SPRING.

I have felt the breath of the joyous Spring—
O, where doth her bright home lie?
I have heard the voice of all Nature sing,
As on it her mantle she quick doth fling
From her form as she hastens by.
Doth she meet the view on some eastern strand,
Where the blue wave kisseth the golden sand?
Is she seen where forms of the purest light,
In all their loveliness rise,
That seem in our dreams surpassingly bright,
Yet never do come to greet our fond sight
From out th' etherial skies?
Doth she lie in that pure yet gorgeous shroud,
Of amber and rose, in the sunset cloud
That bursts on the 'raptured vision there
- Where the golden sunbeams rest,
Like splendid halls and bright palaces fair,
That stay for a moment, then melt into air,
And sink in the roseate west?
Or far, far away o'er the deep, blue sea,
In lovely retreats, may her fair home be?
Doth she dwell in the shade of spicy groves
On the far off Indian plains,
Where the feathered songster freely roves,
And warbles forth his enamoured loves,
In the purest and gentlest strains?
Where the zephyr's breath wafts sweet perfume,
From the citron grove and the orange bloom,
And the paradise bird is soaring high,
With his gorgeous plumage rare,
And the swift gazelle is bounding by,
With his beauteous form and his raven eye,
Away from the hunter's snare?
From fragrant flowers sweet oders arise:
O say, is it here that her fair home lies?
Or else in the depths of the glassy deep
Doth she rear her palace grand?
With her crystal hall and her coral seat,
Where the sea-plant waves and the dolphins leap,
On the floor of shining sand—
Is it here—is it here—she oft is seen,
And holding her court like a fairy queen?
But if this cold world has no place so bright,
For a being so lovely and fair,
Doth she float in the sky like an angel bright,
Where the planets roll in orbits of light
Through the fields of trackless air,
Where meteors flash with their flaming crest,
On the airy sea as it lieth at rest;
And comets are burning in all their pride,
On the blue etherial wave,
Now dashing the spray from their fiery side
Now seeming in wrath on the waves to ride,
And the starry host to brave;
And the nightly queen in her glittering car,
Rolls through the blue fields by the silver star?
O tell me, I pray, for I long to know
If 'tis here her fair land lies?
O no! it is not where those planets glow,
Nor beneath the blue wave far, far below,
Where the coral palaces rise;
Nor is her bright home revealed to the eye,
Where those beautiful clouds are passing by
But she comes all fair from the Deity's hand,
To smile on and gladden the earth,
And wherever she waves her magical wand
On the northern snows or the Indian land,
There rises gladness and mirth!
Her home is more bright in the fancy's soul,
Than where the light spheres in their courses roll.

Mamma Kitty's SALVE,

NOW FOR THE FIRST TIME OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC.

The good effects of this salve have been known among the friends of the now proprietors upwards of fifty years, and was introduced by a worthy and benevolent old German lady who was for many years known in the city of Baltimore by the name of Mamma Kitty, from whom the slave took its name. Mamma Kitty came to this country about sixty years ago with a German physician who settled in the city of Philadelphia, under whose direction she made this salve, and used it with great success. Afterwards she moved to Baltimore, and lived as a nurse in the family of the late Lewis Pascault, Esq. and continued to use her salve in that family and among her friends until her death, previously giving to the now proprietor, the receipe of the preparation together with some of her salve, which has only been used in his family and among his friends until this time. But having found a great demand for it at home and abroad, and through the earnest solicitation of physicians and friends, we are now induced to offer it to the public.

The above salve is confidently recommended in all cases of old unhealthy sores and ulcers. See the accompanying recommendations.

DR. CHATARD'S CERTIFICATE.

Dear Madam:—I was well acquainted with Mamma Kitty—she was a benevolent old woman, who more than once related to me the wonderful cures operated by her salve—And I believe she was incapable of telling an untruth. I can certify (so far) by the good effect that salve has produced in my own family, that it is an excellent composition. And the best proof I can give you of my faith in its curative power, is to desire you to send me five boxes of it for the cash here enclosed, $5.

Very respectfully,

Your most ob't serv't.

P. CHATARD, M. D.

Baltimore, May 2d, 1841.

DR S. T. RUSSUM'S CERTIFICATE.

I have for fourteen years past been intimate and the family physician, in Mr L. C. Pascault's family. and have frequently had the opportunity to observe the good effects of a salve made by Mrs. Pascault, (called Mamma Kitty's salve) and do not hesitate to say, that it is an excellent digestive preparation, and is worthy the attention of medical men as well as others, in all cases of sanious sores or indolent ulcers.

SYDENHAM T. RUSSUM, M. D.

Wye Mills, 27th June, 1841.

MRS PASCAULT.—Madam—This is to certify, that I was bitten by a dog on my ancle the third day of January, 1837, and was attended by three eminent physicians until August, 1839, and made use of a variety of popular applications, all of which failed in giving relief. When I heard of Mamma Kitty's salve I procured some from you, and in seven weeks from the time I commenced using it, my leg was healed over; the sore extended from the end of my toes nearly to my hip, and was swollen to three times its natural size, and I expected it would have to be cut off—indeed the Doctors thought so. I am now seventy years old, and my leg feels as well as ever it did. My faith was so great in the healing qualities of your salve, that one of my family had a bone film, and her child a tetter worm on its head—they applied the salve, which made a perfect cure. One of my grand children has had very sore eyes from its birth—I anointed them with the salve, and it has entirely taken the inflammation out.

Yours, with respect,

MARY LEWIS.

Kent Island, March 20th, 1841.

DEAR MADAM—According to your request I have examined the certificate of Mrs Lewis, and believe the facts stated by her as regards herself to be perfectly correct. I saw her leg frequently before the use of your salve and several times since and can certify it has made a perfect cure. So far as I have had an opportunity of witnessing the effects of your salve, I believe it to be good, and entitled to the attention of the public.

SAMUEL HARPER, M. D,

March 24th, 1841.

DEAR MADAM—Do me the favor to accept my sincere thanks for the present you kindly made me of your valuable salve I am happy to state that it has made an entire cure of my servant, who laboured for several years with a scrofula affection which baffled all the skill of the physicians that attended him. The disease was so severs that he lost several pieces of bone from his ancle and was entirely disabled from labour. I have used it in several cases in my family for burns, swellings, inflammation, &c. &c. Let me again entreat you not to withhold so valuable a treasure from the public, for I candidly believe it has not its equal. Yours, very respectfully,

CHARLES LEWIS.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having had an intimate acquaintance with Mr. Thomas D. Bell for a number of years, affords me pleasure to express my conviction that he is admirably qualified by his talents, attainments and experience, for the instruction and government of a select school for young ladies. The Female Seminary in Oxford, Pa. has been under his direction and tuition since its commencement; and having attended all its examinations, I am prepared to say that his pupils would compare well with young ladies in the highest seminaries of a similar kind, in any part of our country. I have frequently attended examinations in the celebrated schools of New England, and I hesitate not to say that Mr. Bell has as systematic a course of instruction and has given as complete an education as may be found in the very best schools.—Mr. Bell removes to Newark, Del., an exceedingly healthy and central village, where he designs still to carry on his school with increased facilities to afford an accurate and thorough knowledge of all the solid and polite branches of a complete female education.

It is also due to Miss Bell to say that the pupils in Music under her care, performed admirably and never failed to delight the audience of every examination.

I therefore cheerfully recommend Mr. Bell and also Miss Bell as eminently qualified for their respective stations.

DRS DRESBACH, KUHN & PRYOR'S DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL,

FOR DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, RHEUMATISM, &c. &c. &c. &c.

THE PROPRIETOR of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is farther from his purpose than to offer it to the public as a universal medicine, or cure all. It is adapted to a few diseases only, for which it is confidently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention!

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the appetite when impaired, and promotes digestion—it soothes and tranquilizes the nervous system, when excited or disturbed; produces cheerfulness of spirits, with feelings of general comfort and satisfaction.

In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual remedy

Dyspepsia, Sick or Nervous Headache, cholic, cramp or spasm in the stomach, cholera morbus, hysterics and nervous diseases generally; chrnoic dysentary, diarrhœa or purging, sea sickness, cholera infantum, rheumatism, chronic liver complaints, Female irregularities of a chronic character, attended with cold feet, pain in the back limbs, &c. It is also particularly recommended to those who are suffering under debility, languor, depression of spirits, with irregular or defective appetite, restlessness at night, with unsound or disturbed sleep. In these cases this cordial will be found an admirable remedy! Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiarly adapted to such cases. As a preventive of Ague and Fever it is useful, and those who reside in neighborhoods where this disease prevails would do well to take it once or twice a day during the sickly seasons.

TESTIMONIALS

Leesburgh, Va., July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Herstons, dear sir; *H*aving been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty, I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I hav. used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals. I have a young woman in my family, who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia—by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured. Given under my hand this 10th day of July, 1841.

PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md., Sept 14, 1840:

Mr. C. Herstons—Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines, as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jr.

From the Rev. T. H. W. Monroe.

Liberty-town, Frederick Co: Md, May 9, 1840.

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regarded as Dyspepsia, in its insipient stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of a medical friend to purchase a bottle of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully,

THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr. *C. H*erstons—I willingly comply with your requst to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs. Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz. defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor, debility, &c. These symptons were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of a bottle of Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times, as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbour's; she hastened home and took a dose of the cordial, and sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

Mr. *H*urstons—My wife, a few weeks age, had a violent attack of cramp cholic She thought she would have died—I was alarmed. In the description given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, i found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms or cramp in the stomach.—It justly sustained its character in my wife's case. The attack commenced about day-light. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.

Mr. C *H*urstons—At times for twelve months past, I have been subject to violent attacks of Cholic, so much so, that I have frequently had to go to bed for days together. Last spring I began to use Drs. Dresbach. Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, to which I had been recommended by a friend; it almost gave me immediate relief from the distressing pains I endured—it is very prompt in affording relief—it has likewise been effectual in several cases, for which it is recommended, in my family, and, believing it ought to be publicly known, I give this voucher of its merits.

From the Rev. Leonard B. Gurley

I have confidence in the Dyspeptic Cordial prepared by Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor. It has been used in my family for sick headache and severe rheumatic pains, affecting the shoulder and chest—and has afforded immediate and apparently permanent relief.
