POETRY.

FOR THE EASTON GAZETTE.

The best of Wives.

A TALE.

A man had once a vicious wife;
(A most uncommon thing in life)
His days and nights were spent in strife
Unceasing.

Her tongue went glibly all day long,
Sweet contradiction still her song,
And all the poor man did was wrong,
And ill done.

A truce without doors or within,
From speeches long as Statesmen spin,
Or rest from her eternal din,
He found not.

He ev'ry soothing art display'd;
Try'd of what stuff her skin was made:
Failing in all, to Heav'n he pray'd
To take her.

Once walking by a river's side
In mournful terms "My dear," he cry'd
"No more let feuds our peace divide,
I'll end them:

"Weary of life, and quite resign'd
"To drown I have made up my mind,
"So tye my hands as fast behind
"As can be.

"Or nature may assert his reign,
"My arms assist, my will restrain,
"And swimming I once more regain
"My troubles."

With eager haste the dame complies,
While joy stands glist'ning in her eyes,
Already in her thoughts he dies
Before her.

"Yet, when I view the rolling tide,
"Nature revolts," he said, "beside
"I would not be a suicide,
"And die thus;

"It would be better far, I think,
"While close I stand upon the brink
"You push me in—nay, never shrink,
"But do it!"

To give the blow the more effect,
Some twenty yards she ran direct,
And did what she could least expect
She should do:

He slips aside, himself to save,
So souse she dashes in the wave,
And gave what ne'er before she gave—
Much pleasure.

"Dear husband, help! I sink!" she cry'd;
"Thou best of wives!" The man reply'd,
"I would—but you my hands have ty'd,
"God help ye!"

Dr. Dresbach, Kuhan & Pryor's

DYSPEPTIC CORDIAL

For Dyspepsia, Sick Head Ache, Rheumatism &c. &c.,

THE PROPRIETOR of this preparation deems it proper to premise that nothing is farther from his purpose than to offer it to the public as an universal medicine, or cure all—It is adapted to a few diseases only, for which it is confidently recommended as one of the most agreeable as well as most certain remedies which have at any time claimed public attention!

It imparts a healthy tone to the stomach, improves the appetite when impaired, and promotes digestion—it soothes and tranquilizes the nervous system, when excited or disturbed produces cheerfulness of spirits, with feelings of general comfort and satisfaction.

In the following diseases it is recommended as a prompt and in most cases an effectual remedy

Dyspepsia, Sick or Nervous Headache, cholic, cramp or spasm in the stomach, cholera morbus, hysteries and nervous diseases generally; chronic dysentery, diarrhœa or purging, sea sickness, cholera infantum, rheumatism, chronic liver complaints. Female irregularities of a chronic character, attended with cold feet, pain in the back, limbs &c. It is also particularly recommended to those who are suffering under debility, languor, depression of spirits, with irregular or defective appetite, restlessness at night, with unsound or disturbed sleep—In these cases this cordial will be found an admirable remedy! Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiary adapted to such cases. As a preventative of Ague and Fever it is useful, and those who reside in neighborhoods were this disease prevails, would do well to take it once or twice a day during the sickly seasons.

TESTIMONIALS:

Westminster, Carroll Co. Md. Aug. 12, 1842

Mr. C. Hearston; dear sir—Having made use of several bottles of Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Cordial of which you are proprietor, I feel a desire to inform you of its beneficial results. The first use made of it in my family was by myself, for pain in the breast—the next was for Cholic, being violently attacked; the next was a case of Cholic in a colored man in my imploy; the next was a case of a child a few weeks old which was much afflicted with cholic and consequently very restless; the next case was pain in the bowels and stomach of the colored man spoken of above, in which case he was unable to work. It is with pleasure I inform you that in all the above cases it effected a speedy cure—in some of the cases a single dose had the desired effect. After commencing the use of the Cordial with the child it soon became very fleshy and has continued to grow rapidly ever since—is now past one year old and whenever attacked by the cholic (which has not been for some time,) has invariably found relief from a dose of the Cordial From the use made of it in my family my wife is quite unwilling to be without a bottle of it in the house at any time.

Yours respectfully, JOHN M'COLLUM.

Leesburg, Va. July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Hearstons, dear sir—Having been called on by one of your agents, (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty, I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals! I have a young woman in my family who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia, by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial, she was fully cured! Given under my hand this 10th day of July 1841. PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md. Sept. 14, 1840.

Mr C. Herstons: Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines as well as medical assistance had been tried, but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

JOHN MONTGOMERY Jr.

From the Rev. T. H. W. Monroe,
Liberty town, Frederick Co Md'
May 9, 1840.

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present. I now state to you that I have used Drs Dresbach, Kuhan and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage. For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regard as Dyspepsia, in its insipent stages, to obtain relief from wich I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as I trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully,
THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr. C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your request to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz: defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor debility, &c. These symptoms were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her. PHILAMON TOWSON.

SICK HEADACHE.

Sir.—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbech, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, for dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbor's; she hastened home & took a dose of the cordial, sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose, and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand, this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md. Sept. 1840.

Mr. Herston—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic. She thought she would have died—I was alarmed. In the discription given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms, or cramp, in the stomach It justly sustained its character in my wife's case. The attack commenced about daylight. Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room, sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved. JACOB KESSLER.
