A In the Name of God, Amen.

I Rachel Ceolon of the City of Baltimore and State of Maryland, considering the certainty of death, and the uncertainty of the time thereof, do make and publish this my Last Will and Testament, in manner and form following, that is to say:

First: It is my Will and desire, and I do hereby direct that my servants, Ishmael Handy, Ann Hutchins, Edward Brown, Isabella the daughter and Alfred the Son of the said Ann Hutchins, and any other children the said Ann Hutchins may hereafter have born in my lifetime, shall be free from Slavery from and immediately after my death, and for the comfortable support and maintenance of my said negroes, I do make the following provisions, to wit: I give and devise unto Richard Ceolon Warford, the son of David Warford, and his heirs, the southernmost house of my two back houses, situated in North Frederick street, in the City of Baltimore, in trust for the use and occupation of my Servant Ann Hutchins, during her lifetime, but in no wise to be answerable for any other debts or contracts, and I do direct the said trustee to pay regularly, out of the funds hereinafter mentioned and provided, all taxes or other public dues now or hereafter chargeable upon said house and premises, and also all expenses for insurance and necessary repairs upon the same during the lifetime of the said Ann Hutchins; It is my desire that the said Ann Hutchins shall take her sister Mary to live with her but this is the mere expression of a wish and is not designed to control the free exercise of her inclinations.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my said servant Ann Hutchins, two hundred dollars per annum during her natural life, to be paid by my Executor hereinafter mentioned in equal quarterly payments, out of the funds hereinafter mentioned and provided, commencing with the first of said quarterly payments, at the time of the receipt by him of the first dividends upon the stocks or funds hereinafter mentioned for the payment of the same. I also give unto said Ann Hutchins all the furniture in the Apartments occupied by her in my dwelling house.

B

Item. As my boy Alfred, the son of my said servant Ann Hutchins is now too young to be manumitted, I do give and bequeath unto Richard Ceolon Warford as aforesaid, my said boy Alfred until he shall attain to the age of fourteen years, at which time I will and direct that the said Alfred shall be free; And I do further will and direct, that until the said Alfred shall arrive at the said age of fourteen years, he shall be left in the custody and under the charge of his said mother, and I enjoin it upon my said servant Ann Hutchins, that as soon as her said son shall attain to the aforesaid age of fourteen years, he shall be bound out to some useful trade, consulting however his inclination as to the trade he may prefer.

Item. I give and bequeath unto Mary, the sister of the aforesaid

Ann Hutchins, forty dollars per annum during her life, to be paid by my executor in equal quarterly payments, out of the funds herein after mentioned and provided for the payment of the same commencing with the payment of the said quarterly payments at the time of the receipt of the first dividend upon the stock or funds hereinafter provided therefor.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my servant Ishmael Handy fifty dollars per annum, during his natural life, to be paid by my Executor in equal quarterly payments, out of the funds hereinafter mentioned, for the payment of the same, commencing with the first of said quarterly payments, at the time of the receipt of the first dividend upon the stock or funds hereinafter provided therefor.

C

Item. I give and bequeath unto my servant Edward Brown, eighty dollars per annum, during his lifetime, to be paid by my said executor in equal quarterly payments out of the funds hereinafter provided therefor commencing with the first of such payments at the time of the receipt of the first dividend upon the stock or funds hereinafter mentioned for the payment of the same.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my servant Isabella, the daughter of Ann Hutchins fifty dollars per annum during the joint lives of the said Isabella and her said mother and from and after the death of the said Ann Hutchins, if the said Isabella should survive her. I give and bequeath unto the said Isabella one hundred dollars per Annum during her natural life, instead of fifty dollars aforesaid, to be paid in the same manner as is above directed in regard to the annuities bequeathed to my other servants.

Item. I give and bequeath unto the Trustees of the Male Free School of Baltimore, or by whatever corporate name they may be known, ten thousand dollars, which I direct my Executor to pay to them within five years after my death, which sum of money I direct the said Trustees of the Male Free School of Baltimore, to expend in buildings or purchasing a suitable building for a school house for the education of females attached to said School, the said building to be called the "Colvin Institute".

Item. I give and devise to Richard Ceolon Warford aforesaid and his heirs, my lot and house in which I formerly resided, in East Baltimore street, adjoining the residence of Isaac McKim deceased, in trust for the sole and seperate use of Rachel Jane Warford, the daughter of David Warford and from and after the death of the said Rachel Jane Warford, I give and devise the said house and lot to the right heirs of the said Rachel Jane Warford forever.

D

Item. I give and devise unto Richard Ceolon Warford, and his
