Poetry.

ON SEEING A TABLE MADE OF WOOD FROM THE MOUNT OF OLIVES.

Hail, sacred relic!—Can it be
Judea's suns have nurtur'd thee?
Say, did'st thou rear a verdant crest,
And spread in branches bold and fair,
Upon that mountain's hallow'd breast,
Where erst my Saviour knelt in prayer?

Borne on, by Fancy's swelling tide,
Deep visions o'er thee, seem to glide,
Methinks, upon thy polished brow,
The pilgrim's kiss might be forgiven,
Or low, the meek enthusiast bow
Before thee, as a shrine from Heaven.

Oh thou,—whose table here below,
At thy last supper held a foe,
Teach us a sleepless watch to set,
From every traitorous sin to flee,
And by thy prayer on Olivet
Protect us when we fly to thee.

A Farm on the Salt Water
FOR SALE.

The subscriber, as agent for the proprietor, will sell at private sale, a snug farm on Miles River, immediately adjoining the residence of Mr. Andrew Skinner and nearly opposite the town of St Michaels. The neighbourhood is remarkably pleasant and healthy and the adjacent waters afford the finest oysters and other delicacies. The farm contains about two hundred acres of land, in a very compact form; about 120 acres of which are in cultivation and 80 acres in good timber The cleared land is laid off in four fields of 60,000 corn hills each, under good enclosures; and is separated from the adjoining farms by the water, with the exception of a short division fence of about one hundred pannels in length.

There are abundant resources of sea ooze salt marsh, and swamp-mud from the woods, & a small quantity of Indian shell bank. Marl has been discovered in a single place from which it is inferred that there is more on the farm. The convenience of getting oyster shells, however is so great, as to make them nearly, if not quite as cheap as marl. The improvements consist of a one story dwelling, almost new, located near the water and in the centre of the farm; and an excellent barn containing a stable and corn-crib which was built last year, at a cost of five hundred dollars.—There is a spring of good water not far from the dwelling.

Terms—One fourth in cash—the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal annual instalments.

The property will be shown to any one desirous to purchase by Mr. Gannon, who has rented it for the present year.

DRS. DRESBACH, KUHN & PRYORS
DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL,

FOR DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, RHEUMATISM, &c. &c. &c. &c.

THE PROPRIETOR of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is farther from his purpose than to offer it to the public as a universal medicine, or cure all It is adapted to a few diseases only, for which it is confidently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention!

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the appetite when impaired, and promotes digestion—it soothes and tranquilizes the nervous system, when excited or disturbed; produces cheerfulness of spirits, with feelings of general comfort and satisfaction.

In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual remedy

Dyspepsia, Sick or Nervous Headache, cholic, cramp or spasm in the stomach, cholera morbus, hysterics and nervous diseases generally; chrnoic dysentary, diarrhœa or purgings sea sickness, cholera infantum, rheumatism, chronic liver complaints, Female irregularitie, of a chronic character, attended with cold feet, pain in the back, limbs, &c. It is also particularly recommended to those who are suffering under debility, languor, depression of spirits, with irregular or defective appetite restlessness at night, with unsound or disturbed sleep. In these cases this cordial will be found an admirable remedy! Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiarly adapted to such cases. As a preventive of Ague and Fever it is useful, and those who reside in neighborhoods where this disease prevails would do well to take it once or twice a day during the sickly seasons.

TESTIMONIALS

Leesburgh, Va., July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Herstons, dear sir; Having been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty. I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspepic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals I have a young woman in my family, who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia—by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured. Given under my hand this 10th day of July, 1841.

PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md., Sept 14, 1840:

Mr. C. Herstons—Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines, as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jr.

From the Rev. T. H. W. Monroe.

Liberty-town, Frederick Co. Md, May 9, 1840

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regarded as Dyspepsia, in its insipient stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of a medical friend to purchase a bottle of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully,

THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr. C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your requst to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs. Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz. defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor, debility, &c. These symptons were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of a bottle of Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times, as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbour's; she hastened home and took a dose of the cordial, and sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md. Sept 1840.

Mr. Hurstons—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic She thought she would have died—I was alarmed. In the description given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms or cramp in the stomach.—It justly sustained its character in my wife's case. The attack commenced about day-light. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.

JACOB KESSLER.

Clarksburg, Monty. Co. Nov 30, 1840.

Mr. C Hurstons—At times for twelve months past, I have been subject to violent attacks of Cholic, so much so, that I have frequently had to go to bed for days together. Last spring I began to use Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, to which I had been recommended by a friend; it almost gave me immediate relief from the distressing pains I endured—it is very prompt in affording relief—it has likewise been effectual in several cases, for which it is recommended, in my family, and, believing it ought to be publicly known, I give this voucher of its merits.
