FOREIGN HARVESTS.—The harvest is almost entirely gathered in throughout the east of Europe, and we are enabled to furnish the following comparative estimates, collected from the most accurate accounts:—In Silesia there has been a good average harvest. In Poland, in Gallicia, and in the Duchy of Posen there has been a decidedly good harvest, and the same may be said with respect to Russia. In Hungary the crops have been most satisfactory, and in the Banat, which is regarded as the granary of the country, they have been doubly as productive as those of last year. In Transylvania and the Turkish provinces the harvest has also been most plentiful—similar abundance has also been experienced in Monrovia. Every where the grain is of good quality, and yields from 15 to 20 per cent. more flour than in bad years. It may therefore be fairly predicted that in the east of Europe the price of wheat will fall instead of rising even though foreign demand should be very great.—Algamine Zeitung.

At the Chapel on Thursday 6th inst. Mrs. Elizabeth Dawson, consort of Dr. James P. Dickson.

On Friday the 7th D. James P. Dickson.

In this county on Tuesday last after a lingering illness, Ann Slaughter Esq.

In this town, on Saturday last, Mrs Elizabeth Hawkins, in the 93d year of her age.

In this town on Friday morning last Mr Jeremiah C. Wells in the 24th year of his age. The deceased even in boyhood possessed many virtues not common to youths; indeed his whole life may be said to be in strict accordance with the rules of morality. A short time ago being convinced of the necessity of a change in his moral nature by the regenerating influences of divine grace, he sought and obtained a knowledge of his Saviour by the remission of his sins and by faith in Christ enjoyed a consciousness of his divine favour. Being thus prepared, he expired in the arms of his Redeemer and has gone to enjoy the blissful scenes of immortality and eternal life. He has left a large circle of relations and friends to mourn their irreparable loss.

Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labours.

His friends are invited to attend his funeral this morning at 9 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. Charles Gwin.

Celebrated Ague and Fever Pills

The efficacy of their Pills has been tested within the last few years, every experiment made with them has been attended with the most satisfactory results. Being perfectly innocent and pleasant—containing nothing to derange or disorganise the stomach they may be given alike to infants and adults with the utmost safety, and without reference to diet, and irrespective of the avocations in which the patient may be engaged. They will allay any disposition to a feverish temperament, promote harmony between the action of the stomach, liver, and other important functions, and restore the system to health and vigor.

They do not recommend their Tonic Pills for every disease to which the human race is subject but do particularly and confidently recommend them as the best remedy hitherto devised against fever and its consequences. As unequivocal proofs however of their efficacy, the proprietors have numerous certificates from professional gentlemen and others who have tested their superiority over all former discoveries for the speedy and radical cure of that distressing disease the Ague and Fever.
