SAFE INVESTMENT.

A FARM FOR SALE.

THE subscriber intending to remove to the Western Shore, offers for sale the Farm he now lives on, called "Long Point," situate on Third Haven Creek. It is one of the most eligible situations in Talbot County, and to a man who has money it might be made one of the most beautiful places in the State of Maryland. The land is nearly as good as it can be made, having been heavily manured for the last twelve years with Indian shell and marl, which is not doing the work for a season but for posterity. The resources are inexhaustible—such as marl, Indian shell, marsh, &c.

The farm is not large, but it is like the better part of God's creation (the fair Sex) small but very valuable—something less than two hundred Acres. As to health it cannot be surpassed. There are several wells and springs on it of the purest water, and some of the most choice FRUIT, selected from the nursery of the late John Willis, Esq. Collector of the Port of Oxford, a man well known to the public for his intelligence and probity.

The Steamboat Maryland and Easton Packets pass and repass within three or four hundred yards of the Farm twice a week during the year when the waters are navigable.—Fish, oysters, and wild fowl, are abundant in their season. The great facility and proximity of the farm both by land and water to the different cities, towns and villages, makes it a desirable place to any person wishing to live near salt water.

I deem it unnecessary to give any further description, for any person wishing to purchase can visit the land and judge for himself.

THOMAS COWARD.

N B.—If the above farm is not sold at private sale on or before Tuesday the 20th of September inst, it will, on that day be offered at public sale at the front door of the Court House in the town of Easton, at 12 o'clock. M.

To the Patrons of Female Education.

MISS CARROLL takes this mode of announcing her intention to open a Female Seminary at Oxford, Talbot County, Md.

Miss C., having the experience of several years, as principal of an Institution in Somerset county, feels the greater confidence that, her future success in imparting knowledge, will be commensurate with that which has heretofore resulted from her efforts. It will be the purpose of this Institution to afford young ladies a thorough course in all the English studies; together with the Greek, Latin and French languages, and the ornamental branches of education, which are taught in any Seminary in the country. To render the pupil's pure in morals, refined in manners and capable of properly appreciating the high position which by moral and intellectual culture they may attain, will be the constant object in view. If any testimonial be required, to inspire confidence in the undertaking, Miss C. would merely make reference, to the intelligent community among which her labors have been bestowed, and to the large number of young ladies, for whose mental and moral improvement it has been her pleasure and her pride, to devote untiring exertions from an early period of her life. Miss C. also has to state that in conducting the whole establishment, she will have the counsel and aid of her father, the Hon. Thomas King Carroll, who will afford his supervision, and devote a portion of his time in giving instruction. Oxford is well known in the state for its salubrious climate and beauty of location: situated immediately upon the Choptank river, distant but a few miles from Easton and Cambridge, and accessible to all sections of the State by safe Steamboat navigation.

The Boats stop going and returning from Baltimore; therefore, citizens of that City, who are desirous of educating their daughters from home, will be enabled to select a situation celebrated for health, and an institution, it is hoped, which will merit the patronage of an enlightened public.

In this seminary will be taught a more extensive course, than is pursued in any similar institution: And young ladies who are anxious to become qualified, to engage in the profession of teaching, have now that advantage presented.

This Institution will commence its operations, on the first Monday in November proximo, or earlier: in which event, public notification will be given Pupils will be received at any period in the year.

Vacation will occur in September.

The condition of admittance have been framed with due consideration of the financial embarrassments of the country. A card containing every requisite information in regard to expenses, course of study, &c. may be had, by application to Miss C., addressed to Rehoboth, P. O., Somerset County, Md.

Aug 20

N. B. In consequence of the Buildings at Oxford having been found insufficient for the establishment of a Seminary upon the extensive plan proposed, Miss C., apprises the public, that her Institution will be opened on the first Monday in October next, at Warwick Manor, situated on the Choptank, a few miles from Oxford, and affording the same advantages for health, facility of approach and beauty of location.

A Steam Boat from Baltimore passes the place and will stop when required.

PROPOSALS

FOR PUBLISHING A CHEAP WEEKLY PAPER TO BE CALLED

THE BALTIMORE WHIG.

To be principally composed of the choicest and most valuable reading matter of the Baltimore Daily Whig.

The Subscribers, proprietors of the Baltimore Daily Whig, grateful for the extensive and liberal patronage which has been bestowed upon that paper—desirous to further, by every means in their power, the cause in which they are engaged—and willing to contribute as much as possible to the support of the great and devoted Statesman of the West as the candidate for the suffrages of the American People at the next presidential election—propose to publish, in connection with their daily, a weekly paper for the country.

In endeavoring to advance the interests of the Whig party, by the publication of a cheap and efficient paper, so centrally located as to communicate promptly with all parts of the union; devoted to the correction of existing abuses, and advocating the most proper measures for conducting the Government, that the purposes for which it was established—the promotion of the prosperity and happiness of the nation—may be accomplished; the Subscribers believe that their design will be generally approved of, and accorded by the public a liberal support.

The Subscribers do not belong to the class of non-committal politicians. That equivocal position, denominated "on the fence," which gives to a man's professions of patriotism so dubious a character, they trust they may never be found so far astray from the path of honesty as to occupy. They are thoroughly Whig, and that there may be no misunderstanding with regard to their principles they deem it proper to state them here, briefly and distinctly:

They are for HENRY CLAY, as the candidate of the Whig party for President in 1844; for the PROTECTION OF DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES, and for a SOUND and UNIFORM CURRENCY.

The advantages which the Subscribers possess as publishers of a daily paper, will enable them to furnish the patrons of the weekly WHIG with as valuable and efficient a journal, at a very moderate price, as the country can produce. It will contain, in addition to the editorial and other original essays, a carefully compiled summary of all the important and interesting news of the day, the earliest foreign intelligence, a correct report of Congressional proceedings, interesting correspondences from various sections of the country, diligent note of the progress of the Whig cause, a true and careful statement of the markets, and a record of commercial intelligence—so that persons desiring a [illegible] business and political paper will find the [illegible]

TERMS.

The weekly Baltimore Whig will be printed on good paper, imperial size, and sent by mail to any part of the country, at One Dollar per annum, invariably in advance. One object in making the paper so extremely cheap is the convenience of the subscription price for remittance by mail. Another object is, to place it within the reach of every Whig in the country.

Lime and Limestone.

The subscriber having located himself in the city of Baltimore will deliver LIME suitable for land, at the city block in Baltimore at 10 cents per bushel, or 12½ cts if delivered within any reasonable distance on any of the water-courses He will also keep a constant supply of LIMESTONE, which he will deliver at the city block at $1 25 per ton. It is the best quality of alum-stone. The great superiority of this lime, as acertained by analysis and application to various soils, and its freedom from extraneous matters makes it cheaper to the Agriculturalist than much other lime which is sold for a less price. As the supply will be large, punctuality will in all cases be attended to, if the application be made a few days in advance.—He will also supply building lime in barrels or hogsheads, of good quality and on moderate terms The CASH or COUNTRY PRODUCE at the usual market prices in Baltimore, will be expected upon the delivery of the lime on board. The limestone is from Baltimore county, York road, and the burnt lime is of the same origin The undersigned grateful for the patronage heretofore bestowed upon him, and will also undertake any kind of Agency Commission business, and will give the strictest attention to all kinds of consignment. Any communication addressed to the Subscriber at No. 5, Light Street Wharf, Baltimore, will promptly attended to.
