For the Easton Gazette.

The Wheat Crops of this county are more flattering at this time (last day of April) than for forty years past. In 1816, on the 1st day of May in that year, prospect very fine altho' much checked by the cool weather in April. In 1819, 1st May, Crops were very good, but did not arrive to that perfection as in 1816. In 1820, 1st May, wheat had a great growth, but many Crops in different sections of the County were entirely destroyed by the hail storms of the 6th and 26th of that month. In noticing the appearance of Wheat from year to year, from the vast improving of Land for twenty years back, it is but a fair inference to suppose, that the crops would gradually look more luxurious. For instance look over at this time the Bayside district, and then go back twenty years, and you would not believe that it was the old Bayside, all this done by the magic of industry and Lime; I speak from experience when I say it was once a Corn buyer, now a Corn seller.

Altho' appearances at the present time are so gratifying, let us not be too sanguine; Wheat has yet to pass the ordeal of a critical season. B.

For the Easton Gazette.

Friends of Temperance.—ATTENTION! With blended emotions of pleasure and exultation, I take my seat to address you:—pleasure, in reviewing the past history of our glorious cause:—exultation, in viewing from our present proud eminence, the certain success of our future operations. To you, the fruitful adherents to your Total Abstinence vows, we speak the words of confidence. The cause in which you have enlisted, is the cause of experience, of reason, of good health, of domestic felicity, of our country, of THE WORLD, of our God. The erudite Apostle to the Gentiles (who was also the ablest confounder of the infidel Jews) reasoned of "RIGHTEOUSNESS, TEMPERANCE and A JUDGMENT TO COME." In thus reasoning, A FELIX TREMBLED. Surely THE christian cause should not have abated any of its power to shake the nerves of unrighteous opposition (already enfeebled by BACCHANALIAN licentiousness) after the reiterated achievements of eighteen centuries!!! No. Temperance men! No. Its power has as much increased, as it has ripened by age, and gathered strength by growing multitudes.

With a yet more important consideration, I address you. YOU ARE THE CONSERVATORS OF THE RIGHTS OF THIS AGE. By the sober firmness of your onward march are the Jericho walls of Mammon to fall—the Canaanitish possessions of iniquity to be taken—the temples of DOMESTIC as well as, FOREIGN idolatry, to be demolished. What, but the short sighted, extravagant legislation of corrupt, inebriated statesmen, has brought our once happy nation to the verge of bankruptcy? And who will plant the balustrade on the edge of this frightful precipice, but the sober army of Temperance men! I tell you, UPON YOU, and you ALONE, under the smiles of a gracious Protector, rests the glorious work of rescuing an undone people! I despair of the wisdom of politicians—until, indeed, the halls of Congress, and our State legislatures shall be filled by Temperance men—to do any thing for permanent relief. One set of Laws may succeed another set of laws—one set of MAKERS may follow another set:—yet distraction (the invariable ally of distrust) will confuse the ranks of society, until the soberness and discretion of OUR cause shall breathe the spirit of ORDER over the hitherto chaotic elements, and mankind be thus brought TO SEE and KNOW, and FEEL their rights.

Nothing wavering then, I say to you, "once more," my friends, "once more unto the breach" repair; with the fascines, and scaling ladders, and broad swords of TRUTH, with which you are already abundantly equipped,—and ere long, the last hope of the foe—the last rampart of PRINCE ALCOHOL will be ours!!! And the glad Jubilee of freedom from the bonds of iniquity;—the chains of intemperance, and every associated ally of the Prince of darkness, will be shouted, from east to west, from north to south, "THE WORLD OVER."

CYRUS.

17th March, 1842.

THE TRIAL OF HOLMES.—We learn from the Philadelphia Ledger that the trial of Holmes was concluded in that city on Friday last. Holmes was one of the crew of the William Brown, and one of those who assisted in throwing the passengers from the boat He does not deny his participation in the awful tragedy, but justifies the sacrifice on the ground of impending and unavoidable necessity. The testimony produced by him on the trial, and the speeches were all directed towards the establishment of this defence. The charge of Judge Baldwin was generally understood to be unfavorable to the prisoner, so far as the law of necessity was concerned.

The jury, after remaining out several hours brought in a verdict of guilty, and recommending him to the mercy of the court. The charge against him was for manslaughter on the high seas.

We perceive by the Washington papers that Dr Gershom Huff, the celebrated Dentist of this city, is now doing business at the national metropolis.—There can't possibly be a better Dentist than Mr. Huff, and a half a dozen as good are not to be found in this hemisphere. The members of Congress and others concerned, will now have a rich opportunity of putting their mouths in order, and no mistake; and let us add, that they should by all means take advantage of it, for if we are any judge of languages, FOULER mouths than some of theirs are not to be found on this side of Billingsgate. Dr. Huff must make haste back again—we can't spare him—[N. Y Tattler

THE OLD NORTH STATE.—We are glad to see that North Carolina is coming to her senses. The "Fayettville Observer" states, as by authority, that the Bank of the State of North Carolina, and the Bank of Cape Fear, will resume specie payments on Monday, the 2d May ensuing. What will old Mrs. Virginia do now? It was said that the Virginia banks were waiting for Maryland and Pennsylvania; when that excuse would do no longer, North Carolina was referred to as a stumbling block to Virginia.—Will Virginia resume on the 2d of May? The notes of the banks of that State are an eye-sore to business men in these parts.

A GOOD TITLE.—At an ejectment cause tried at Onondaga Circuit, New York the defendant claimed title under a Patent Sign by George Washington, Commander-in Chief, &c. &c. The signature was proved by two or three old soldiers from Orange County.

IMPORTANT ABOLITION MOVEMENT.—The Boston Liberator, alluding to the usual annual abolition convention that meets in New York on the 11th of next month, distinctly avows that its purpose now is, to adopt the measure of a Repeal of the Union of the States, and that this project will occupy the deliberations at the next anniversary.—Sun.

THE CROPS.—From all sections of the Union, the accounts continue cheering. Should no untoward circumstance happen, the wheat crops of the present year will be immense.

THE SEASON.—The Richmond Enquirer of Friday the 22d inst. thus discourses upon the present season:

The precocious Spring is nearly three weeks ahead of the former season. The strawberry is appearing in market The wheat fields are covered with the most beautiful & luxuriant growth. The early red May wheat is already heading. The harvest promises to be three weeks earlier than usual; and unless it should seriously injured by the rust or by lodging, the harvest will be singularly fine. We shall have flour much sooner in market—the Banks will be in the same proportion assisted by the possession of Northern funds—and the great produce of the crop will smooth the way to the resumption of specie payments.

BACON.—Upwards of a million and a quarter of pounds of Bacon left this place via the canal for Eastern markets last week. We are afraid it goes to but indifferent markets, for it is one of the articles interdicted in Europe. But what would this market be if the Eastern manufactories were broken up, as assuredly if protection is not afforded they will be and the persons employed in them compelled to seek employment in agricultural pursuits? This is a question for farmers, the only class to whom it is even pretended the Tariff would be injurious to ask and answer.

Pittsburgh Adv. of 19th inst.

STEREOTYPE IT.—That in the ten years previous to Genl. Jackson's war on the currency system the number of Banks created was 22, with a capital of $8 090.000 That in the next two years the number of Banks created was 268, with a capital of $368 090 000; that the former Banks were generally sound, and the latter have generally proved unsound: and that the Loco Focos are now breaking down the very currency they gave us, bad as it is, and are fast reducing us to the condition of no currency at all.

ARRIVAL OF THE BRITANNIA.
4 DAYS LATER FROM EUROPE

The steamer Britannia, Captain Hewsitt, arrived at East Boston, on Wednesday morning, about 7 o'clock, having left Liverpool on the 5th inst. She brings files of London and Liverpool papers to the 5th inst. She has made her passage from Liverpool to Boston in 14½ days.

The only intelligence of any importance that she brings is the confirmation of the report of the overthrow of the English force in Affghanistan. She brings, also dates from China up to January 17th, being three weeks later than previously received—but nothing has occurred of importance. The London Times, of the 5th inst, contains full particulars of the above news.

The Overland Mail reached London on the afternoon of the 4th inst.

Trade in the manufacturing districts remained in the same depressed state, as at last advices. Cotton was dull, and had declined a full half penny, for low descripitions, within the week which ended on the 5th inst., while the best qualities maintained former prices Foreign Wheat had advanced in price considerably, within a fortnight, owing, it is said, to the fact that 2 000.000 of the September importation had gone into consumption. The quantity of free foreign wheat left did not amount to more than 500.000 qrs.—and that of bonded some what less. Money continued plenty and easy. The bullion in the Bank of England was increasing rapidly, and it was understood that the Directors would very shortly reduce the general rate of interest to four per cent.

INDIA—IMPORTANT.

The Oriental steamer arrived at Marseilles on Thursday evening, March 31. She bears the following disastrous intelligence.

"The news from India is to the end of January, according to which it appears that after the death of Sir William M'Naghten, negotiations were resumed by Major Pottinger, and a convention agreed on for the evacuation by the British forces of Jellalabad, Ghuzui, Cabool and Candahar; that in pursuance thereof, the troops, to the number of 10.000, SET OUT AND WERE IN TREACHEROUS DEFIANCE OF THE TREATY, ALL MASSACRED Two or three natives alone escaped.

Gen. Sale has refused to surrender Jellalabad, and is prepared for a vigorous defence. Gen. Elphinstone is not dead, although wounded. He is a prisoner in the hands of Ukbar Khan.
