THE FIRE AT TALLAHASSEE

A day or two after the occurrence of the great fire at Tallahassee, by which the principal part of the town was destroyed, a meeting of the citizens was held at which a committee was appointed, to make an appeal to the people of the United States on behalf of the destitute sufferers. The address reached us by the last mail, and is republished below. We trust that the appeal which it presents will be answered with promptness and liberality:

To the People of the United States of America.

It has pleased an inscrutable Providence to afflict, by an awful calamity, the inhabitants of a City on the frontier of the Union. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon, of Thursday the 25th of May, the city of Tallahassee numbered, with a population not exceeding two thousand souls, eighty nine stores and house, the theatre of active mercantile and manufacturing industry. In three hours, by a devasting fire, which no exertion could stay, not a solitary store, shop, or theatre of business remained. A property in buildings, which many estimated at not much less than half a million, had fallen a prey to the flames, and with it, goods, furniture and moveable effects of the value of one hundred and fifty thousand dollars more.

The extent of this overwhelming calamity may be measured, by the fact, that from the ports of Tallahassee, at the mouth of the River St. Marks, there has been exported in the current year, or collected for exportation, chiefly on accounts of the Merchants and Traders of Tallahassee, 32.000 bales of cotton, the only staple export of the Territory of Florida, a quantity worth in ordinary years 1.200 000 dollars, & at its present reduced price a moiety of that sum.

In return for this exportation, a full equivalent has hitherto been imported comprehending not merely nor chiefly the comforts or luxuries, but the necessaries of life, its staple commodity having until lately employed the productive industry of the country, to the exclusion of every other pursuit. The Merchants and agents of a commerce that has exceeded two and a half millions in the year, are by a sudden blow, deprived of their stores, warehouses, and their stock of unsold goods. The artizans of their shops, and of their very tools of trade. And of the property so lost less than twenty thousand dollars is covered by insurance.

Such a calamity cannot but make a powerful appeal to the sympathy of a generous public, and in their reliance on that appeal, the citizens of Tallahassee consult the feelings, which they have themselves manifested on like occasions, towards the calamities of their more fortunate fellow citizens of the U. States.

Having just escaped from the ravages of an Indian war, they had begun to cherish the hope of returning prosperity, though struggling with those embarrassments of the currency and commerce of the U. States which have been felt more or less in every portion of the Union, but in the south with peculiar force.

It is, at such a period, and under such circumstances that they are reluctantly induced to look beyond the limits of their own Territory, for consolation and aid. The far greater part of those who have most heavily suffered by the late destructive fire, will seek through a different channel, to repair their heavy loss. That portion of its victims, to whom relief may come, need that it should be promptly administered.

F. EPPES, Mayor of Tallahassee,
Chairman of the General Meeting of Citizens.

THE U. STATES AND THE CHINA MISSION.

We are glad to perceive that the China Mission is likely to be conducted on a plan calculated to render it effective. Mr. Cushing will take as his private Secretary, a French gentleman who is said to be eminently qualified for the task. We notice also with pleasure, that a gentleman will go out in behalf of the American Institute of New York. The demonstration should be rendered as imposing as possible; for however we may laugh at such things—we should remember that the Chinese are a people apt to be influenced by form. ceremony and shew, and readily affected by appeals to their national vanity. All the civilized nations of the world which are of any importance will no doubt compete with each other in the race to win the kindly sympathies and good-will of the Chinese, now that a world so long locked up in a great measure to Europeans, is about to be thrown open.—Brother Jonathan should not be a whit behind any of them Let us communicate to the Chinese as much useful information as possible, and we shall be certain of receiving something valuable in return. Already we perceive that the Horticultural Society of London has resolved to despatch a person to China, to bring home rare trees, flowers, shrubs, &c.—The Pekin peach, said to weigh 2 lbs. and described as particularly delicious will no doubt be looked after. We repeat that too much pains, too much expense, cannot be bestowed upon this mission. Managed with tact, liberality and good feeling, it may be productive of immense advantages to the country. Mr. Cushing no doubt possesses many qualifications to discharge the duties of Commissioner with success, and he may feel assured that the country with its eyes fixed steadily upon him, will feel no little interest in the progress of his enterprise.

SUDDEN DEATH.—James Cheston, Esq President of the Farmers and Planters Bank, Baltimore, died after an illness of a few hours, on Wednesday morning last He was an opulent man and a highly respectable and useful citizen. He was one of the gallant defenders of Baltimore during the last war.

AN INSURRECTION IN CUBA—IMPORTANT.

By the way of New Orleans, we have advices from the Havanna to the 25th ult. The Courier and Picayune give some interesting news:

Just before the Alabama steamer left for New Orleans, an express arrived at Havanna, bringing the melancholy intelligence of another insurrection among the negroes on the south side of the island in the vicinity of St. Jago de Cuba.—From accounts, the plot appears to have been much more extensive and deeply organized than the outbreak at Cardinas, some time since, and much more desperate and bloody in its execution. A large number of planters, with their overseers and families, were the hapless victims of the infuriated blacks—considerable property was also destroyed.

So important was the intelligence, from its astounding report of the loss of life and property, as well as the extent of the plot of the insurgents, that the admiral of the port, Gen Ulloa, immediately despatched a man of war steamer to the scene of riot, and orders were also given for a frigate, two brigs of war, and another steamer to follow with troops, without delay. These vessels were all to sail by Wednesday, Gen. Ulloa going in command of the expedition.

The section of Cuba alluded to, is, we may add, a part of the island that is near to the free black republic of Hayti,—Danger to the present state of things in East Cuba, is therefore to be feared,

A fire broke out in some brushwood, near Cora Blanca, but it was soon arrested by the assiduity of the seamen in that part of Havanna, particularly those belonging to American vessels.

The general State election in Indian, takes place in August next, and the canvass is already becoming quite animated A letter from St. Joseph's county published in the New York Tribune, says—

Cost Johnson's plan of Relief to the State is becoming very popular among the people of this State. The Loco Foco candidates generally have arrayed themselves in opposition to it, and the Whig candidates generally advocate the adoption of it, or some other broad, feasible and comprehensive scheme. which based upon and anticipating the Proceeds of the Public Lands, will relieve the people of the indebted States from the oppression of grinding taxation, or the infamy of Repudiation. Many believe that it is the only thing that will save us from the redemptionless degradation of open Repudiation when our debt becomes due.

Correspondence of U. S. Gazette.
NEW CASTLE, May 29. 1843

J. R. Chandler, Esq—Dear Sir—Delaware is certainly destined to lead the rest of the United States to greatness—no sooner does a locomotive cease being the nine day's wonder (after hauling the greatest load known from the coal mines to your city)—which said engine was manufactured at this place—but a native cow springs to notice which throws the celebrated Durhams far in the shade: your 'Blossoms' and 'Dairy Maids' may now retire and make way for Lady'.—This cow is now producing milk which yields fifteen pounds of butter per week. Her owner looks for twenty-one pounds per week, next week if favorable weather and no accident.—Three pounds of butter has been made from her milk in twenty four hours, this week, and such delicious butter! the gentleman owning her has a dairy of cows that are fit to be placed alongside of any other in this or any country—and his working oxen are beyond comparison—they are all descendants from the original stock brought from Devonshire to the valley of Connecticut by the Pilgrims—they are pure, no alloy—natives—and excel their sires as much as our mountains and rivers excel those of Europe. Let us not, hereafter, hear any bragging about Durham Cows, as the Dairy Maid must give place to the Lady.

CAPTURE OF STEWART THE MURDERER.—The N. O. Bee says:—We learn that Richard Stwart, the wretch who some time ago at Washington county, (Ark.) shot a poor woodchopper and gave his body to be devoured by his dogs, was taken a few days since on the Ouachita river, near the Bartholemew, by a party of Louisianians. He was not captured without desperate resistance, and was wounded several times in the limbs and body in the course of the fight, which terminated in his capture. Stwart was taken to Columbia, Ark., and surrendered to the demands of justice He had a large amount of gold, some $2,500 on his person.—From his violent resistance and language it would appear that he greatly dreaded being taken to Arkansas, as he would probably be Lynched—a punishment to which he declares death infinitely preferable.

One of the jail prisoners was yesterday detected in the act of attempting to escape by a rope, one end of which was fastened round his waist, while the other, having a weight attached to it, was thrown over the wall. "That rope," said one of the keepers, "should be placed around your neck instead of your waist—where did you get it?" "Why; from parson Miller,' said the fellow, very coolly 'don't you see it is my ascension rope?'.—Picayune.

ESCAPE OF SLAVES.—Twenty runaway slaves passed through Cleveland week before last on their way to Canada. Fifteen were from one plantation in Virginia.—Their master soon after arrived, offering $1, 200 for their apprehension, but he arrived just three days too late.

The Madisonian contains an editorial article, in which ground is taken against National Debts, and the States are earnestly urged to pay their debts. This is all well enough, but the Madisonian does not point out any available plan. Debt is a very ugly thing, whether for an individual, a State or a Nation, and while this is very generally conceded, we should rejoice to see some mode pointed out by the Government organ calculated to assist the States in their efforts to extricate themselves from their present condition of embarrassment and disgrace.—Enquirer.

The President of the United States returned to Washington on Monday, by the way of Richmond and Fredericksburg, from his brief visit to his residence in Virginia.

The proper salutes were fired from the Frigate Missouri and the Arsenal on the boat's passing up having the President on board.

It is understood that the President will, in a few days, take his departure hence to be present at the ceremony of the completion of the Bunker Hill Monument, on which occasion he will be attended by several of the Heads of Department.—Nat. Intel.

The Philadelphia Pennsylvanian (L F.) over curious in such matters, announces, with due formality, that Gov. Porter, who is now in Philadelphia, visited on Friday night the oyster celler of Mr Samuel Sutton, and was entertained handsomely with "fried roasted and stewed." The Pennsylvanian adds: "Mr. Sutton, it will be recollected, was recently pardoned by his excellency for an assault and battery on a Mr. Lovat." If this is to be the custom, Governor Porter is likely to be well entertained, in whatever part of the State he may go to—as from the free hand with which he has granted pardons, he will be most likely to find some culprit of his clemency in every town in the State.

DERANGEMENT OF THE BOWELS.

It is from this disorder that sickness first arises; when the digestion becomes impeded, owing to this irregularity the whole system becomes impeded, and irregularity of the body becomes universal; Stainburn's Vegetable Extract Pills are calculated to eradicate this disorganization at one or two trials; formed as they are from the PUREST VEGETABLE EXTRACTS, they bring nature's system of cure to act upon the physical organization of man, and thus drive out those latent remains which if left to them elves invariably destroy the health of the most rugged. The origin of disease can be easily traced. Whenever the bowels cease their proper functions—digestion—it is a sure sign that the stomach is not in a healthy state. A remedy must be at once taken to restore the tone of the organ to its proper operations of digestion STAINBURN'S PILLS will do this effectually. Sold at the office 338 Broadway, next door to the Tabernacle—at 25 cts. per box.

Said Pills are sold in Easton by the agent, E. M. DAWSON & BROTHER, and by agents published in another part of our paper.

DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL

For Dyspepsia, Sick Head Ache, Rheumatism &c. &c.,

THE PROPRIETOR of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is farther from his purpose than to offer it to the public as an universal medicine, or cure all—It is adapted to a few diseases only, for which it is confidently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention!

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the appetite when impaired, and promotes digestion—it soothes and tranquilizes the nervous system. when excited or disturbed produces cheerfulness of spirits, with feelings of general comfort and satisfaction.

In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual remedy

Dyspepsia, Sick or Nervous Headache, cholic, cramp or spasm in the stomach, cholera morbus, hysterics and nervous diseases generally, chronic dysentery, diarrhœa or purging sea sickness, cholera infantum, rheumatism chronic liver complaints. Female irregularities of a chronic character, attended with cold feet, pain in the back, limbs &c. It is also particularly recommended to those who are suffering under debility, languor, depression of spirits, with irregular or defective appetite, restlessness at night, with unsound or disturbed sleep—In these cases this cordial will be found an admirable remedy! Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiary adapted to such cases. As a preventative of Ague and Fever it is useful, and those who reside in neighborhoods where this disease prevails, would do well to take it once or twice a day during the sickly seasons.

TESTIMONIALS:

Westminster, Carroll Co. Md. Aug. 12, 1842.

Mr. C. Hearston; dear sir—Having made use of several bottles of Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Cordial of which you are proprietor, I feel a desire to inform you of its beneficial results. The first use made of it in my family was by myself, for pain in the breast—the next was for Cholic, being violently attacked; the next was a case of Cholic in a colored man in my imploy; the next was a case of a child a few weeks old which was much afflicted with cholic and consequently very restless; the next case was pain in the bowels and stomach of the colored man spoken of above, in which case he was unable to work. It is with pleasure I inform you that in all the above cases it effected a speedy cure—in some of the cases a single dose had the desired effect. After commencing the use of the Cordial with the child it soon became very fleshy and has continued to grow rapidly ever since—is now past one year old and whenever attacked by the cholic (which has not been for some time,) has invariably found relief from a dose of the Cordial. From the use made of it in my family my wife is quite unwilling to be without a bottle of it in the house at any time.

Yours respectfully, JOHN M'COLLUM.

Leesburg, Va. July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Hearstons, dear sir—Having been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty, I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals! I have a young woman in my family who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsis, by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial, she was fully cured! Given under my hand this 10th day of July 1841. PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md. Sept. 14, 1840.

Mr. C. Herstons: Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines as well as medical assistance had been tried, but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY Jr.

From the Rev. T. H. W. Monroe,
Liberty town, Frederick Co. Md'
May 9, 1840.

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present I now state to you that I have used Drs Dresbach, Kuhan and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage. For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regard as Dyspepsia, in its insipent stages, to obtain relief from wich I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as I trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully.

THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your request to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz: defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor, debility, &c. These symptoms were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her. PHILAMON TOWSON.

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir.—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbech, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, for dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c, had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbor's; she hastened home & took a dose of the cordial, sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand, this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md. Sept. 1840.

Mr. Herston—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic. She thought she would have died—I was alarmed. In the discription given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms, or cramp, in the stomach. It justly sustained its character in my wife's case. The attack commenced about daylight. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room, sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved. JACOB KESSLER.

N. B. It is highly recommended for Bowel Complaint.
