John C. McCrachen, assignee of Benedict Yates, vs.
Charles Thompson.

Be it remembered, That heretofore to wit, on the twenty eighth day of July in the year of our Lord, one thousand, eight hundred and fifty three John C. McCrachen assignee of Benedict Yates by Benjamin G. Harris, Esquire their attorney, prosecuted and sued forth out of the Court of Appeals here, a writ of the State of Maryland, of Venditioni Exponas to the sheriff of Saint Mary's County directed, in the words and figures following to wit:

Maryland Sc. - The State of Maryland. - To Sheriff of Saint Marys County Greeting: Whereas, at a County Court, begun and held at Leonard Town in and for Saint Mary's County on the first Monday of August in the year of our Lord one thousand (Seal) hundred and fifty a certain John C. McCrachen assignee of Benedict Yates by the judgment of the said Court, recovered against a certain Charles Thompson as well the sum of two hundred and six dollars and ninety two cents, debt, as the sum of four hundred and fifty dollars for his damages, which he had sustained by reason of the detention of that debt as also for the sum sum of nine dollars thirteen and one third cents for his costs whereof the said Charles Thompson is convict as by inspecting the record of proceedings of the same Court, brought before the Court of Appeals at the City of Annapolis, by reason of errors alleged to have been therein, manifestly appears: And whereas it hath been adjudged in the said Court of Appeals that the City of Annapolis aforesaid, on the first Monday in June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty two that the said judgment given in form aforesaid, be in all things affirmed and ratified, and that the said John C. McCrachen assignee of Benedict Yates might have execution against the said Charles Thompson for as well the debt damages, costs and charges aforesaid, as adjudged unto him in the said County Court, as also for the sum of Seven dollars and sixty six cents for his damages, costs and charges by him sustained, by reason of delaying the execution of the judgment aforesaid, by means of the prosecuting a certain appeal by the said Charles Thompson before the said Court of Appeals, for the correcting of errors of and upon the premises, whereof the said Charles Thompson is convict, as of record at likewise appeareth. And whereas also, on the twenty sixth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty three you were commanded, that of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements, of the said Charles Thompson being in your bailiwick, you should cause to be made the debt damages, costs and charges aforesaid, and that you should have those sums before the said Court of Appeals, to be held at the City of Annapolis, on the first Monday of June then next, to render to the said John C. McCrachen assignee of Benedict Yates the debt damages, costs and charges aforesaid. On which said first Monday in June in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty three you made return to the said Court of Appeals that by virtue of the said writ to you directed for that purpose, you had taken "one tract or parcel of land pr. Scotland three fourths Richard McCarrans land to wit, Vowels purchase and White acre McCremans lot and Vowels purchase White acre addition to White acre vowels purchase purchase and Bissells Venture Long Neck and bussells Venture White acre long Neck containing in all 292 acres more or less" the property of the said Charles Thompson in your bailiwick being, to satisfy unto the said John C. McCrachen assignee of Benedict Yates the debt damages costs and charges aforesaid, in the said writ mentioned which said property remained in your hands unsold for want of buyers, so that the said debt damages, costs and charges, you could not have, as you were by the said writ commanded. Therefore, you are hereby commanded, that the said property so as aforesaid taken, you expose to sale, and the money therefrom arising you have before the said Court of Appeals, to be held at the City of Annapolis, on the first Monday of December next, to render unto the said John C. McCrachen, assignee of Benedict Yates the debt damages, costs and charges aforesaid, and all such costs as have accrued on the said writ of fieri facias, and how you shall execute this writ, you make appear unto the said Court of Appeals, at the place and on the day aforesaid, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Honorable John C. Legrand Esquire, Chief Judge of the said Court of Appeals, the sixth day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and fifty three. - Issued the twenty eighth day of July 1853. -
