Poetry.

TO THE SUN-DIAL

Under the window of the Hall of the House of Representatives of the United States.

By John Quincy Adams.

Thou silent herald of time's ceaseless flight!
Say, could'st thou speak, what warning voice were thine?
Shade, who can'st only show how others shine!
Dark, sullen witness of resplendent light!
In day's broad glare, and when the noontide bright
Of laughing Fortune sheds the ray divine,
The ready favors cheer us—but decline
The clouds of morning and the gloom of night.
Yet are thy counsels faithful, just, and wise.
They bid us seize the moments as they pass—
Snatch the retrieveless sunbeam as it flies,
Nor lose one sand of life's revolving glass—
Aspiring still, with energy sublime,
By virtuous deeds to give Eternity to Time.

From the Louisville Journal.

Here is a noble song, upon a noble theme How we shall delight in the approaching political campaign, to hear it sung in trumpet tones at the mighty gatherings of the Whigs:

HARRY OF THE WEST

Air—"Star Spangled Banner."

Lo! the chieftain is gone from the scene of his fame,
But the halo of ages shall gather around it;
For his sword waved in Justice and Liberty's name,
And Liberty's hand with her myrtle has crown'd it.
He has mounted on high to the patriot's sky,
While his country was last in the heart and the sigh;
But joy! tho' the hero has gone to his rest,
His mantle is left to our Hopes of the West!

He shall wear in glory, in honor, in power,
In despite of abstractions, of knaves, and of treason,
And the venal shall tremble, the coward shall cower:—
Ephemeral insects that flutter their season;
Yes, the noble and great, in the forum or state.
By the dictum of freemen, the fiat of fate,
Shall rule o'er the land that his labors have blest—
Our Harry, the dauntless, and Pride of the West?

He has stood like a rock when the tempest has roared,
And the gallant have trembled at dangers surrounding,
Mid the war of great minds his warm spirit has soared,
In the triumph of genius the proudest confounding.
The tyrant's strong chain he has riven amain
Bear witness, fair Greece, and Columbia's plain;
Then deep in our hearts with the noblest and best,
We'll shrine, our Harry and Hope of the West!

Look o'er the proud scroll of your glorious names;
From the light to day through the lapses of ages,
To souls that were honor's, and virtue's, and fame's,
Whose fire and devotion illume the world's pages:
Then turn in your pride where the whole are allied—
To the statesman, unyielding, the patriot guide;
And point, while your gratitude beams all expressed,
To Harry, our glory and Star of the West.

Fill to the brim in the lymph of your springs,
And toast him, fair Liberty's peerless defender;
And bear it, ye breezes, on wandering wings,
Wherever Aurora diffuses her splendor.
Our banner's unfurled, it shall beacon the world,
'Till the Dagon of doubt and Abstraction is hurled,
And we throne in his place whom his country loves best—
Our Harry, the Glory and Pride of the West!

A Farm on the Salt Water FOR SALE.

The subscriber, as agent for the proprietor, will sell at private sale, a snug farm on Miles River, immediately adjoining the residence of Mr. Andrew Skinner and nearly opposite the town of St Michaels. The neighbourhood is remarkably pleasant and healthy and the adjacent waters afford the finest oysters and other delicacies The farm contains about two hundred acres of land, in a very compact form; about 120 acres of which are in cultivation and 80 acres in good timber The cleared land is laid off in four fields of 60,000 corn hills each, under good enclosures; and is separated from the adjoining farms by the water with the exception of a short division fence of about one hundred pannels in length.

There are abundant resources of sea ooze salt marsh, and swamp-mud from the woods, & a small quantity of Indian shell bank. Marl has been discovered in a single place from which it is inferred that there is more on the farm. The convenience of getting oyster shells, however is so great, as to make them nearly if not quite as cheap as marl. The improvements consist of a one story dwelling, almost new, located near the water and in the centre of the farm; and an excellent barn containing a stable and corn-crib which was built last year, at a cost of five hundred dollars.—There is a spring of good water not far from the dwelling.

Terms—One fourth in cash—the remainder of the purchase money to be paid in three equal annual instalments.

The property will be shown to any one desirous to purchase by Mr. Gannon, who has rented it for the present year.

TESTIMONIALS.

Having had an intimate acquaintance with Mr Thomas D Bell for a number of years, affords me pleasure to express my conviction that he is admirably qualified by his talents, attainments and experience, for the instruction and government of a select school for young ladies. The Female Seminary in Oxford, Pa has been under his direction and tuition since its commencement; and having attended all its examinations, I am prepared to say that his pupils would compare well with young ladies in the highest seminaries of a similar kind, in any part of our country. I have frequently attended examinations in the celebrated schools of New England, and I hesitate not to say that Mr. Bell has as systematic a course of instruction and has given as complete an education as may be found in the very best schools.—Mr. Bell removes to Newark, Del, an exceedingly healthy and central village, where he designs still to carry on his school with increased facilities to afford an accurate and thorough knowledge of all the solid and polite branches of a complete female education.

It is also due to Miss Bell to say that the pupils in Music under her care, performed admirably and never failed to delight the audience of every examination.

I therefore cheerfully recommend Mr. Bell and also Miss Bell as eminently qualified for their respective stations.

The following is an extract from a letter from the Rev. Thomas Love, dated Loveville, Del., June 18th, 1841.

"With the system you have adopted, your mode of communicating instruction, the government of your school, and the management of the boarding department—I am highly gratified. With the examination I was so much delighted that I really wished that all parents who have daughters to educate could have been present. The improvement which our daughter made while with you exceeded far my expectations, and I greatly regret that she is not enjoying the privilege of being with you this summer."

Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty, I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals I have a young woman in my family, who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia—by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured. Given under my hand this 10th day of July, 1841.

Frederick County, Md., Sept 14 1840:

Mr. C. Herstons—Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor s Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines, as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jr.

From the Rev. T. H. W. Monroe.

Liberty-town, Frederick Co. Md, May 9, 1840

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor s Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regarded as Dyspepsia, in its insi ient stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of a medical friend to purchase a bottle of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully,

THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr. C. *H*erstons—I willingly comply with your requst to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs. Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz. defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor, debility, &c. These symptons were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of a bottle of Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times, as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbour's; she hastened home and took a dose of the cordial, and sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

Frederick County, Md. Sept 1840.

Mr. *H*urstons—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic She thought she would have died—I was alarmed. In the description given of your medicine, named Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms or cramp in the stomach.—It justly sustained its character in my wife s case. The attack commenced about day-light. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.

JACOB KESSLER.

Mr. C *H*urstons—At times for twelve months past, I have been subject to violent attacks of Cholic, so much so, that I have frequently had to go to bed for days together. Last spring I began to use Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, to which I had been recommended by a friend; it almost gave me immediate relief from the distressing pains I endured—it is very prompt in affording relief—it has likewise been effectual in several cases, for which it is recommended, in my family, and, believing it ought to be publicly known, I give this voucher of its merits.

From the Rev. Leonard B. Gurley

I have confidence in the Dyspeptic Cordial prepared by Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor. It has been used in my family for sick headache and severe rheumatic pains, affecting the shoulder and chest—and has afforded immediate and apparently permanent relief.
