ded with 1¼ degrees retrograde allowance for variation by the black broken lines two courses - 1 S 57¾ E. 158 pᵈ. to the point under B. 2 S 6¾ W 111½ pᵈ. to the point under C. in the plain black line drawn from F. to I. - 3 S 87¼ E. 91 to pᵈ. to the stone at I. then 4 N 11¾ E. 201½ pᵈ. to D. the beginning containing 345 acres 2 roods 20 pᵉ of Land.

4 - The deed from Holliday and others to Hercules Courtney is laid down a second way to correspond with the erroneous location of Darnalsylvania before the location of said land under the commission from the point to the left of D. in the plat which is found by reversing the first line of Darnalsylvania from a stone planted at E. referred to in Depositions No. 18 and 21 of Benjamin Burton and Richard Burton shewn to the surveyor as the stone supposed to be at the end of the first line of said land called Darnalsylvania agreeable to the erroneous location of said land allowing 1½ degrees retrograde variation, black broken lines three courses, 1 N 79¼ W. 250 pᵉ. to the stone at E. 2 S 12¾ W. 320 pᵉ. to the points at G - 3 S 77¼ E 250 pᵉ. to the point at 4 Y. S. 12¾ E 320 pᵉ. to D the beginning for 500 acres.

At the end of 38¾ pᵉ. on the second line of Darnalsylvania per the erroneous location 5 to pᵉ. S 79¾ E from the stone at the root of the hickory tree at G.

5 - The deed from Courtney to Skinner dated 26th September 1787 recorded in Liber W. G. A. A. folio 668 &c. Is located a second way from the point to the left of D run the erroneous location of Darnalsylvania with 1½ degrees retrograde variation by the black broken line 1 N 79¼ W. 250 pᵉ. to the stone E. referred to in depositions No. 18 & 21 then with the second line of Darnalsylvania by the black broken line 2 S 12¾ W. 140 pᵉ. to the point over 1 then by the zigzag line 3 S 56½ E. 157 7/10 pᵉ. to the stone at B a stone near the old Cherry tree referred to in the depositions of the plaintiffs witnesses Mary Garrett and others then by the plain black line 4 S 7¾ W. 124½ pᵉ. to the point over the figure 6 in the 2d line of Darnalsylvania as erroneously located, and to within 3½ perches of a stone heap over the figures 128, then with the 3d line of said land so erroneously located 5 S 77¼ E. 89½ pᵉ. to point 4, then 6 N 12¾ E 320 pᵉ. home to D containing per measurement 353¾ acres of land.

6 - The stone at the Camp Ground at A. set up by Harry W. Chambers and Doctor Rusteau, and for the corner of their lands, is situated 3 7/10 pᵉ. N 77 W. from the point over 1. at the end of 140 pᵉ. on the second line of Darnalsylvania according to the erroneous location of said line; and the said stone is found to be 101 perches from the stone at the hickory at E. and about one perch over on the land called Darnalsylvania.

7 - The Zigzag lines from 7 to 8 to 9 and to 10, are located to show the fence on the North and West side of a public Road referred to in Deposition No. 21, Richard Burton No. 20 Jacob Seddon; and No. 19 Wᵐ Powell entering upon the premises of Major Armstrong, at the gate at the point under the figure 10 and referred to Deposition No. 18 Benjamin Burton; so much of the Zig Zag lines as runs from 8 to 9 and to 10, are particularly referred to in Depositions No. 19 and 20 of Jacob Seddon and William Powell.

8 - The Zig Zag lines from E. to 11 and to 12. denotes the position of fencing.

9 - The Zig Zag lines from the point under the figures 13 enclosing Lloyd Mitchell's Lot, are located to denote a parcel of cleared land upon which stands a small house now occupied by Lloyd Mitchell referred to in deposition No. 18 Benjamin Burton, and No. 21 Richard Burton, The Zig Zag lines from the stone from the stone at A. at Camp Woods to I. to B. and to the double chestnut tree over C. referred to in the deposition of Daniel Chambers; then to the point over F. at a large stone and to the figures 14. show the position of fencing; so much of said fencing as runs from the corner of the Camp field over I. to B. is referred to by most of the plaintiffs witnesses.

10 - All that portion of Darnalsylvania shaded yellow lying east of the above mentioned public Road along the Zig Zag lines from the figures 8. to 9. and to 10. and in which the letter K. is inserted has long been standing open and unenclosed as will be proved by the witnesses.

11 - The deed from Hercules Courtney to Daniel Chambers dated 20th Nov. 1807 recorded in Liber W. G. No. 96 folio 22 &c. I have laid down in conformity with the lines of Darnalsylvania agreeable to the establishment made under the commission to mark and bound the first and second lines of said land from D. the stone heap, runs by the plain black lines 2 courses. 1 N 79¾ W. 250 pᵉ to the stone E. 2 S 11½ W. 140 pᵉ to the point under A. then run the 3d and 4th lines of said deed with 1¼ degrees retrograde variation by the black broken lines two courses - 3 S 57¾ E. 158 pᵉ. to the point under B. - 4 - S 6¾ W 111¼ pᵉ. to the point under C. in the plain black line drawn from F. to I then - 5 S. 87¼ E 91 to pᵉ. to the stone at I then 6 N 11¾ E. 201½ pᵉ. to D. the beginning measuring 345 ac. 2 r. 20 pᵉ. of Land.

12 - The residue of the said tract called Darnalsylvania remaining in Hercules Courtney in conformity with the commission location from the point under A. end of 140 pᵉ. on the 2d line of Darnalsylvania allow 1¼° retrograde allowance for variation 2 courses broken lines. - 1 S 57 7/10 E 158 to the point under B - 2 S 6¾ W 111½ to the point under C. in the plain black line drawn from F. to I then - 3 N 87¼ W. 157 7/10 pᵉ. to stone at F. by the Branch shewn to the surveyor for the end of the second line of Darnalsylvania agreeable to the Commission establishment, then on said line reversed by the plain black line 4 N 11½ E 192½ pᵉ. to A. the beginning, measuring 145 acres 2 r. 36 pᵉ. of land.

13. The land part of Darnalsylvania re-vested in Courtney as conveyed by him to Skinner agreeable to the location of Darnalsylvania made under the commission is the same as defendants location No. 11 commencing at D. and runs to E. to A. to B. to the point under C. to I to D. the beginning containing 345 ½ acres and 20 square perches of land.

14 - The Land devised by Daniel Chambers to his son Harry W. Chambers by Will dated 7th May 1827, is laid down from the point over P. at the end of 107 7/10 pᵉ. on the first line of Darnalsylvania agreeable to the commission location, and runs with the 1st. and second lines of said land, by plain black lines 1 N 79¾ W 142 7/10 pᵉ. to E. a stone at the hickory thence 2 S 11½ W 140 pᵉ. to the point under A. then by the broken lines two courses - 3 S 57¾ E. 158 to the point under B. 4 S 6¾ W. 111½ pᵉ. to the point under C. in the plain black line drawn from F. to I