to appearances it was a slim affair. The whole number of votes returned for the city of Providence is 2154.

We presume the force of public opinion in other States, and the proper and decisive manifestation of his views by the President, will prevent any serious opposition to the organization of the State Government, to be determined by the election of to-day.—N. Y. Am. April 20.
