POETRY.

From the London Keepsake
THE FIRST.

BY FRANCES BROWNE

The first, the first! oh! nought like it,
Our after years can bring,
For Summer hath no flowers so sweet,
As those of early Spring.
The earliest storm that strips the tree
Still wildest seems and worst,
Whate'er hath been again may be,
But never as at first.—
For many a bitter blast may blow
O'er life's uncertain wave,
And many a thorny thicket grow
Between us and the grave;
But darker still the spot appears,
Where thunder-clouds have burst
Upon our green unblighted years—
No grief is like the first!

Our first-born joy,—purchance't was vain,
Yet that brief lightning o'er,
The heart, indeed, my hope again,
But can rejoice no more.
Life hath no glory to bestow—
Unfallen and uncursed;
There may be many an after glow,
But nothing like the first!

The rays of hope may light us on
Through Manhood's toil and strife,
But never can they shine as shone
The morning stars of life:
Though bright as Summer's rosy wreath,
Though long and fondly nursed,
Yet still they want the fearless faith.
Of those that blest us first.

It's first love deep in memory
The heart forever bears;
For that was early given and free—
Life's wheat without the tares.
It may be Death hath buried deep,
It may be Fate hath cursed;
But yet no latter love can keep
The greenness of the first.

And thus, what e'er our onward way,
The lights or shadows cast,
Upon the dawning of our day
Are with us to the last.
But ah! the morning breaks no more.
On us, as once it burst,
For future springs can ne'er restore
The freshness of the first.

The President, Directors and Company of the Farmers' Bank of Maryland.
vs
Susanna Botfield and others

BILL of Complaint exhibits A. to I. Talbot county Court as a Court of Equity. November Term. 1842.

THE object of the Bill filed in this case is to obtain a Decree for the foreclosure of a Mortgage executed on the twenty ninth day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty eight by Abednego Botfield in his life time to the said President Directors and Company, and also of another Mortgage executed on the ninth day of September, in the year last aforesaid by the said Botfield to the said President Directors and Company, which said Mortgages are particularly described in said Bill. The Bill states the claim of the complainants as secured by said Mortgages to be three hundred and eighty six dollars with interest thereon from the twentieth day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and forty two It further states that the said Abednego Botfield departed this life, having made and executed his Testament and last will, whereby he devised the said land to his son Josiah Botfield, whom he constituted sole executor thereof The Bill states also that the said Josiah Botfield departed this life some years since unmarried and intestate having in his life time conveyed the said Land to a certain William Shehan, in which conveyance Susanna Botfield the widow of the said Abednego Botfield united with the said Josiah Botfield. It further states that the said William Shehan some time since departed this life, having made and executed his testament and last will by which he devised the aforesaid Lands to his daughter Sarah Ann Shehan, then and now an infant of tender years, and appointed Geo Dudley, Executor of his said Will, who having renounced Letters Testamentary with the will annexed, were granted unto Susan Ann Shehan the widow of the said William Shehan, and that the aforesaid sum of money as above stated still remains due and unpaid to the complainants, and that the said Susan Ann Shehan has since intermarried with a certain Edward Kirby, commonly called Edward Kirby the younger, and that the said Kirby and Susan Ann his wife have conveyed unto a certain John Talbot all their right, title and interest of, in and to the aforesaid land. The Bill further states that the said Abednego Botfield left at the time of his death, Susanna Botfield his widow residing in the City of Baltimore, and the following children Josiah Botfield, who has since departed this life, unmarried and intestate as aforesaid, Levi Botfield who has been beyond seas and not heard of for more than twelve years, Elizabeth otherwise called Betsy Botfield who has since intermarried with a certain Joseph Albert, and resides in the City of Baltimore; Mary Botfield, Ann Botfield, both of whom reside in the said city, Frances Botfield who has since intermarried with a certain James Denny the younger, Susanna Botfield who has intermarried with a certain John B. Ray, and resides in Talbot county. That Edward Kirby and Susan Ann his wife, reside in Talbot county, and Sarah Ann Shehan infant daughter of William Shehan and John Talbot also reside in said county.

It is therefore this ninth day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and forty three, adjudged and ordered, that the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, before the first day of May next, give notice to the said absent defendant or any person or persons who may be interested, of this application and of the subject and object of this Bill, that they may be warned to appear in this Court in person or by a solicitor, before the first Tuesday of May Term next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a Decree should not pass as prayed for.

MR. HENRY J. STRANBERG:

Dear Sir,—My wife has been labouring under a very severe Pulmonary disease and Cough, for some time and I have tried all the Cough Medicines I could hear of, and all proved ineffectual. In looking over the paper I saw your advertisement of a Compound Medicated Hoarhound Candy. I was induced to give it a trial; the first stick gave great relief, and we have continued to use it with entire success, and Mrs. Crouch is fast recovering. I thought it was due to you to express my gratitude for your discovery.

PROSPECTUS
LEGISLATIVE REPUBLICAN.

DESIROUS of giving the public the earliest legislative news, the undersigned intend publishing the "MARYLAND REPUBLICAN" semi-weekly during the approaching session of the Legislature No exertions will be spared on their part to give full, correct and impartial reports of the Proceedings of both houses.

The approaching session must be one of great interest. Our political opponents who are now in the ascendency in one branch of the Legislature, have, for years promised important reforms in the State Government, and we feel it a duty to give all their opinions and suggestions to the people for their free and candid consideration.

Our arrangements will be such as our means will justify. In saying this, we entertain the hope, that we shall be able to give the earliest reports of all important movements; and therefore, respectfully ask our friends throughout the State to use their exertions to procure us subscribers for the session—a session which will no doubt, be looked to with peculiar interest by every Marylander who has an eye to the welfare of his native State.

The names of subscribers may be sent to us by their respective county delegates.

The first number of the Legislative Republican, will contain full particulars of the organization of both branches, and the Governor's Message.

We propose to issue on the following days and terms:—

DAYS—Every Thursday and Saturday

TERMS—For One copy each publication, - - $1 25
" FIVE copies, 5 00
" ELEVEN do. 10 00

Any person remitting as above free of postage, will be entitled to the number of copies as mentioned above

Our present weekly subscribers will be entitled to the semi-weekly, and any person subscribing hereafter by the year will also be entitled to the same. The weekly Maryland Republican is published at $2 50 in advance, or $3 00 at the end of the year.

P. S. Post Masters are authorized to frank letters containing remittance for subscription, provided they contain nothing but what relates thereto.

ANOTHER EVIDENCE OF THE WONDERFUL CURES PERFORMED BY DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

Dr. Swayne:—Dear Sir:—When I was at Pittsburg last August, I purchased of your Agent Six Bottles of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. I had for many years been troubled with a Cough, often very violent, with other indications of Consumption, or disease of the Lungs, of a very serious nature. I had very little faith in medicine, as it was thought my disease was hopeless and beyond its reach.—I had applied to several Physicians for relief, and also used some highly puffed medicines which I had seen in the newspapers, but hearing that you had much experience in the practice of medicine, and had treated many cases of Consumption, I concluded to try yours; and from that time I am happy to say, I found relief.—I write this in hopes you will publish it, so that if any human being has suffered as I have done, they may know where to find a medicine the virtues of which may be relied on.

Yours respectfully,
JAMES OSBURN.
