[For the Easton Gazette.]

ODE, TO THE SPIRIT OF A DEPARTED CHILD

Thou talk'st to me in dreams, my boy,
Shall I not sing to thee,
When waking hours my thoughts employ,
In simple melody?
I cannot see thee, when the day
Spreads his bright beams around;
Yet when I on my pillow lay,
With me, thy shade is found.

How lovely still thou look'st, my child,
More lovely than before
Thy cherub face, the spoiler spoil'd,
He cannot hurt thee, more.
I love to ramble thro' that grove,
Where thou with me didst go,
Where coos, as coo'd, the turtle-dove,
Still pensive on the bough.

I love to see thy almond-flower;—
It still goes by thy name:—
One half, I plac'd by th' wild-rose bow'r,
Where sleeps thy quiet frame.
I love to watch the apple tree
Which grows on the garden bed;
Its bright green leaves tell me of thee,
Thy hand did sow the seed.
I'll keep the little wooden case
Of toys, thou calledst "mine;"
As they did please thee, now they please
Thy sire, for they were thine.
I'll think of thee, while life doth last;
I'll dwell with thee in heav'n,
When my heart has felt the chilly blast
By which, from life 'tis riv'n. ****

EASTERN SHORE, June 15th, 1842.

From the Philadelphia United States Gazette.

Mr. Editor—As you have in the very teeth of patronage, and in the face of power, flung abroad the flag for Henry Clay, as the best qualified for, and most deserving of the next Presidency, I send you the enclosed transcript from the original, by a lady of our city.

I think you will think that these verses express the true doctrine by which the friends of Clay should be governed, and the duty they have to perform.

The powerful influence of the Ladies in the election of the lamented HARRISON, without o'er topping their proper sphere, was every where felt and acknowledged, and here we have one thus early in field, known among her friends as possessing a highly cultivated mind, and all the domestic virtues.

ORIGINAL SONG.

BY A LADY.

AIR—Auld Lang Syne.

1

Leave vain regrets for errors past,
Nor cast the ship away:
But nail your colors to the mast,
And strike for HARRY CLAY.

2

From him no treason need be fear'd,
Your cause he'll ne'er betray;
What name to freemen so endear'd,
As that of HARRY CLAY!

3

No vain abstractions fill his head,
To lead his heart astray;
For every noble promise made,
Is kept by HARRY CLAY.

4

Then let not treason's hated form,
Thus fill you with dismay,
But gath'ring strength to breast the storm,
Stand fast by HARRY CLAY.

5

Rise bravely for one effort more;
Your motto to display;
PROTECTION FOR OUR NATIVE SHORE!
Sustained by HARRY CLAY.

6

And o'er our gallant Chieftain's grave,
Pledge we our faith this day,
In weal or woe, no change to know,
'Till triumphs HARRY CLAY!

CHORUS:

'Till triumphs HARRY CLAY my boys,
'Till triumphs HARRY CLAY:
In weal or woe, no change to know,
'Till triumphs HARRY CLAY!

A Farm on the Salt Water FOR SALE.

The subscriber, as agent for the proprietor, will sell at private sale, a snug farm on Miles River, immediately adjoining the residence of Mr. Andrew Skinner and nearly opposite the town of St Michaels. The neighbourhood is remarkably pleasant and healthy and the adjacent waters afford the finest oysters and other delicacies. The farm contains about two hundred acres of land, in a very compact form; about 120 acres of which are in cultivation and 80 acres in good timber. The cleared land is laid off in four fields of 60,000 corn hills each, under good enclosures; and is separated from the adjoining farms by the water, with the exception of a short division fence of about one hundred pannels in length.

There are abundant resources of sea ooze salt marsh, and swamp-mud from the woods, & a small quantity of Indian shell bank. Marl has been discovered in a single place from which it is inferred that there is more on the farm. The convenience of getting oyster shells, however is so great, as to make them nearly if not quite as cheap as marl. The improvements consist of a one story dwelling, almost new, located near the water and in the centre of the farm; and an excellent barn containing a stable and corn-crib which was built last year, at a cost of five hundred dollars.—There is a spring of good water not far from the dwelling.

Terms—One fourth in cash—the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal annual instalments.

The property will be shown to any one desirous to purchase by Mr. Gannon, who has rented it for the present year.

THOMAS D. BELL

August, 14, 1841.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having had an intimate acquaintance with Mr Thomas D. Bell for a number of years, affords me pleasure to express my conviction that he is admirably qualified by his talents, attainments and experience, for the instruction and government of a select school for young ladies. The Female Seminary in Oxford, Pa. has been under his direction and tuition since its commencement; and having attended all its examinations, I am prepared to say that his pupils would compare well with young ladies in the highest seminaries of a similar kind, in any part of our country. I have frequently attended examinations in the celebrated schools of New England, and I hesitate not to say that Mr. Bell has as systematic a course of instruction and has given as complete an education as may be found in the very best schools.—Mr. Bell removes to Newark, Del., an exceedingly healthy and central village, where he designs still to carry on his school with increased facilities to afford an accurate and thorough knowledge of all the solid and polite branches of a complete female education.

It is also due to Miss Bell to say that the pupils in Music under her care, performed admirably and never failed to delight the audience of every examination.

I therefore cheerfully recommend Mr. Bell and also Miss Bell as eminently qualified for their respective stations.

JAMES M. INTIRE, Pastor of the Presbyterian Church, Elkton, Md.

July 22d, 1841.

The following is an extract from a letter from the Rev. Thomas Love, dated

LOVEVILLE, Del., June 18th, 1841.

"With the system you have adopted, your mode of communicating instruction, the government of your school, and the management of the boarding department—I am highly gratified. With the examination I was so much delighted that I really wished that all parents who have daughters to educate could have been present. The improvement which our daughter made while with you exceeded far my expectations, and I greatly regret that she is not enjoying the privilege of being with you this summer."

DRS. DRESBACH, KUHN & PRYORS DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL,

FOR DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, RHEUMATISM, &c. &c. &c. &c.

THE PROPRIETOR of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is farther from his purpose than to offer it to the public as a universal medicine, or cure all. It is adapted to a few diseases only, for which it is confidently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention!

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the appetite when impaired, and promotes digestion—it soothes and tranquilizes the nervous system, when excited or disturbed; produces cheerfulness of spirits, with feelings of general comfort and satisfaction.

In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual remedy

Dyspepsia, Sick or Nervous Headache, cholic, cramp or spasm in the stomach, cholera morbus, hysterics and nervous diseases generally; chrnoic dysentary, diarrhœa or purgings sea sickness, cholera infantum, rheumatism, chronic liver complaints, Female irregularitie, of a chronic character, attended with cold feet, pain in the back, limbs, &c. It is also particularly recommended to those who are suffering under debility, languor, depression of spirits, with irregular or defective appetite restlessness at night, with unsound or disturbed sleep. In these cases this cordial will be found an admirable remedy! Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiarly adapted to such cases. As a preventive of Ague and Fever it is useful, and those who reside in neighborhoods where this disease prevails would do well to take it once or twice a day during the sickly seasons.

TESTIMONIALS

Leesburgh, Va., July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Herstons, dear sir; Having been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals I have a young woman in my family, who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia—by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured. Given under my hand this 10th day of July, 1841.

PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md., Sept 14 1840.

Mr. C. Herstons—Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines, as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jr.

From the Rev. T. H. W. Monroe.

Liberty-town, Frederick Co. Md, May 9, 1840

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regarded as Dyspepsia, in its insi ient stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of a medical friend to purchase a bottle of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully,

THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr. C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your requst to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs. Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz. defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor, debility, &c. These symptons were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of a bottle of Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times, as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbour's; she hastened home and took a dose of the cordial, and sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md. Sept 1840.

Mr. Hurstons—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic She thought she would have died—I was alarmed. In the description given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms or cramp in the stomach.—It justly sustained its character in my wife's case. The attack commenced about day-light. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.

JACOB KESSLER.

Mr. C Hurstons—At times for twelve months past, I have been subject to violent attacks of Cholic, so much so, that I have frequently had to go to bed for days together. Last spring I began to use Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, to which I had been recommended by a friend; it almost gave me immediate relief from the distressing pains I endured—it is very prompt in affording relief—it has likewise been effectual in several cases, for which it is recommended, in my family, and, believing it ought to be publicly known, I give this voucher of its merits.

From the Rev. Leonard B. Gurley

I have confidence in the Dyspeptic Cordial prepared by Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor. It has been used in my family for sick headache and severe rheumatic pains, affecting the shoulder and chest—and has afforded immediate and apparently permanent relief.
