

POETRY.

NOT ON A PRAYERLESS BED.

Not on a prayerless bed, not on a prayerless bed
Compose thy weary limbs to rest;
For they alone are blest
With balmy sleep
Whom angels keep.
Not, though by care oppressed,
Or thought of anxious sorrow,
Or thought in many coil perplexed
For comming morrow—
Lay not thy head
On prayerless bed!

For who can say, when sleep thine eyes shall close,
That earthly cares and woes
To thee may e'er return?
Rouse up, my soul,
Slumber control,
And let thy lamps burn brightly;
So shall thine eyes discern
Things pure and lightly:
Taught by the spirit-beam
Never on a prayerless bed
To lay thine unblest head.

Bethink thee, slumbering soul, of all that's promised
To faith in holy prayer!
Lives there within the breast
A worm that gives unrest?
Ask peace from Heaven—
Peace will be given:
Humble self love and pride
Before the Crucified,
Who for thy sins has died·
Nor lay thy weary head
Upon a prayerless bed!

Hast thou no pining want, no wish, nor care
That calls for holy prayer?
Hast thy day been so bright,
That in its flight
There is no trace of sorrow?
And art thou sure to-morrow
Will be like this and more
Abundant? Dost thou lay up in store
And still make place for more?
Thou fool! this very night
Thy soul may wing its flight.

Hast thou no being than thyself more dear,
Who tracks the ocean deep,
And when storms sweep
The wintry skies,
For whom thou wak'st and sleepest?
Oh! when thy pangs are deepest
Seek there the covenant ark of Prayer,
For He that slumbereth not is there!
His ears are open to thy cries:
Oh! then on prayerless bed
Lay not thy thoughtless head!

Hast thou no loved one than thyself more dear,
Who claims a prayer from thee?
Some who ne'er bend the knee
From Infidelity?
Think, if by prayer they're brought—
Thy prayer, to be forgiven,
And making peace with Heaven,
Unto the Cross they're led!
Oh! for their sakes, on prayerless bed
Lay not thy unblest head!

Arouse thee, weary soul, nor yield to slumber,
Till in communion blest,
With the Elect ye rest—
Those souls of countless number;
And, with them, raise
The note of Praise
Reaching from Earth to Heaven,
Chosen, redeemed, forgiven:
So lay thy happy head,
Prayer-crowned, on blessed bed!

THE SUN.

The early Sun doth catch the Moon
In dimpling beauties on the Lakes,
And ere her toilette is quite done
Ten thousand burning kisses takes.

And when he doth retire to rest
He casts a lover's look afar,
Which his chaste Queen doth garner up,
To light herself and every Star.

A FAMILY OF COUNTERFEITERS.

Mary Sheppard who had been found guilty of counterfeiting in the Court of Sessions, at a late hour on Monday night was this afternoon sentenced to the State prison for 7 years and 1 month. The prisoner is about 60 years old and, the mother of a numerous family, the greater number of whom, and also both their parents are now in different State prisons, or sentenced to be sent there.

About one hour before the mother was sentenced in the Court of Sessions, her son James Sheppard was, for a similar offence, sentenced by the U. S. Court to be imprisoned in the State prison five years. Her daughter was sentenced to the State prison by the Court of Sessions about a week back. Her husband is in the State prison of Ohio, one of her sons is in the State prison of New Jersey, another in the State prison at Sing Sing, and a third will leave this city for the same place, accompanied by his mother, in a day or two. All these have been convicted of similar offences, counterfeiting.—N. Y. Jour. Com.

SURVIVORS OF WASHINGTON.—The following interesting notice of the distinguished survivors of Administration of the Father of his Country, is from the U. S. Gazette:

Although none of the early associates of Washington survive, a very few venerable men, his cotemporaries in the legislative and diplomatic departments during the latter period of his administration, still linger among us. Of the Senators of that time the survivors are Albert Gallatin, elected in 1793; Jas. Ross, his immediate successor, 1794, and in the same year Reasey Johns the present venerable Chancellor of the State of Delaware, father of the Assistant Bishop of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Virginia, yet live enjoying the respect and veneration of their fellow citizens; the first of whom, it is hoped, to regret his opposition to the measures of Washington, which so peculiarly marked Mr. Gallatin's legislative career. Of the Representatives one only survivor besides Mr. Gallatin, whose seat in the Senate having been vacated for want of the constitutional qualification of nine years citizenship, was elected in 1795. The surviving representatives are Albert Gallatin and Gen. Andrew Jackson, the latter of whom was in 1796-7 the sole Representative of the State of Tennessee.

Of the 2 surviving ministers & diplomatic agents at foreign courts, during Washington's administration our venerable fellow citizen, William Short Esq., is the eldest, having been with Mr Carmichael appointed on a special embassy to Spain in 1792 and on the 29th of May, 1794 minister resident to that court. But John Quincy Adams, although appointed 30th May, 1794, two days after Mr. Short as a minister of the same grade to the Netherlands, was subsequently in 1796 raised by Washington to the rank of Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of Portugal. Mr. Adams is believed to be the only public man now living who can justly boast of having enjoyed the confidence of Washington.

☞We advise all the descendants of the blanket kings of Africa, in this state to travel post haste to Massachusetts.—They cannot but choose it—for there they may intermarry with all the whites who are disposed to take them to their bosom, and may sit in the railroad cars with the pale faces, on the very hottest days in July. Won't eau de Cologne be at a premium?—N. Y. Atlas.

MR. HENRY J. STRANBERG:

Dear Sir,—My wife has been labouring under a very severe Pulmonary disease and Cough, for some time, and I have tried all the Cough Medicines I could hear of, and all proved ineffectual. In looking over the paper I saw your advertisement of a Compound Medicated Hearhound Candy. I was induced to give it a trial, the first stick gave great relief, and we have continued to use it with entire success, and Mrs. Crouch is fast recovering. I thought it was due to you to express my gratitude for your discovery.

ANOTHER EVIDENCE OF THE WONDERFUL CURES PERFORMED EVER SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

Dr. Swayne:—Dear Sir:—When I was at Pittsburg last August, I purchased of your Agent Six Bottles of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. I had for many years been troubled with a Cough, often very violent, with other indications of Consumption, or disease of the Lungs, of a very serious nature. I had very little faith in medicine, as it was thought my disease was hopeless and beyond its reach.—I had applied to several Physicians for relief, and also used some highly puffed medicines which I had seen in the newspapers, but hearing that you had much experience in the practice of medicine, and had treated many cases of Consumption, I concluded to try yours; and from that time I am happy to say, I found relief.—I write this in hopes you will publish it, so that if any human being has suffered as I have done, they may know where to find a medicine the virtues of which may be relied on.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES OSBURN.

NEGROES WANTED.

We wish to purchase at all times any number of NEGROES, of both sexes, either slaves for life or for a term of years, of good titles and sound and healthy. Our residence is nearly opposite the Brick Tavern, where we have fitted up a place for the safe keeping of negroes, and where every attention will be paid to render them comfortable, at twenty-five cents each per day, and will pay a fair cash price for any negro that may escape.—We have the money and will at all times pay in cash the very highest prices for every description of negroes with good titles. Persons having negroes to dispose of, and who want the very highest prices the Southern markets will justify, will please give us a call. We will also go to the country and take up negroes free of charge to their owners, if we buy them. All communications will be promptly attended to, if addressed to
