☞ The editor of the Cecil Whig, in remarking upon the unhappy divisions in the Whig ranks in some four or five of our strongest counties, at the recent election, remarks: "And what is the consequence? Why, that a Locofoco United States Senator shall be elected! The Easternshore of Maryland must be represented by a Senator opposed in politics to two thirds of its voters. If Caroline, Somerset, and Worcester alone suffered by it, it would be just—they deserve it. But it is hard that we should be punished for their misdemeanors. Impressed with the importance of preventing the Locos from having the power to gerrymander the state and elect a senator, the Whigs of this county, though struggling against a strong majority exerted themselves like men, and defeated the most exceptionable of their opponents. Caring for none of these things, the counties named above, played the fool, and now, when too late to remedy it, they feel the effects of their folly."

THE CABINET.

A letter from washington to the Richmond Whig says:—"The new Cabinet is probably in the act of being formed A decisive answer is expected to-morrow it is said from a leading Democratic personage, who is expected to come in—Mr. Wise arrived yesterday from Philadelphia. There is no further need of delay, on account of the elections; and they may democratize the Administration now as fast as the please. The Cabinet was in session nearly all day Saturday. I presume that the Democratic magnate above in question is Mr. Stevenson. It is now supposed that the whole ministry will be changed."

MR. CLAY IN INDIANA.

A Great Gathering of the People.

Indianapolis, Oct. 5th 1842.

This day we have witnessed one of those immense gatherings of the People for which the last Presidential campaign was distinguished. Mr. Clay in compliance with an old promise, this morning arrived in our city. His intention to visit us at this time had become generally known throughout the State, and from twelve o'clock yesterday the people were seen pouring in from all quarters. This morning, a line of procession was formed at nine o'clock to meet Mr. Clay and suite one mile east of the city. The reception was enthusiastic, and doubtless proved to Mr. Clay the affection that burns for him in the bosoms of the People of Indiana.

The day was spent in partaking of a barbecue given by the people of Marion county, and listening to the Address of Mr. Clay, (who spoke about two hours,) and of Messrs. Crittenden and Metcalf who each spoke at some length. All those addresses were above any praise I could bestow upon them; that of Mr. Clay will, I understand, be published, but I cannot now procure you a copy of it.

The number of persons present I have heard variously estimated from thirty to sixty thousand; I suppose the truth would be about about forty thousand, including men, women and children.

I am much fatigued with the duties of the day, and cannot say more at present.

The U. S. Senate.

The United States Senate, says the Newark Advertiser, now comprises 30 Whigs, including Mr. Rives of Virginia, and 20 Locos. There are two vacancies in Tennessee. It is safe to assume that in place of Mr. Preston of S. C. Graham of N. C and Kerr of Maryland, democratic Senators will be chosen for six years from the 4th of March next—Indianna is doubtful. The Whigs will probably gain a Senator in Ohio, in place of Mr. Allen. So that we shall doubtless retain the majority in the Senate.

The Episcopal Church.—The Southern Churchman gives a table showing the increase of the clergy of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the United States, in the last ten years, compiled from the most authentic documents. Aggregate increase, ten years, 578.

From this it will be seen that the number of clergy of the Episcopal Church in the United States has somewhat more than doubled in the last ten years. The number of bishops has increased from twelve to twenty one in the same time. These are interesting facts, and will undoubtedly cheer and animate the hearts of many friends of our beloved Church
