PROPOSALS

FOR PUBLISHING A CHEAP WEEKLY PAPER TO BE CALLED

THE BALTIMORE WHIG.

To be principally composed of the choicest and most valuable reading matter of the Baltimore Daily Whig.

The Subscribers, proprietors of the Baltimore Daily Whig, grateful for the extensive and liberal patronage which has been bestowed upon that paper—desirous to further, by every means in their power, the cause in which they are engaged—and willing to contribute as much as possible to the support of the great and devoted Statesman of the West as the candidate for the suffrages of the American People at the next presidential election—propose to publish, in connection with their daily, a weekly paper for the country.

In endeavoring to advance the interests of the Whig party, by the publication of a cheap and efficient paper, so centrally located as to communicate promptly with all parts of the union; devoted to the correction of existing abuses, and advocating the most proper measures for conducting the Government, that the purposes for which it was established—the promotion of the prosperity and happiness of the nation—may be accomplished; the Subscribers believe that their design will be generally approved of, and accorded by the public a liberal support.

The Subscribers do not belong to the class of non-committal politicians That equivocal position, denominated "on the fence," which gives to a man's professions of patriotism so dubious a character, they trust they may never be found so far astray from the path of honesty as to occupy. They are thoroughly Whig, and that there may be no misunderstanding with regard to their principles they deem it proper to state them here, briefly and distinctly:

They are for HENRY CLAY, as the candidate of the Whig party for President in 1844; for the PROTECTION OF DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES, and for a SOUND and UNIFORM CURRENCY.

The advantages which the Subscribers possess as publishers of a daily paper, will enable them to furnish the patrons of the weekly WHIG with as valuable and efficient a journal, at a very moderate price, as the country can produce. It will contain, in addition to the editorial and other original essays, a carefully compiled summary of all the important and interesting news of the day, the earliest foreign intelligence, a correct report of Congressional proceedings, interesting correspondences from various sections of the country, diligent note of the progress of the Whig cause, a true and careful statement of the markets, and a record of commercial intelligence—so that persons desiring a comprehensive business and political paper will find the weekly Baltimore Whig a useful and cheap one.

TERMS.

The weekly Baltimore Whig will be printed on good paper, imperial size, and sent by mail to any part of the country, at One Dollar per annum, invariably in advance. One object in making the paper so extremely cheap is the convenience of the subscription price for remittance by mail. Another object is, to place it within the reach of every Whig in the country.

ANOTHER EVIDENCE OF THE WONDERFUL CURES PERFORMED BY DR SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

Dr. Swayne:—Dear Sir:—When I was at Pittsburg last August, I purchased of your Agent Six Bottles of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. I had for many years been troubled with a Cough, often very violent, with other indications of Consumption, or disease of the Lungs, of a very serious nature. I had very little faith in medicine, as it was thought my disease was hopeless and beyond its reach.—I had applied to several Physicians for relief, and also used some highly puffed medicines which I had seen in the newspapers, but hearing that you had much experience in the practice of medicine, and had treated many cases of Consumption, I concluded to try yours; and from that time I am happy to say, I found relief.—I write this in hopes you will publish it, so that if any human being has suffered as I have done, they may know where to find a medicine the virtues of which may be relied on.

Yours respectfully,

DRS. DRESBACH KUHN & PRYORS DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL,

FOR DYSPEPSIA, SICK HEADACHE, RHEUMATISM &c. &c. &c. &c.

THE PROPRIETOR of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is farther from his purpose than to offer it to the public as a universal medicine, or cure all It is adapted to a few diseases only, for which it is confidently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention!

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the appetite when impaired, and promotes digestion—it soothes and tranquilizes the nervous system, when excited or disturbed; produces cheerfulness of spirits, with feeling of general comfort and satisfaction.

In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual remedy.

Dyspepsia, Sick or Nervous Headache, cholic, cramp or spasm in the stomach, cholermorbus, hysterics and nervous diseases generally; chronoic dysentary, diarrhœa or purging sea sickness, cholera infantum, rheumatism chronic liver complaints, Female irregularities of a chronic character, attended with cold feet, pain in the back, limbs, &c. It is also particularly recommended to those who are suffering under debility, languor, depression of spirits, with irregular or defective appetite restlessness at night, with unsound or disturbed sleep. In these cases this cordial will be found an admirable remedy! Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiarly adapted to such cases. As a preventive of Ague and Fever it is useful, and those who reside in neighborhoods where this disease prevails would do well to take it once or twice a day during the sickly seasons.

TESTIMONIALS.

Leesburgh, Va., July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Herstons, dear sir; Having been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty, I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals I have a young woman in my family, who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia—by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured. Given under my hand this 10th day of July 1841.

PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md., Sept 14 1840:

Mr. C. Herstons—Your medicine named Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines, as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jr.

From the Rev. T. H. W. Monroe.

Liberty-town, Frederick Co Md, May 9, 1840.

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regarded as Dyspepsia, in its insipient stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of a medical friend to purchase a bottle of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as I trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully,

THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your requst to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs. Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz: debility &c. These symptons were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleepticle was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of a bottle of Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, severe at times, as to occasion her to take her bed.

Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbour's; she hastened home and took a dose of the cordial, and sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md. Sept 1840.

Mr. Hurstons—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic She thought she would have died—I was alarmed In the description given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms or cramp in the stomach.—It justly sustained its character in my wife's case The attack commenced about day-light. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.

JACOB KESSLER.

Clarksburg, Mont'y. Co. Nov 30, 1840.

Mr. C. Hurstons—At times for twelve months past, I have been subject to violent attacks of Cholic, so much so, that I have frequently had to go to bed for days together. Last spring I began to use Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, to which I had been recommended by a friend; it almost gave me immediate relief from the distressing pains I endured—it is very prompt in affording relief—it has likewise been effectual in several cases, for which it is recommended, in my family, and, believing it ought to be publicly known, I give this voucher of its merits
