WEDDED LOVE.

ADDRESSED BY A YOUNG WIFE TO A DESPONDING HUSBAND.

Come, rouse thee, dearest!—'tis not well
'To let thy spirit brood
Thus darkly o'er the cares that swell
Life's current like a flood!
As brooks, and torrents, rivers, all
Increase the gulf in which they fall,
Such thoughts, by gathering up the rills
Of lesser grief, but spread real ills:
And with their gloomy shades conceal
The landmarks hope would else reveal.

Come rouse thee now—I know thy mind,
And would its strength awaken;
Proud, gifted, noble, ardent, kind—
Strange thou should'st thus be shaken!
But rouse afresh each energy,
And be what heaven intended thee;
Nor sink beneath the frowns of fate,
But prove thy spirit firmly great;
I would not see the bend below,
The angry storms of earthly wo.

Full well I know the genero is soul
Which charms the into life,
Each spring which can its powers control,
Familiar with thy wife:
For deem'st thou she could stoop to bind
Her fate unto a common mind!
The eagle, like ambition, nursed
From childhood in her heart had first
Consumed with its Promethæn flame
The shrine that sunk her so to shame.

Then rouse thee, dearest, from the dream
That fetters now thy powers;
Shake off this gloom—hope sheds a beam
To gild each cloud that lowers;
And thought at present seems so far
The wished for goal, the guiding star,
With peaceful ray, would light thee on
Until its bounds he won;—
That quenchless ray, thou'lt ever prove,
Is fond, undying, wedded love.

PROPOSALS

FOR PUBLISHING A CHEAP WEEKLY PAPER TO BE CALLED

THE BALTIMORE WHIG.

To be principally composed of the choicest and most valuable reading matter of the Baltimore Daily Whig.

The Subscribers, proprietors of the Baltimore Daily Whig, grateful for the extensive and liberal patronage which has been bestowed upon that paper—desirous to further, by every means in their power, the cause in which they are engaged—and willing to contribute as much as possible to the support of the great and devoted Statesman of the West as the candidate for the suffrages of the American People at the next presidential election—propose to publish, in connection with heir daily, a weekly paper for the country.

In endeavoring to advance the interests of the Whig party, by the publication of a cheap and efficient paper, so centrally located as to communicate promptly with all parts of the union; devoted to the correction of existing abuses, and advocating the most proper measures for conducting the Government, that the purposes for which it was established—the promotion of the prosperity and happiness of the nation—may be accomplished; the Subscribers believe that their design will be generally approved of, and accorded by the public a liberal support.

The Subscribers do not belong to the class of non-committal politicians That equivocal position, denominated "on the fence," which gives to a man's professions of patriotism so dubious a character, they trust they may never be found so far astray from the path of honesty as to occupy. They are thoroughly Whig, and that there may be no misunderstanding with regard to their principles they deem it proper to state them here, briefly and distinctly:

They are for HENRY CLAY, as the candidate of the Whig party for President in 1844; for the PROTECTION OF DOMESTIC MANUFACTURES, and for a SOUND AND UNIFORM CURRENCY.

The advantages which the Subscribers possess as publishers of a daily paper, will enable them to furnish the patrons of the weekly WHIG with as valuable and efficient a journal, at a very moderate price, as the country can produce. It will contain, in addition to the editorial and other original essays, a carefully compiled summary of all the important and interesting news of the day, the earliest foreign intelligence, a correct report of Congressional proceedings, interesting correspondences from various sections of the country, diligent note of the progress of the Whig cause, a true and careful statement of the markets, and a record of commercial intelligence —so that persons desiring a comprehensive business and political paper will find the weekly Baltimore Whig a useful and cheap one.

TERMS.

The weekly Baltimore Whig will be printed on good paper, imperial size, and sent by mail to any part of the country, at One Dollar per annum, invariably in advance. One object in making the paper so extremely cheap is the convenience of the subscription price for remittance by mail. Another object is, to place it within the reach of every Whig in the country.

TESTIMONIALS

Leesburgh, Va., July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Herstons, dear sir; Having been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty. I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals. I have a young woman in my family, who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia—by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured. Given under my hand this 10th day of July, 1841.

PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md., Sept 14 1840:

Mr. C. Herstons—Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines, as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY, Jr.

From the Rev. T. H. W. Monroe.

Liberty-town, Frederick Co Md, May 9, 1840.

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regarded as Dyspepsia, in its insi ient stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of a medical friend to purchase a bottle of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectf lly,

THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your requst to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs. Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz: defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor, debility, &c. These symptoms were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of a bottle of Drs Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, severe at times, as to occasion her to take her bed

Drs. Dresbach Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial for Dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbour's; she hastened home and took a dose of the cordial, and sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

THOS. BARTHOLOW

To Mr. Hurstons.

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md Sept 1840

Mr. Hurstons—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic She thought she would have died—I was alarmed In the description given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms or cramp in the stomach.—It justly sustained its character in my wife's case. The attack commenced about day-light. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.

JACOB KESSLER.

Clarksburg, Montg. Co. Nov 30, 1840.

Mr. C. Hurstons—At times for twelve months past, I have been subject to violent attacks of Cholic, so much so, that I have frequently had to go to bed for days together. Last spring I began to use Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, to which I had been recommended by a friend; it almost gave me immediate relief from the distressing pains I endured—it is very prompt in affording relief it has likewise been effectual in several cases, for which it is recommended, in my family, and, believing it ought to be publicly known, I, give this voucher of its merits.

WM. WILLSON of Jno

From the Rev. Leonard B. Gurley

I have confidence in the Dyspeptic Cordial prepared by Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn & Pryor has been used in my family for sick headache and severe rheumatic pains, affecting the shoulder and chest—and has afforded immediate and apparently permanent relief.
