THE LADY AND THE PHILOSOPHER

BY ANNA L. SNELLING.

A studious Astronomer, not long ago,
The plan of Descartes to a Lady would show
"The heavenly bodies, you plainly can see,
Are attached by vortices only," said he.
"Stop, stop,' said the Lady, "my head's turning round!
Such a whirling of planets my senses confound.
Now, whether the heavens such tumult do show,
For my part, I have no desire to know;
But the doctrine, I own, is most pleasing to me,
For by it a system more puzzling I see.
To my dull mental vision, you've plainly unfurled
The human Heart's system, and that is my world"

With wide-staring eyes, the Astronomer gazed
At his volatile pupil, and thought she was crazed.
He had studied the heavens, each planet apart,
But knew nothing whatever concerning the Heart.
He laid down his book and attention he lent;—
"This matter I thus to myself represent:
Each person I meet is a vortex Cartesian,
And requires as constant an ether to float in.
This ether is VANITY—ay, and it rules
(I am sorry to say) both wise men and fools
Of that vortex the heart is the centre and sun,
Round which the passions as planets do run.
Each planet has moons—as (for instance) 'round Love
The mad passion Jealousy still does revolve
Though the sunlight of heart they often cloud over,
These passions reflect and illumine each other,
While their light, which were nothing I shining apart.
Is borrowed entirely, sir, from the Heart.
AMBITION comes next—not so near it as LOVE,
And therefore less light in its orbit will move.
Ambition has likewise its moons; and their light
Sometimes I have noticed exceedingly bright.
MAGNANIMITY, BRAVERY, dazzling appear,
While some others (alas!) are most dismal and drear—
As HAUGHTINESS, ARROGANCE, FLATTERY, PRIDE,
And many less glaring, but hideous beside.
The largest of planets this system displays
Is SELF-INTEREST called; for, so numerous its rays,
Its numberless satellites glitter so far,
That REASON, though near them, becomes a faint star.
She is our SATURN, and steady her light:
Not brilliant, for sometimes eclipsed by the night·
And so tranquilly does she revolve 'round her SUN,
That the years she has moved will appear but as one.
—Some Comets my system produces. Of these,
MEDITATION, REFLECTION, are never at ease,
But some how or other, while they shoot past,
Get into the vortex of PASSIONS at last.
And experience teaches us, though they intrude,
Their influence is neither pernicious nor good.
Some feats they excite, but we soon get them o'er,
And the Vortex continues its course as before.'
The Astronomer smiled, as if half-comprehending,
And she saw, by his looks, some objections were pending;
"Nay, hear," said the lady, "still farther I go:
That sentiment Sympathy called, I will show
Is quite like the magnet that iron attracts,
And as puzzling to know by what impulse it acts
The spots on our Sun, are effects of old age,
When it loses its warmth and its power to engage,
For (ah, the sad truth!) we look forward each one
To the time when dark clouds will extinguish our SUN.
The Universe then will no pleasure impart,
But be cold as an old man's or conqueror's heart.
The thought is enough to break Youth's fairy spell,
And chill an enthusiast's ardor—farewell."

The Astronomer watched her bright step from afar—
Shook his head—and declared her a bright Shooting Star!

WHY SHOULD YOU

Cough your Lungs away while the remedy is at hand, by calling at

E. M. DAWSON & BROTHER,

For Strandberg's Compound Medicated Hoarhound Candy.

No Quackery.

The public can form some idea of the virtue of the above Candy, by the Certificate below, being one of many received from different persons, of its merits.

Quaker Neck, Kent county, November 23d, 1842.

MR. HENRY J. STRANBERG:

Dear Sir,—My wife has been labouring under a very severe Pulmonary disease and Cough, for some time, and I have tried all the Cough Medicines I could hear of, and all proved ineffectual. In looking over the paper I saw your advertisement of a Compound Medicated Hoarhound Candy. I was induced to give it a trial; the first stick gave great relief, and we have continued to use it with entire success, and Mrs. Crouch is fast recovering. I thought it was due to you to express my gratitude for your discovery.

Your's respectfully,

JAMES CROUCH.

ANOTHER EVIDENCE OF THE WONDERFUL CURES PERFORMED BY SHARP'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

Dr. Swayne:—Dear Sir:—When I was at Pittsburg last August, I purchased of your Agent Six Bottles of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. I had for many years been troubled with a Cough, often very violent, with other indications of Consumption, or disease of the Lungs, of a very serious nature. I had very little faith in medicine, as it was thought my disease was hopeless and beyond its reach.—I had applied to several Physicians for relief, and also used some highly puffed medicines which I had seen in the newspapers, but hearing that you had much experience in the practice of medicine, and had treated many cases of Consumption, I concluded to try yours; and from that time I am happy to say, I found relief.—I write this in hopes you will publish it, so that if any human being has suffered as I have done, they may know where to find a medicine the virtues of which may be relied on.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES OSBURN.

N B During my absence from Easton, all persons having claims against the said deceased estate are requested to leave the same with Robert T. G. Thomas, Esq.

The President, Directors and Company of the Farmers' Bank of Maryland.
vs.
Susanna Botfield and others.

BILL of Complaint exhibits A. to I. Talbot county Court as a Court of Equity. November Term, 1842.

THE object of the Bill filed in this case is to obtain a Decree for the foreclosure of a Mortgage executed on the twenty ninth day of April, in the year eighteen hundred and twenty eight by Abednego Botfield in his life time to the said President Directors and Company, and also of another Mortgage executed on the ninth day of September, in the year last aforesaid by the said Botfield to the said President Directors and Company, which said Mortgages are particularly described in said Bill. The Bill states the claim of the complainants as secured by said Mortgages to be three hundred and eighty six dollars with interest thereon from the twentieth day of July, in the year eighteen hundred and forty two. It further states that the said Abednego Botfield departed this life, having made and executed his Testament and last will, whereby he devised the said land to his son Josiah Botfield, whom he constituted sole executor thereof. The Bill states also that the said Josiah Botfield departed this life some years since unmarried and intestate having in his life time conveyed the said Land to a certain William Shehan, in which conveyance Susanna Botfield the widow of the said Abednego Botfield united with the said Josiah Botfield. It further states that the said William Shehan some time since departed this life, having made and executed his testament and last will by which he devised the aforesaid Lands to his daughter Sarah Ann Shehan, then and now an infant of tender years, and appointed Geo. Dudley, Executor of his said Will, who having renounced Letters Testamentary with the will annexed, were granted unto Susan Ann Shehan the widow of the said William Shehan, and that the aforesaid sum of money as above stated still remains due and unpaid to the complainants, and that the said Susan Ann Shehan has since intermarried with a certain Edward Kirby commonly called Edward Kirby the younger, and that the said Kirby and Susan Ann his wife have conveyed unto a certain John Talbot all their right, title and interest of, in and to the aforesaid land. The Bill further states that the said Abednego Botfield left at the time of his death, Susanna Botfield his widow residing in the City of Baltimore, and the following children Josiah Botfield, who has since departed this life, unmarried and intestate as aforesaid, Levi Botfield who has been beyond seas and not heard of for more than twelve years, Elizabeth otherwise called Betsy Botfield who has since intermarried with a certain Joseph Albert, and resides in the City of Baltimore; Mary Botfield, Ann Botfield, both of whom reside in the said city, Frances Botfield who has since intermarried with a certain James Denny the younger, Susanna Botfield who has intermarried with a certain John B. Ray, and resides in Talbot county. That Edward Kirby and Susan Ann his wife, reside in Talbot county, and Sarah Ann Shehan infant daughter of William Shehan and John Talbot also reside in said county.

It is therefore this ninth day of January, in the year eighteen hundred and forty three, adjudged and ordered, that the complainants by causing a copy of this order to be inserted once a week for three successive weeks in some newspaper published on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, before the first day of May next, give notice to the said absent defendant or any person or persons who may be interested, of this application and of the subject and object of this Bill, that they may be warned to appear in this Court in person or by a solicitor, before the first Tuesday of May Term next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a Decree should not pass as prayed for.
