ceeded in lacerating the flesh of one of his tormentors in such a manner as will force the wretch to carry a momento of his barbarity with him to his grave.—To close this edifying spectacle, the head of one of the unfortunate animals was put into a six-pounder' (a piece of State ordinance as we understand) which, in the hurry and over-heated zeal of the sacrificers, had been improperly loaded: the consequence was, that upon applying the match the connon burst in some half a dozen pieces, though strange to say, no one was seriously injured by the accident. This was at once an ominous and unlooked for finale—an item in the bill of fare totally unprovided for; and not caring to listen to the boisterous merriment and cutting jeers of the Whig bystanders, the participants in the horrific glorification sneaked off to their several homes in no enviable mood, each one wondering in his own mind, doubtless, how on earth under present circumstances they were to raise the "wherewith," to the tune of several hundred dollars, to indemnify the State for the damage done to her arms.—Shelby, (Ohio) Anrora.

DIED.

In Baltimore, on Thursday morning the 24th ult., after a protracted illness of several months, which she bore with christian fortitude and resignation, Mrs Rowena R. Auld, in the 30th year of her age, consort of Thomas Auld, Merchant of St. Michaels, Talbot county, Md.

In this town on Sunday night last, James Roszell, in the 22d year of his age, eldest son of Mr. Ennalls Roszell.

Departed this life on Monday the 28th of November at the Chapel, after a short illness, Mrs. Lydia Bessix, in the 85th year of her age. The deceased has been a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church for the last 50 years, during the whole course of her life, she has been exemplary in her deportment as a christian, shewing to the world that she had that one thing necessary to give a right to the tree of life. In all the relations of life, that of wife, mother, sister and mistress, she was loving, affectionate, kind and indulgent; she has gone from labour to reward, to enjoy that rest which is laid up for the faithful. Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord,—may we imitate her example and follow her as she followed Christ.

Suddenly, on Thursday evening, at his residence (Evergreen,) in Oxford Neck, in this county, James Willson, Esq., in the 67th year of his age.

Ladies Literary Institute.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR

YOUNG LADIES,

No 44, South High Street, Baltimore

REV. JOHN R. JARBOE, PRINCIPAL

THIS Institution has been in faithful and effective operation for the last six years, during which time the Principal has had under his charge a great number of young ladies, principally from the City of Baltimore and the Eastern and Western Shores of Maryland and he has received repeated testimonials of pleasure and approbation from those who have placed their children under his care.

Rejecting the old and beaten path of mere memorising, it has been his principal aim to address himself to the reasoning powers of his pupils, and thus bring into full and vigerous exercise ALL their mental faculties: and the success, that has uniformly attended his efforts, where those efforts have not been injudiciously counteracted at home, fully tests the utility of such a course of instruction.

Connected with the Institution there is an elegant and extensive Philosophical and and Chemical apparatus; a beautiful and well selected Cabinet of Minerals and Shells, Globes, Maps, &c. &c.

A course of Lectures will be regularly delivered, on Natural Philosophy and Natural History. The advanced pupils are required to take notes of each lecture, and make the subject a theme for their ensuing composition

The course of study is such as is generally pursued in the higher order of Literary Institutions, embracing every thing tending to advance the best interests of the pupils

By means of "Davidson's Muscular Guide," a style of Penmanship is attained which for beauty, strength and permanency is incomparable

The fancy branches of Ornamental work will be taught by the lady of the Principal, but only in such cases where those pursuits do not interfere with the leading design of the Institution.

The musical department and modern languages are placed in the hands of competent Professors.

The Academic year consists of 47 weeks, and no boarder will be received for a less term than the current year, and no day scholar for a less period, unless there be a special agreement to that effect.

For the benefit of parents resident in the city, the Principal proposes to receive young ladies into his family during the week as boarders, to superintend their studies, allowing them to return to their parents on Saturday afternoon, thus enabling them to have the privilege of a Boarding School, and likewise to enjoy the society of their friends.—The charges in this department will be modified as circumstances may justify.
