EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, July 15.

FOR PRESIDENT
HENRY CLAY,
OF KENTUCKY.

Our farmers have been busy in their Harvest fields this week, and we suppose by the middle of the next, will have finished cutting --the week has proved unfavorable for the business. On Tuesday it commenced raining, and we have not had a peep at the sun since, until yesterday, when he showed his face about 12 M. We understand the wheat will turn out much better than was expected a few weeks ago, and of a superior quality. We hope the purchasers in Baltimore, will be liberal and give a fair price for it and not depend on which way the wind blows to regulate the market, as we are told is sometimes the case.

THE CABINET.—The Madisonian of Saturday afternoon has the following announciation:

We are authorized to announce, that the Cabinet arrangements have at length been completed, and that the Departments are placed under the administration of the undermentioned gentlemen:

Hon. Abel P. Upsher, Secretary of State.

Hon. John C. Spencer Secretary of Treasury.

Hon. J. M. Porter Secretary of War.

Hon. David Henshaw, Secretary of the Navy.

Hon. Chas. A. Wickliffe, Postmaster General.

Hon. John Nelson Attorney General.

LOUISIANA ELECTION.

The election in Louisiana for members of Congress took place last Monday.—Each party had a candidate in the field in each district, as follows:

| Districts. | Whigs. | Loco Focos. |
|---|---|---|
| 1. | George K. Rogers. | John Slidell. |
| 2. | Edward D. White. | Alcee Labranche. |
| 3 | James M. Elam. | John S. Dawson. |
| 4. | John Moore. | P E Bossier. |

ACCIDENT.—A child of Mr. Benjamin Vanhorne, aged 18 months, was killed in Chestertown, on the 4th inst., by the wad from the cannon. It was in the nurse's arms at the time. Its arm was much bruised, and it was otherwise so much injured that it died on the following day.—The mother of the child had been buried on the previous Saturday.—Telescope.

MURDER WILL OUT.—The Rochester Post says:—"During the exercises at the Miller tent on Sunday evening last, a woman became much excited, and fainted away. She has since made a most extraordinary development, having confessed that she committed a murder several years ago in Great Britain, & expresses her wish to be sent back to pay the penalty of the law. We have had this statement from good authority, and believe it will be found to be correct."

The Upper Marlborough (Md.) Gazette gives an account of a suspicious looking man who has been prowling about Patuxent River, in a canoe for some time past. He carries a gun, and will give no satisfactory account of himself. A murder was committed some 12 or eighteen months since on this Shore with the particulars of which he is said to be acquainted. He has been arrested by a number of the citizens of Benedict, Charles county, on suspicion of having been the murderer, and detained for an investigation.

MR. TYLER IN THE FIELD.—The official paper at Washington, and the correspondents of the organs of the administration elsewhere, have at length thrown off all disguise, and nominated Mr. Tyler for the succession, and a direct appeal is made to the "democratic party" for support. The Mercury of this city (Phila.) also raises the following:

"For President in 1844, JOHN TYLER, of Virginia, (subject to the decision of a Democratic National Convention)"

We may add, that the leading Loco Foco prints, such as the Globe, the N. Y. Evening Post, the Pennsylvanian, and the Richmond Enquirer, ridicule the chances of Mr Tyler even for a nomination. One of them says he has not even the ghost of a chance.—Enquirer.

CALHOUN AND VAN BUREN.

The New York Courier says: "Among all the candidates who will be opposed to HENRY CLAY in the Presidential contest there is no one more honorable or more estimable in all his personal relations than John C. Calhoun; and we doubt not that with all the memories that weigh against his dangerous political heresies—memories that will live as long as he will—he would to-morrow be met with a warmer greeting and a more cordial good will, even among those who most dread and most thoroughly dislike his politics, and most contemn his inconsistencies, than Martin Van Buren, who has scarcely ever been caught in a tangible overt act of any sort, and who never ventured upon an avowal the fifty thousandth part so gross and so dangerous as Mr. Calhoun's acknowledged and pitied heresy of nullification."

SANDWICH ISLANDS. The British minister at Washington has officially notified the Secretary of State, that the seizure of the Sandwich Islands by Lord Paulet was unauthorized by his government, and that they will be forthwith restored to the native authorities. This is gratifying intelligence, inasmuch as a contrary course would have given rise to much uneasiness as to the ulterior designs of Great Britain, and might have led in time to more serious consequences.

ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The New York Tribune asks the following questions, viz:

"There is a very general anxiety in this vicinity—as we doubt not there is everywhere—to know something of the new Attorney General, John Nelson, Esq. Had Mr. Pettigru of South Carolina taken the office we should have felt assured by his great reputation as a jurist of eminent ability, that the lamented Legare had a worthy successor; but now we have reason for no such belief. The Madisonian speaks of his "extraordinary legal attainments, great intellect and irreproachable character;" but that print has said quite as much, nay, much more even than this of Robert Tyler—and would undoubtedly say it of any one else; if its official master should bid it. Will not the Baltimore papers—if the examination would not cost them too much labor—tell us who & what is John Nelson, our new Attorney General?"

The Frederick (Md.) Examiner, says, "Mr Nelson is a native of this place, and practised law here until he was appointed Minister to Naples, by General Jackson, some twelve or thirteen years ago.

His negotiations in that capacity were successful, and upon his return from that mission he removed to Baltimore, where he has been since engaged in the practice of the law. Mr. Nelson was always a Locofoco of the first water; & by the appointment of him President Tyler continues to show his determination to cut down and keep down his "Federal Whig foes," as the Madisonian has it, and to swell his base ingratitude mountain high. Mr Nelson presided at the meetings in Baltimore which met to make arrangements to do honor to President Tyler.—The salary of the Attorney General is $4 000 per annum.

The steam packet Hibernia, Captain Judkins, arrived in Boston harbor on Monday morning last, before five o'clock, from Liverpool, via Halifax. The Hibernia left Liverpool on the afternoon of the 20th ult. and has accomplished her passage in the remarkably short space of about twelve days and half.

The news by this arrival is of considerable importance. The excitement in Ireland continues, and seems to be rapidly approaching a crisis. Commotions have also been experienced in Spain, which threaten another civil war in that kingdom. There is no material alteration in the commercial markets. Cotton was dull, and had rather declined in price. The manufacturing districts remained about the same. The weather, which for some preceding weeks had been cold and stormy, had become warm and seasonable, and the prospects of an abundant harvest were very promising.

THE WHIGS IN PHILADELPHIA celebrated the Fourth in Penn. Square by reading the declaration, &c. An oration was delivered by E. J. Morris, after which the company adjourned to the Chinese Museum to dine. They were addressed by several distinguished guests. The following are the standing toasts:

1. The Day we Celebrate—The Birth Day of the Whig party of 1776 and 1843. Glory to its Champions, perpetuity to its principles. Nine cheers—Tune Hail Columbia.

2. The Memory of Washington—His Life is our Glory, His Principles our Rule, His Example our Heritage. Drank standing—Dead March in Saul.

3. The Memory of Harrison—Illustrious in Life, faithful even unto Death, would that his dying political testament ("I wish the true principles of the Government carried out: I ask no more,") had been committed to a more faithful Executor. Drank standing—Dead March Roslin Castle.

4. The President of the United States—We honor his office. Speed the day when we may honor the incumbent. Drank Silent.

5. The Meed of the Traitor—The distrust of the base, the scorn of the honest; a life of blushing and a death of shame. Drank silent—Where shall the traitor rest.

6. Clay of Kentucky—Never daunted and never wrong. One third of a century smiles upon his public services, every true Whig heart throbs warmly in his cause. Thirteen cheers—Clay's March.

7. The One Term Principle—The only security for purity and patriotism in the Executive. Its Candidate the representative of the true Democracy, its antagonist the Champion of Executive Despotism. Six cheers—Washington's March.

8. The Army and Navy of the United State—They will never disgrace their cause; may the country be so governed that their cause will not disgrace them. Six cheers—Star Spangled Banner.

9. The Public Domain—The property of the States. Let it never be flung into the cauldron of central and executive corruption. Three cheers—Yankee Doodle.

10. The Tariff—The pillar which sustains the structure of our national prosperity. Should a blinded and maddened Sampson hurl it down, he will perish in the ruins. Nine cheers—Lucy Long.

11. The Triumph of 1840—A glorious verdict by the unbought people, in favor of Harry of the West. His opponents have obtained a new trial, but it is before the same jury and will be attended by the same result. Nine cheers—Rosin the Bow.

12. Agriculture, Commerce and Manufactures—The three American graces. Embracing and embraced, their interests and destiny are indivisible. The policy of President Clay will ensure their enduring prosperity. Three cheers—Speed the Plough.

13. Woman—Her protection our first duty—her smile our best reward. The scorn of the world upon the wretch that would wrong her. Three cheers—Let the Toast be Dear Woman.

A CALHOUNITE.

The Argus, of Columbus, Ga. holds this language,—

"We go out to do battle in his cause like the Spartan matron bid her son go—and come back with our shields or upon them. Calhoun, without an alternative, is the spirit of the Southern Democracy. The Albany faction—aye! and the Richmond faction, too, with Ritchie at its head—ought to be told so distinctly.—We believe it to be the spirit of the people of our party everywhere—and before May, 1844, it will flame through the continent like the conflagration of the last day.

WHIG NATIONAL CONVENTION.—The States are beginning to appoint Delegates to the Whig National Convention,—delegates having been appointed in Illinois, Vermont, Georgia and we believe, in some districts in other States. With the Whigs, there is no dispute as to the time of holding their Convention, or the manner in which it shall be organized; and we rejoice to add, equally harmonious and united is the Whig Party with regard to their candidate. HENRY CLAY is the man nominated by the People, and the Convention will but adopt measures to aid in securing his election. HENRY CLAY is the man around whom the true Democracy of the country will rally with enthusiasm. Henry Clay is the man destined, we believe, to fill the Presidential Chair, and by the wisdom and patriotism of his administration, bring once more prosperity and happiness to the nation.—Alex. Gazette.

PEACE PROCLAIMED BETWEEN MEXICO AND TEXAS.

By the steamer Sarah Barnes, Capt. Jones, arrived at N. Orleans on the first instant from Galveston, were received files of Texan papers to the 24th ult.—The most important part of the news is the following proclamation from Gen. Houston, declaring the establishment of an armistice between Mexico and Texas:

We copy from the N. O. Picayune of July 2

By the President of the Republic of Texas.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS an official communication has been received at the Department of State from her Britannic Majesty's Charge d'Affaires near this Government founded upon a despatch he had received from her Majesty's Charge d'Affaires in Mexico, announcing to this Government the fact that the President of Mexico would forthwith order a cessation of hostilities on his part, and the establishment of an armistice between Mexico & Texas and requested that the President of Texas would send similar orders to the different officers commanding the Texan forces.

And Whereas the President of Texas has felt justified, from the dispositions evinced by this act of the President of Mexico, and the nature of those dispositions in adopting the proposed measure, and ordering the cessation of hostilities on the part of Texas:

Therefore, be it known, that I, SAM HOUSTON, President of the Republic of Texas and Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy of the same, do hereby declare and proclaim that an ARMISTICE is established between Texas and Mexico, to continue during the pendency of negotiations between the two countries for peace, and until due notice of an intention to resume hostilities (should such an intention hereafter be entertained by either party) shall have been formally announced through Her Britannic Majesty's Charge-d'Affaires at the respective Governments, and the revocation of this proclamation; and all officers commanding the forces of Texas, or acting by authority of this Government, are hereby ordered and commanded to observe the same.

L. S. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Great Seal of the Republic to be affixed.

Done at Washington, the fifteenth day of June, A. D 1843, and of the Independence of the Republic the eighth.

SAM. HOUSTON.

By the President:

ANSON JONES, Secretary of State.

THE CHURCH IN INDIA.

We learn from the Banner of the Cross, that in 1814, when the Bishopric of Calcutta was first erected, there were not more than thirty chaplains, and ten or twelve missionaries in the three dioceses of Calcutta, Madras and Bombay; with perhaps eight or ten churches. Now there are one hundred and seven chaplains altogether, fifty three on the establishment of Calcutta, twenty nine on that of Madras, and twenty five on that of Bombay; and the whole number of clergy in the three dioceses is two hundred and nineteen; while there are upwards of one hundred and twenty churches. The missions in the south of India and Ceylon, as well as those in Bombay and Calcutta, are in steady progress. Especially are the missions around Palamcotte and Tinnervelly in an encouraging state; about 35,000 natives are there collected, who are in different stages of Christian instruction. The magnificent new Cathedral of St. Paul, Calcutta, is expected to be ready for consecration early in 1845. We gather these interesting particulars from the first Metropolitical Charge by Bishop Wilson, of Calcutta, and Metropolitan of India, delivered at Bombay, April, 2 1843."

MORE OF IT.—We copy the following from the New York Commercial—

A CARD.

We had determined to content ourselves with having conscientiously performed our duty on the subject of the late ordination at St. Stephen's, deeming it most prudent that such matters should, as far as possible, be kept within our own body, and not obtruded on the public. The attacks made on us in certain publications in 'The Churchman' of this date, (July 8th,) leave us no alternative between a silence which might be misinterpreted and a full disclosure from the beginning of all the matters connected with this most painful occurrence in the church. We will therefore lay before the public in a few days a full statement of this case.

New York, July 8th, 1843:

LOSS OF THE ROYAL MAIL STEAMER COLUMBIA.

From the Boston Post, July 10.

Yesterday evening we received slips from the offices of the 'Bangor Gazette,' and 'Bangor Whig & Courier,' containing the following information of the loss of the Steamer Columbia, Capt. Shannon, which left this port on the 1st inst. for Halifax and Liverpool:—

The schooner Three Sons, Capt Kendrick, arrived at Mt. Desert, with the important information that the Royal Mail Steamer Columbia, while going at the rate of ten knots, in the fog, struck upon Black Ledge, near Seal Island, Nova Scotia, last Sunday afternoon, with so much violence, that the vessel was driven out of water five feet. When the schooner left, she was going to pieces, and was supposed would be a total loss. She is reported to have had 180 persons on board, one of whom was missing. Among them was the Hon. Abbot Lawrence, who paid Capt. Kendrick $100 to bring the news to the nearest port in the United States.

The passengers were waiting upon Seal Island for a steamer for which they had sent to Halifax, by the brig Arcade, to take them off. Bagage, freight, &c. all saved. Seal Island is off Townsend Bay, on the South West Coast of Nova Scotia.

After the above was in type, we were favored with a copy of the following letter, received by Mr. Gordon, Postmaster, from Lieut. Parsons, R. N., the Admiralty Agent on board the Columbia:

SEAL ISLAND, July 4th, 2 P. M.

Dear Sir—The Columbia left Boston at 2 P. M., on the 1st inst., with the American mail for Halifax and England, with ninety passengers and a crew of eighty in number, making in all from 170 upwards. Water smooth, but weather very foggy. On Sunday, the 2d inst. at ¼ past 1 P. M. while steaming at the rate of ten knots per hour, grounded, and heeled to port with her bow high up, leaving her stern in deep water, having quarter less five fathoms depth aft. Observed splinters from the false keel and fore foot alongside. Fired alarm guns, which were answered by muskets and the sound of fog horns. At 4 P. M. a boat with the keeper of Seal Island Light came alongside.—He informed us that we lay on the Black Ledge Reef, and were within a mile and a quarter of the Island. The fog was dense, the wind moderate from S. S. E. As the tide fell, pointed rocks of a sugar loaf shape, uncovered to the depth of ten feet, and were about ten feet distant from the bows. The vessel lay on an inclined plane of smooth rocks abreast of her paddles, while her stern lay in deep water and as she strained heavily it was deemed necessary to land the lady passengers, about twenty in number, who throughout the whole catastrophe, had displayed the utmost fortitude and self-possession.

Nor did these characteristics desert them when placed under the protection of an entire stranger. The keeper of Seal Island Light is worthy of all praise for his kindness to the ladies, and indeed to us all.

On the night tide, having lightened the ship by discharging coal, anchors, chains, &c., tried the only engine that would work, and hove on our stern anchor; but although she rolled in her bed, she did not start an inch. At 5 A. M., judging from her distressed situation and the falling tides that our chance of saving her was small landed the Mails on Seal Island, and got it secured by the kindness of Mr Hitchens, the light house keeper. Notwithstanding the kind attention of our friends ashore, we found the ladies but poorly accommodated, and sadly in want of water. Still they were cheerful and resigned.

I have to observe that this beautiful sea boat ran ashore under the charge of her well tried pilot, Captain Stairs; and that the cool seamanlike conduct of Captain Shannon, his officers and crew not only excited my admiration but that of all the passengers. They labored long and unceasingly to save the vessel, but in vain. This excellent steamer, in my opinion, will only float in pieces from her present position.

We were enabled yesterday to send the intelligence to Halifax, and expect the steamer Margaret here to-morrow night.

This is written under confusing and unpleasant circumstances, which in some measure will account for this hurried and imperfect statement.

G. S. PARSONS, R. N.

To Geo. W. Gordon, Esq., Postmaster, Boston.

The St. Louis, Mo. Standard of the 30th ulto. states that Joe Smith, the Mormon Prophet, has been arrested at Ottowa, on the Illinois River, on a requisition made by the Governor of Missouri. Great excitement exists at Nauvoo, in consequence of this arrest, and parties of armed men have left it for Ottowa.

THE ASSISTANT OF NATURE.
STAINBURN'S
—VEGETABLE EXTRACT PILLS—

May truly be called the Assistant of Nature, because, in the first place, they are made of

PURE VEGETABLE EXTRACTS.

No mineral poisons, such as calomel, arsenic, &c., are used in their composition.

In the second place, they mix with our daily food, and while they open the bowels, give tone and strength to the digestive organs.

Thirdly, because they excite to action the stomach and bowels, the great PURIFIERS OF THE SYSTEM, and carry off every injurious excess of matter there deposited, whether of improper food or biliary secretions; and,

Fourthly, because they require no extraordinary care in diet or clothing, the body being less susceptible of cold when under their influence, than at any other time.

Price 25 cents per box. Office 338 Broadway, next door below the Tabernacle.

Said Pills are sold in Easton by the agent, E. M. DAWSON & BROTHER, and by agents published in another part of our paper.
