POETRY

From the Salem Gazette.

AN AUTUMNAL MORNING IN DECEMBER,

How quiet is the morn!
The leaden-coloured clouds that veil the vaulted
Sky give back their sombre hue to the reflecting
Deep. As here I stand upon this beetling
Cliff, silent and sleeping lies the wat'ry
Plain. The wavelet's lips kiss not the pebbly
Shore, but moveless rest in its embracing
Arms, all lovingly! Like some misshapen
Monsters of the sea, slumber those rocky
Isles, that fleck the ocean's breast. While far
Beyond, the heavy mist wraps all from thence
In dim uncertainty—fit emblem of
The future! That noble bark, with towering
Masts and spars, and gaudy pennon drooping
From its brow—seems like a sculptured thing,
So motionless it lies!

The gloomy raven, with dissonant clang,
Bears to his forest home his stolen prey,
And proudly float those ocean birds, bathing
Their fairy necks and snowy bosoms in
The lucid tide, with native joy. The
Nimble squirrel from his dark recluse, leaps
Forth with lively chirp; while on the sturdy
Oak, the tiny pioneer* his task enlivens,
With a cheerful song.

A down this narrow glen, o'er ragged rocks
And massy trunks, leap the glad waters of
The meadow brook,—its icy bonds cast glittering
On the marge—bearing its wealth of crystal
To the sea, with laughing music, as in
Summer days. And these old trees, who long ago
Cast off their gorgeous robes, and stood with bare
And blackened arms, like gladiators stripped
For sudden fight—would fain array them in
Their beautiful attire, to now adorn the scene.

Methinks sweet Autumn has regained her throne,
And driven fierce winter to his northern halls!
But even now I feel the breaking of the
Keen north east.—Already roll the gathering
Wavelets to the receiving shore, and round
Yon headlong break, with sudden voice, as if
In anger for disturbed repose. The gallant
Ship has spread its snowy wings, & spurns
The rising surge—its swelling breast enrobed
With sparkling foam! Back to the distant hills,
In far extended ranks, fly the aerial
Tribes, and angry Winter with redoubled
Rage, comes to resume his sway.

MR HENRY J. STRANBERG:

Dear Sir,—My wife has been labouring under a very severe Pulmonary disease and Cough, for some time, and I have tried all the Cough Medicines I could hear of, and all proved ineffectual. In looking over the paper I saw your advertisement of a Compound Medicated Hoarhound Candy. I was induced to give it a trial; the first stick gave great relief, and we have continued to use it with entire success, and Mrs. Crouch is fast recovering. I thought it was due to you to express my gratitude for your discovery.

Ladies Literary Institute.

BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR

YOUNG LADIES,

No 44, SOUTH HIGH STREET, BALTIMORE

REV. JOHN R. JARBOE,
PRINCIPAL.

THIS Institution has been in faithful and effective operation for the last six years, during which time the Principal has had under his charge a great number of young ladies, principally from the City of Baltimore and the Eastern and Western Shores of Maryland and he has received repeated testimonials of pleasure and approbation from those who have placed their children under his care.

Rejecting the old and beaten path of mere memorising, it has been his principal aim to address himself to the reasoning powers of his pupils, and thus bring into full and vigerous exercise ALL their mental faculties: and the success, that has uniformly attended his efforts, where those efforts have not been injudiciously counteracted at home, fully tests the utility of such a course of instruction.

Connected with the Institution there is an elegant and extensive Philosophical and and Chemical apparatus; a beautiful and well selected Cabinet of Minerals and Shells, Globes, Maps, &c. &c.

A course of Lectures will be regularly delivered, on Natural Philosophy and Natural History. The advanced pupils are required to take notes of each lecture, and make the subject a theme for their ensuing composition

The course of study is such as is generally pursued in the higher order of Literary Institutions, embracing every thing tending to advance the best interests of the pupils.

By means of "Davidson's Muscular Guide," a style of Penmanship is attained which for beauty, strength and permanency is incomparable.

The fancy branches of Ornamental work will be taught by the lady of the Principal, but only in such cases where those pursuits do not intertere with the leading design of the Institution.

The musical department and modern languages are placed in the hands of competent Professors.

TERMS.

Board and Tuition, per annum,	$175 00

Music and Languages at Professors' Terms

The Academic year consists of 47 weeks, and no boarder will be received for a less term than the current year, and no day scholar for a less period, unless there be a special agreement to that effect.

For the benefit of parents resident in the city, the Principal proposes to receive young ladies into his family during the week as boarders, to superintend their studies, allowing them to return to their parents on Saturday afternoon, thus enabling them to have the privilege of a Boarding School, and likewise to enjoy the society of their friends.—The charges in this department will be modified as circumstances may justify.

West Chester Boarding School for Boys.

IS located in the borough of West Chester, Chester County, Pennsylvania, twenty four miles west of Philadelphia. The salubrity of this village and adjacent country, is perhaps not excelled in the United States And convenient access to it may be had twice a day, by means of the Columbia and West Chester rail roads.

The subscriber has provided ample accommodations for fifty students, in a high and healthy situation, which for beauty of prospect is seldom equalled.

The course of instruction comprises Orthography, Reading, Grammar, Arithmetic, Geography with the use of the Globes, Botany, Algebra, Geometry, Mensuration, Surveying in theory and practice, Navigation, Spherics Mechanics, Optics, Fluxions, Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, Astronomy.

Lectures on Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, and Astronomy, are delivered during the winter, illustrated by appropriate experiments. The school is well supplied with Philosophical Apparatus.

Price of board, washing, and tuition, one hundred and sixty dollars a year, payable quarterly in advance.

Students are admitted for any time not less than a quarter. Reading books gratis—other books and stationary supplied at the usual prices. Each student provides his own wash basin and towel. The school will be vacated during the last two weeks in the fourth and ninth months. No deductions are made for visits at any other times. Students are required to attend such places of worship, on the first day of the week, as their parents may direct.

PROSPECTUS OF THE LEGISLATIVE REPUBLICAN.

DESIROUS of giving the public the earliest legislauve news, the undersigned intend publishing the "MARYLAND REPUBLICAN" semi-weekly during the approaching session of the Legislature. No exertions will be spared on their part to give full, correct and impartial reports of the Proceedings of both houses.

The approaching session must be one of great interest. Our political opponents who are now in the ascendency in one branch of the Legislature, have, for years promised important reforms in the State Government, and we feel it a duty to give all their opinions and suggestions to the people for their free and candid consideration.

Our arrangements will be such as our means will justify. In saying this, we entertain the hope, that we shall be able to give the earliest reports of all important movements; and therefore, respectfully ask our friends throughout the State to use their exertions to procure us subscribers for the session—a session which will no doubt, be looked to with peculiar interest by every Marylander who has an eye to the welfare of his native State.

The names of subscribers may be sent to us by their respective county delegates.

The first number of the Legislative Republican, will contain full particulars of the organization of both branches, and the Governor's Message.

We propose to issue on the following days and terms:—

DAYS—Every Thursday and Saturday.

TERMS—For One copy each publication, $1 25
" FIVE copies, 5 00
" ELEVEN do. 10 00

Any person remitting as above free of postage, will be entitled to the number of copies as mentioned above

Our present weekly subscribers will be entitled to the semi-weekly, and any person subscribing hereafter by the year will also be entitled to the same. The weekly Maryland Republican is published at $2 50 in advance, or $3 00 at the end of the year.

P. S. Post Masters are authorized to frank letters containing remittance for subscription, provided they contain nothing but what relates thereto.

ANOTHER EVIDENCE OF THE WONDERFUL CURES PERFORMED BY SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

Dr. Swayne:—Dear Sir:—When I was at Pittsburg last August, I purchased of your Agent Six Bottles of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. I had for many years been troubled with a Cough, often very violent, with other indications of Consumption, or disease of the Lungs, of a very serious nature. I had very little faith in medicine, as it was thought my disease was hopeless and beyond its reach.—I had applied to several Physicians for relief, and also used some highly puffed medicines which I had seen in the newspapers, but hearing that you had much experience in the practice of medicine, and had treated many cases of Consumption, I concluded to try yours; and from that time I am happy to say, I found relief.—I write this in hopes you will publish it, so that if any human being has suffered as I have done, they may know where to find a medicine the virtues of which may be relied on.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES OSBURN.
