PROPOSALS

For publishing in the city of Baltimore, a cheap weekly paper, to be devoted to the advocacy of Whig principles, to be called the

AMERICAN WHIG.

BELIEVING that the interests of the Whig Party in Maryland and the adjacent States, require that there should be published in the City of Baltimore, a cheap and efficient weekly journal, to be devoted to the maintenance of those principles, and the advocacy of those great measures, which form the Landmarks of the party, it is proposed to issue a paper with the above title, as soon as the necessary arrangements can be made. It will be continued until after the close of the Presidential election in 1844.

As the Conductor desires to observe all frankness in his course, he deems it necessary to say, that it will support the election of HENRY CLAY, to the Presidency, and that of the individual who may be selected by the Convention which is to assemble in the City of Baltimore in May, 1844, as the Whig candidate for the Vice Presidency. It will advocate the continuance of the Tariff policy; the chartering of a Bank of the United States, or such other financial plan, as may be best calculated to restore the Currency and Exchanges of the Country to a sound and healthful condition: it will go for a restriction of the Veto power, that odious feature of our Constitution which places it within the power of the Executive to defeat the will of a majority of the American People, as expressed through their representatives; and to restrict the eligibility of the President to one term: all measures calculated to introduce wholesome Reforms and Retrenchments, correct abuses, expose Corruptions, and punish Delinquents in the administration of the government, shall be zealously sustained by it; nor will it less zealously insist upon the distribution of the proceeds of the Public Lands—in a word, it will be our object to render it an exponent of Whig principles and measures.

In avowing our partiality and predilections for HENRY CLAY, we are influenced by the exalted opinion we entertain of the high deservings of that matchless Statesman, distinguished Orator, and single hearted Patriot.—In him, we behold one, whose whole public life has been marked by devotion to Country, uninfluenced by selfish considerations; by enlarged and lofty patriotism, and consummate wisdom, in the projection and advocacy of measures;—and whose ripe experience in the affairs of State, & eminent public services, peculiarly qualify him for the station. Thus appreciating his distinguished political qualifications and attainments, and admiring his upright, ingenuous and chivalric bearing in private life, it shall be our study to place his merits fairly before the American people—sincerely believing as we do, that he is the man best fitted to rescue our country from the state of depression dishonor and misery to which she has been reduced by designing or ignorant men who have controled her powers for the last twelve years—whose course of policy has reduced our once happy and prosperous land, though still blessed by a bountiful Providence with abundant yieldings from the earth, to bankruptcy, beggary, and almost to despair.

The result of the coming contest or the Presidency, we consider as fraught with consequences of the highest magnitude, either for weal or woe, which have ever occurred since the formation of our government containing as it will the utter hopelessness of our present and future condition, on the one hand or assuring us of the rays of returning prosperity and happiness on the other. The principles of which are to be contested by the two great parties which divide the country, will be boldly emblazoned on their respective shields—by the one, Free trade and the Sub treasury will be the war cry—by the other, a Protective Tariff and a National Institution for the regulation of the Currency—It is to be a death struggle—and the principles of the victor will be those which in all probability, will either bless or curse the country for many years to come—It under the lead of our gallant Chief the noble HARRY OF THE WEST,—he in whose person Whig principles are impersonated, we should fail in the coming contest in a fair and open field, (as we hope and trust we shall have, and know we will if Carolina's favorite son is the champion opposed to him,) —then will we admit that the voice of the people for which we have so earnestly contended, and we must abide the consequences—But of this result we have no fear, if the Whigs are true to themselves and to their country—they have the strength; the moral and physical power is with them, to rescue the government from misrule, without they again permit that lethargy to seize them, which has so frequently foiled us when victory was just within our grasp. But we have an abiding faith that such will not be the case in the coming conflict—that they will be found each at his post, eager for the fight nerved with that indomitable spirit which prompted their revolutionary sires to pledge to each other all that man holds dear, to rescue their beloved country from that oppression and misrule under which they suffered—It is our intention to excite and arouse this noble spirit, conscious as we are that this alone is necessary to secure a triumph equal to that achieved in 1840, under the lamented HARRISON.

In furthering those objects and purposes which have induced us to engage in this enterprise, we will mingle courtesy with fearlessness & as we believe that a cause like that of the whigs, which we consider the cause of the country, possesses too many of the elements of true greatness in its measures and principles, to need the aid of ribaldry and vituperation, we will sedulously avoid, as unworthy of that cause, and of our own character, the use of personalities, except when rendered necessary in self-defence.

Though the "American Whig" will be essentially a political journal, we will give such a character to its readings, as to make it interesting alike to the farmer the mechanic, the merchant, the professional man, and to the scholar in fine, such an one, as a parent may introduce into his family circle, with the assurance that the tone of their morals will be elevated by its perusal.

☞The Editorial Department will be in charge of a gentleman of acknowledge abilities, who has had the conduct of some of the ablest political journals in this State; and who has ever been the unflinching advocate of those principles for which the Whig party is now contending.

TERMS:

☞The "AMERICAN WHIG" will be published every Saturday on a medium sheet, with a good type, on the following terms:

1 copy, for 12 months,	$1 50
4 do. do.	5 00
10 do. do.	10 00
1 copy for 18 months, or until the Presidential election in Nov. 1844,	$2 00
6 do. do.	10 00
10 do. do.	15 00

☞The aid of our Whig friends is solicited in obtaining subscribers—The plan and price is adopted in order to reach every class of the community, & to suit the present times—The low price of the paper renders it outside the question of its being sent except when paid for in advance.

☞The publication office will be at the printing establishment of

ANOTHER EVIDENCE OF THE WONDERFUL CURES PERFORMED BY DR. SWAYNE'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF WILD CHERRY.

Dr. Swayne:—Dear Sir:—When I was at Pittsburg last August, I purchased of your Agent Six Bottles of your Compound Syrup of Wild Cherry. I had for many years been troubled with a Cough, often very violent, with other indications of Consumption, or disease of the Lungs, of a very serious nature. I had very little faith in medicine, as it was thought my disease was hopeless and beyond its reach.—I had applied to several Physicians for relief, and also used some highly puffed medicine, which I had seen in the newspapers, but hearing that you had much experience in the practice of medicine, and had treated many cases of Consumption, I concluded to try yours; and from that time I am happy to say, I found relief.—I write this in hopes you will publish it, so that if any human being has suffered as I have done, they may know where to find a medicine the virtues of which may be relied on.

Yours respectfully,

JAMES OSBURN.

JUDKIN'S PATENT SPECIFIC OINTMENT.

, The above Ointment is offered to the public as a safe and certain remedy for those obstinate diseases, some of which have so long baffled the skill of medical science:

1st. White swellings of every description.

2d. Sore legs, and ulcers of long standing.

3d. Schirrus, or glandular tumours, particularly those hardened tumours in women's breast, which oftentimes, terminate in ulcerated cancers

4th Felons, or what some people know by the name of Catarrhs, of every description.

5th. Rheumatic pains in the joints.

6th. Sprains and bruises of every description, or in whatever part situate.

7th Tetters of all kinds. In this complaint the patient, in applying the ointment, must keep the part out of water.

8th. Chilblains, or parts effected by frost.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The following communication, addressed to the proprietor of Judkin's Ointment, from the Hon. John Taliaferro, member of Congress, is highly interesting. The gratuitous manner in which it is made, exhibits feelings of no ordinary character towards suffering humanity; and is certainly well deserving of public attention.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, 1829.

Sir.—It has been my wish for a considerable time, to communicate to you the good effect with which I have used the Ointment invented by a Mr. Judkins, and which I now understand is made and sold by agents appointed by yourself I have applied this ointment during the last three years, to every species of tumour and wound, without failure to produce a cure in every instance. I consider it the most decided and efficient remedy in all cases of tumour, be the cause what it may, and I have found nothing so good for wounds of any description It may be proper to add that the cure of a tumour called the white swelling, given over by the most distinguished physicians as incurrable, and which they have decided would, without amputation, prove fatal to the patient, was, under my immediate notice, effected by the use of Judkin's Ointment, and the patient is in fine health; his limb affected by the tumour being restored to a perfect state of soundness. Also, that the leg of an aged man which had been wounded, and exhibited one dreadfully ulcerated surface from the knee to the foot, and which for more than two years had been considered incurable, was effectually cured by the application of Judkins' Ointment. I mention these two cases, which fell under my immediate notice and management, as a decided evidence of the efficacy of this remedy in cases of tumour and of ulcers — I have experienced as decidedly the good effect of this remedy in the cure of felons, and of every species of fresh wound. It seems to me that any one who will observe on the operation of this ointment, must, be satisfied as to its beneficial effect. I can with the utmost confidence recommend the use of this valuable emedy.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,

JOHN TALIAFERO.

To Mr. Charles Herstons. Proprietor of Judkins' Ointment, near Fredericktown, Md.

☞PILES.☜

Before leaving Boonsboro, I had heard much of an article in which you appear before the public as proprietor, named Herstons' Judkins' Specific Ointment, made by C. Herstons, near Frederick, Md. and of its decided efficacy in cures on persons with whom I am well acquainted, since my residence in Baltimore it has performed a cure on a friend of mine afflicted with piles. Having myself been a sufferer for some years with this distressing disease, I now unhesitatingly applied your Ointment in my own case, and am gratified that I can say it made a perfect cure

J A BENTZ.

Counting Room, Lombard street.

A few weeks ago a case of woman's sore breast came under my notice, the breast greatly inflamed, the nipple scarcely to be seen—her appearance clearly spoke the great misery she was in; she told me she had been suffering three months with it, and was confined to her bed; she then had flaxseed poultice to it; other things had been tried. I advised Judkin's Ointment knowing it had often been successful in like cases. She got and applied it according to the directions accompanying it; in 24 hours all pain was gone; it broke and commenced discharging copiously and so continued some days; the relief from extreme pain to perfect ease excited the woman's astonishment; a few days reduced her breast to its usual state, & in eight days the cure was complete.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Messrs. L. & R. T. Lowndes, merchants, Cumberland.

Gentlemen,—I was afflicted with a sore leg—the fame of Judkins Ointment induced me to get a jug of it—but it happened not to be of Mr. Herston's make. I used it according to directions, but my leg kept getting worse. Mr. Herstons, travelling to the west stopped at my house; during the time, on looking at the ointment I had, he immediately pronounced it not of his make, and furnished me with one which was. On opening and smelling it I was sensible of the difference, although it looked like it. I then applied the ointment he gave me to my leg; it became in a state of amendment on using the first plaster and so continued until it got quite well.

This ointment is certainly very valuable, and it would be a pity it should be lost to the public by a counterfeit article bearing the name and being not genuine.

WILLIAM K. NEWMAN.

From Rev. Beverly Waugh.

I have known Mr. C. Herstons to be the proprietor of Judkin's Ointment for several years during my residence in Maryland, and the Ointment made by him to have been in much repute. It has been frequently used in my own family while living in Maryland, & during my residence in this city with success.
