EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, April 22.

FOR PRESIDENT
HENRY CLAY, OF KENTUCKY.

THE CABINET.—The last rumor from Washington is that Judge UPSHUR is to take the Department of State, which is shortly to be vacated by Mr. WEBSTER, and that Mr. CUSHING is to be appointed Secretary of the Navy.

The Royal Mail Steamship Britannia arrived at Boston about 2 o'clock on Wednesday morning, bringing Liverpool dates to the 4th and London to the evening of the 3d.

The news, as a general thing, is unusually unimportant

SHIPMAN, THE ABSCONDING MESSENGER.—The Pittsburg Sun of the 11th says in a Postscript:—Shipman arrived in this city on Sunday morning last, and immediately started on the steamboat Express for Cincinnati. He registered his name as "Mr. Johnson of New York" Nothing was known of the fraud while he was in the city. The police got the first intimation of the matter yesterday, twenty four hours too late. He is doubtless on his way to Texas."

BISHOP OF RHODE ISLAND.—We learn that the Rev. J. P. K. HENSHAW, Rector of St. Peter's Church in Baltimore, has accepted the appointment of Bishop, which has recently been unanimously conferred on him by the Convention of the Protestant Episcopal Church of Rhode Island, and that he will enter upon the duties of his office in the month of June.

THE MACKENZIE CASE.—The following paragraph appeared in the N. York Journal of Commerce of Saturday:

CASE OF CAPT. MCKENZIE.— We learn from an undoubted source, that although the decision of the Court Martial in Capt. McKenzie's case was technically in favor of acquittal, as before announced a majority of the members, viz: seven out of twelve, were of opinion that the charges, or some of them, had been proved. In order to a conviction the voice of two thirds of the members were necessary One more vote in favor of conviction would have changed the result

On this report, the New York American remarks:

But this verdict, [of acquittal,] it is said, was rendered by a minority of the members of the court. How is this, how can this be known? Every member of a court martial is sworn to keep secret the proceedings of the court, and not to reveal them, not even to the Secretary or the President, except in a court of justice.

The Judge Advocate takes the same oath; and the statements, therefore, going the rounds of the press, that seven members of the Court were for condemnation and five for acquittal, cannot be derived from any credible authority, for it presupposes perjury on the part of some member of the Court

We therefore feel authorized to deny categorically the truth of this rumor; and the rather as the editors of the Journal of Commerce, when called upon this morning by a relation of Commander Mackenzie for the "undoubted authority" upon which they publish it, declined giving it.

In addition to what is stated in the New York American, we may say that we have the best reason for knowing that the statement in the Journal of Commerce is incorrect What was the vote on the verdict, or whether there was any division in the Court, we cannot say because the members of the Court, for the reason that their oaths forbid the disclosure of what occurred in secret session, are silent on the subject—but this we know, from really "undoubted authority," that the statement in the Journal of Commerce is incorrect.—Balt. Pat

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.—The Harrisburg Intelligencer, in a postscript says:

"The Governor, this (Thursday) morning, sent a message to the House stating that he had signed the bill for the sale of the Delaware Division.

"The bill for the sale of the State Stocks and providing for the payment of the Domestic Creditors has also been signed.

"The State Apportionment Bill; the Reform Bill, the bill to give the PUBLIC PRINTING to the lowest bidder; and the bill for the election of Canal Commissioners by the people, are still in the Governor's hands."

P. S. The Governor has vetoed the printing bill

HORRIBLE MURDER.— Intelligence reached this city yesterday of a most revolting murder committed upon the body of a Mrs. Malinda Horn, wife of Adam Horn, living near Reistertown, Baltimore County. Mrs. Horn, it seems disappeared from the neighborhood about four weeks since, and nothing was heard or known of her until Monday, when part of her body was found in a ditch in the vicinity of her residence. A search was then instituted by the neighbors, which resulted in finding the rest of the body of the unfortunate woman in a back building attached to the House in which her husband resided. The deceased was about eighteen years of age, and had been married only one year. Suspicion rests upon the husband, who has left his house. He was seen on Monday morning in the neighborhood of this city.—Baltimore American of Wednesday.

The New York Assembly ordered the bill to abolish the right of trial by jury, granted to persons claimed as fugitive slaves by the act of 1840, to a third reading, by a majority of seven.

NAVAL.—We learn from the Philadelphia U. S. Gazette, that the Secretary of the Navy contemplates despatching the frigate Brandywine, three sloops of war, and two gun brigs to the China seas as soon as they can be got ready. The same paper states that Commodore Warrington will relieve Commodore Stewart in the command of the Coast Squadron; that Captain McKeever is to relieve Capt. Stringham on the arrival of the Independence; and that the Steamer Missouri will leave Washington soon for Chagres.

A SPANISH SLAVER ESCAPED WITH IMPUNITY!—A letter from on board the United States Ship Vincennes states that on the 20th February, they overhauled a schooner with 3 Spanish Custom House Officers on board, having Spanish papers and Spanish colors, which prevented their seizing her She had 550 slaves on board—thirty four had died—two jumped overboard in frantic despair; she was 28 days from the coast of Africa, making for Cuba. The vessel was built in New York in 1835 or 1836

Punishment for seduction by an Essex jury.—A case of some interest has this week occupied the Circuit Court now in session in this city, Chief Justice Hornblower presiding. It was a suit brought by David Morehouse, a respectable farmer of Morris County, against William Kendall a mechanic of New Providence in this county, for the seduction of his daughter under false pretences. After a patient trial, during which the Defendant's estate was estimated at $1 200, the jury rendered a verdict of $1,500 which will of course more than take the whole estate, and leave a balance to be paid by his future earnings.

The counsel for the plaintiff (Messrs. O. S HALSTED, of this city, and J. J CHETWOOD, of Elizabethtown,) pressed upon the attention of the court and jury with great propriety the fact that the recent murder in West Jersey was justified on the trial at Woodbury on the ground that the courts afford no adequate punishment for the crime of seduction, and feelingly called upon them to vindicate the justice of the country, and expose the fallacy of the plea on this occasion The jury, after an able charge from the Chief Justice, has, as we have seen, responded to the appeal. The defence was ingeniously conducted by Messrs DAVID A HAYES and JOHN CHETWOOD, of this city.—

When our Courts thus do all in their power to redress personal wrongs, the last and only possible pretence for the resort to summary vengeance now so disgracefully common, will be removed. The Legislatures would do much also towards checking this species of licentiousness by a special statute, making it in all cases a penitentiary offence, besides providing for full and exemplary and pecuniary damages The indulgence granted to crime of all sorts in this country is one of the most melancholy symptoms of the times

We learn that the Hon. Daniel Webster left with the President of the United States, on his departure from Washington, his resignation of the office of "Secretary of State," to take effect on the first day of May, previous to which he will return to Washington.—We have reason to believe that our information is correct and that the President is looking towards Virginia for a successor. Mr. Tazewell, or Mr. Stevenson, is thought of, but probably some circumstances must be regarded before a decision is made between those two gentlemen, or among the numerous aspirants to departmental honors.

Surely Mr. Cushing may expect a place in the Cabinet.—Phil. U. S. Gaz.

PUNISHMENTS IN NORTH CAROLINA.—At a recent term of the Supreme Court of Wake county, (N. C.) William Pully was convicted of manslaughter in having killed one Uriah Lewis. On the 7th inst Pully was brought into Court for sentence. The Raleigh Register furnishes the following report of the sentence and its infliction:

Judgment was then given that the prisoner be branded with the letter 'M' in the brawn of the thumb of the left hand, and be imprisoned for six months,—the hot brand to remain on the hand till the prisoner should have repeated three times 'God save the State.' The branding then took place forthwith at the bar, in the presence of the Cour; and the prisoner was conducted to prison.

The Madisonian publishes, officially the ratified treaty made with the Sac and Fox indians on the 11th of October last by John Chambers, Esq. United States Commissioner. By this treaty the tribes of Sacs and Foxes cede to the United States, forever, all the lands west of the Mississippi river to which they have any claim or title, or in which they have any interest whatever—reserving a right to occupy a portion of the land ceded for a term of three years from the time of signing the treaty. In consideration of this cession the United States agree to pay annually to the Sacs and Foxes an interest of five per centum upon the sum of eight hundred thousand dollars, and to pay their debts mentioned in a schedule annexed to the Treaty, amounting to the sum of two hundred and fifty-eight thousand, five hundred and sixtysix dollars and thirty-four cents.

It is made the duty of the President of the United States as soon after the ratification of the treaty as may be convenient, to assign a tract of land suitable for Indian purposes, to the Sacs and Foxes for a permanent and perpetual residence for them and their descendants, which tract of land shall be upon the Missouri river, or some of its waters.

MASSACHUSETTS CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICTS —The first Monday in June has been fixed by the Governor of Massachusetts, for another trial to elect Members of Congress in those districts where vacancies exist.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.—Every well-wisher of the good old Keystone state, would rejoice at the speedy adjournment of its Legislature now in session at Harrisburg. We have heretofore given the particulars of a fracas in the Hall of the House of Representatives whilst the House was in session, in which a Loco Foco member from Philadelphia county, named McGowen, attempted to kill the editor of the State Capitol Gazette, and actually inflicted upon him a severe wound with a dagger or long knife.

The house immediately appointed a committee to investigate the affair, who reported a resolution to expel Mr. McGowan. The following proceedings on this resolution took place on Wednesday afternoon:

From the Harrisburg Telegraph.

Members threatened to be assaulted—McGowan resigned—the Robespierrian Locofocos of Philadelphia county.

This (Wednesday) afternoon the subject of Mr McGowan's expulsion being up a vote was taken on a resolution offered by Mr. Lowry, as a substitute for the expulsion resolution, to merely 'reprimand' him.

Mr. Tustin of the county alluded to the severe remarks of Mr. Hood, in the morning, and said that if he had applied such language to him as he had to his colleague, Mr. McGowan, he would not have reached his Hotel without a castigation!! Mr Hood replied, that he knew his rights as a member on that floor, and would maintain them: and any one who would attempt to infringe upon them in the way threatened, would meet with a rough customer!

The vote was taken on the motion to 'reprimand' and it was negatived, Yeas 37, Nays 46.

Whereupon Mr. Tustin presented to the Speaker, a communication from Mr McGowan; resigning his seat!

In the course of a conversation just as the House was called to order, Mr. Tustin said loudly that 'before the adjournment there would be several persons on that floor cowhided'

We put it to the sober reflecting people of the country, whether their representatives are to be threatened with violence by the Robespierrian locofocoism of Philadelphia county! We have come to a pretty pass truly.

It is proper to say that those who voted against Elwell's substitute in the morning and against the puerile motion to 'reprimand,' were in avor of vindicating the dignity of the House by expelling McGowan. The next vote would probably have expelled him, and the already prepared letter of resignation was then handed in to save him from such a crisis.

FRESHES IN THE POTOMAC.—We stated yesterday that much damage has been sustained at Cumberland by an unprecedented rise in the Potomac River, caused by the recent heavy rains and the melting of the snow in the mountain region. The banks of the river were overflowed at numerous points, and extensive damage has been done to farms and other private improvements, The Chesapeake and Ohio Canal has suffered injury in its embankments, at various points, although it is not known that very serious damage has been done at any particular spot.—We shall doubtless have an authentic report on the subject in a day or two,

The Railroad was under water in several places but no injury was done to any part of it, and the travel goes on without interruption The bridge ovr the Potomac at Harper's Ferry also escaped without injury.

The Williamsport (Md) Banner of Saturday says—'At the time of going to press (11 o'clock) the river is as high as the memorable June freshet of 1836 which then caused serious and extensive injury to the Canal The water has overflowed the banks in many places, and we fear will cause considerable damage.'

At Georgetown, on Saturday and Sunday the wharves were overflowed, and a general inundation of the lower part of the town was anticipated. At Alexandria the cellars were filled with water.

LATEST —By last night's Westeru Rail Road train a letter was received from Gen. McNeil, President of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal Company, which furnishes the latest information relative to the condition of the Canal. The reports respecting the damage done to that work have been much exaggerated, as may be inferred from the fact that in two or three days it will be thoroughly repaired and reopened for navigation. The recent freshet was greater than any which has occurred since 1810, and it has satisfactorily proved the stability of the work.

The works of the Rail road Company have sustained no injury.

FRESHET IN JAMES RIVER.—The late rains have caused an extraordinary rise in the waters of James River — The extent of damage is not yet known, but it may be inferred from the following statement copied from the Richmond Compiler of Monday.

Great Rise in James River.—Saturday morning we stated the river had risen the evening before very high. It continued to rise until a very late hour Saturday night, when it was higher than at any former period since 1795. It was 22 inches higher at Rocketts than the great June Fresh of last year, which destroyed so much wheat and did so much injury to the James River Canal. Yesterday, at dark, it had fallen about three feet and a half, and was retiring very gradually.—The late heavy rains, which have been very general, caused this great fresh.

The destruction must be great. The packet boat on the Canal, which left this place Friday morning, only got as far as Maiden's Adventure, and that due Saturday has not been heard from. Nothing is yet known of the damage done the Canal, though we have reason to hope that it is not so extensive as last June, the river having risen, on the present occasion, with less rapidity.

A large portion of the wheat crop is hopelessly destroyed—the deposit upon it being so deep as to prevent it from appearing.

As far as could be ascertained last evening, the Dock had suffered very little injury.

Much plank was swept away from the wharves and considerable damage was sustained by the stores, in Rocketts, which were all more or less inundated — Messrs. Haskins & Libby's basement was between four and five feet deep in water.

The cellars at Market Bridge were very deep in water, though little injury was sustained except by Mr. Stecker, who had a considerable amount of articles liable to injury from water inundated.

We hope for the best, but fear discouraging reports of destruction from this flood of waters.

RESISTING THE LAWS. The Delaware State Journal states that a portion of the citizens of Sussex Co. have determined to oppose the collection of debts from them. Their circumstances, they say, are such; at this time, that they cannot pay what they owe; and if their creditors execute and sell their property and goods they will be left without the necessaries of life and a home. To avert these evils, a portion of them have united and are determined to prevent any sheriff or constable's sales taking place in their section of the state.
