EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, August 19.

FOR PRESIDENT

HENRY CLAY,

OF KENTUCKY.

TO THE WHIGS OF TALBOT.

You are earnestly invited to meet at Easton on Tuesday the 5th day of September next, at 3 o'clock, P. M. The meeting called for last Tuesday was postponed until the above day—When the notice was heretofore given, it was not recollected, that the Camp-Meeting, at the Bay-Side, was to take place, nor were the engagements of the Farmers, occasioned by the heavy rains, adverted to—These causes having operated to prevent as full a meeting as is desirable, you are again respectfully urged to meet on the day first above designated.

MANEY WHIGS.

It's of no use to deny it—the meeting which we gave several notices of, to take place last Tuesday, in this town, for Whigs to meet and unite upon suitable Candidates for the coming election proved a signal failure.

The question arises whose is the fault? We clear our skirts of blame; we did all that we could do, to persuade the People to come together—Why is it that so much apathy exists among us? Why is it that we are always saying among ourselves "We can do this," and "We can do that," and never do any thing at all? Why is it that this County so thoroughly Whig should elect so thoroughly Loco Foco Candidates for every petty office? We answer, because we want a proper organization—We have in our ranks the same men, who but a few years ago were the master spirits of election times—were always ready to originate plans and carry them Successfully out: Why are these no longer in their proper places? Gentlemen we exhort you to more vigilence, and patriotic devotion to the cause of Whigism. Do you expect that voters will manifest any interest in the event of Elections, unless you place yourselves in the breach, unless you untie your hands, & begin the onslaught? you have hitherto attended primary meetings, you have had regular committees, and sub-committees appointed to sound the strength of your party, and to encourage every man to do his duty. Come forward, and arrange plans for carrying the county in the election near at hand, in which you have an interest of no ordinary stamp.

We have heard, prominent Whigs say, "It is useless to run candidates this fall we can't elect them, and let us reserve our energies for the Presidential Campaign"—This is the very ultimatum of Whig fatuity;—We are of a different opinion; let us brace ourselves up now; let us go into the arena with confidence, as our motto this fall—carry the Elections, as we surely can, and be prepared for the Presidential Election with the blows of conflict fresh upon us; WE SAY NOW IS THE TIME—we are not DEFEATED yet—we have only stumbled a little—we can erect ourselves in sufficient time to 'go ahead' in the right and the strong way—and we confidently say, if a Ticket is formed combining the strength and energy of the party—such a Ticket can be had—not all the force, fraud, stratagem or industry of the Loco's can withstand it before the People.

THE DIFFERENCE.

John Tyler passed from Washington to Boston, and was every where received with what are called 'honors,' and, with all the power and patronage of the Union in his hands, the expense had to be wrung from the People by taxation.—In this city the tax payers are called to foot a bill of $4,000 for 'civilities' tendered him by Morris, Purdy, & Co. ostensibly in behalf of a people of whom ninety nine hundredths hold him in utter contempt.

JOHN QUINCY ADAMS passed through our State a private citizen, with no patronage, no station—a powerless, tottering old man. Yet thousands on thousands crowd from every quarter to welcome him and press his hand: and when his friends in Buffalo resolved to have a public demonstration of the general feeling toward him, they did not turn him over to the charity of the Common Council, but called on a few citizens to contribute the expense.—They did so; and, when all was over, there remained a surplus of fifty dollars, which they handed over to the Orphans Asylum. Such is the difference between 'respect for the office' and respect for the man per se.—N. York Tribune.

EVENING EXHIBITION OF THE STUDENTS OF THE "EASTON ACADEMY."

SIR—I attended, with others, the Exhibition at this Academy on Thursday evening; It was very creditable for the Teachers; creditable for the Boys and creditable for the Audience—the latter very numerous and very fair.

Young NEAL, undoubtedly acquitted himself with great credit of the many and various characters assigned him—His prompt memory should be cultivated and with assiduity—he may make a man of himself. He was applauded, more than all the rest, and deservedly so.

Young HUGHLETT deserves much praise for the personation of the ambitious Young Lawyer—'Cash' and 'Case.' he seems to have much affection for—but that gown, where did he get it?

Young RIDGEWAY—Socrates' largest auditory never made him look more solemn and serious, than this young gentleman did, addressing the fair ladies of Easton, in the character of that renowned Philsopher. His recitation, however, was the most chaste and faultless of the evening.

Young GOLDSBOROUGH, (of John C.) appeared perfectly at home—his deportment was easy—enunciation rapid and exact.—

But of all the youngsters, commend me to Master CLARK—He was entirely free from fear or trepidation—his natural oddish voice, his perfectly unmoved and comical long face and general correctness, won great favour with the audience.

Master EMORY, (a very small lad) excited universal sympathy for the "Poor Orphan Boy," whose desolateness he depicted with admirable emphasis.

Young CATRUP, went through his parts with correctness and much facility;—That fellow has a very dry face, and he made the ladies laugh consumedly when he ran over the difficulues of his Yankee courtship.

It perhaps, may appear invidious not to mention the names of some others who acquitted themselves well; but I am afraid of intruding upon your limits.—The Professors who had the charge and tutoring of these young "Rossinses" cannot be too much commended, for the attention and care they have evidently bestowed upon them all. X.

Friday, Aug. 18, 1843.

A STRONG HINT.—The congregation of a church, in Maine, a few years ago, in town meeting, proposed to increase the salary of their old and faithful minister to an amount corresponding with the increased expense of living and the increased wealth of the society. The motion was in a fair way of passing, when, to the surprise of every one, the old gentleman arose and begged his friends not to vote a larger sum for him. On being pressed for the reason, he declared that he was opposed to voting any more money, because it was so difficult to get what formerly had been voted! The people were set into a roar of laughter, the increase was made, and, what was better, promptly paid.

In the recent affray between Mr. Cassius M. Clay and Mr. Samuel Brown, at Russell's Cave, Ky. Brown lost an eye, an ear and his nose, besides having a wound in his shoulder. Had such a conflict occurred between two Indians, we should have referred to it, as a proof of the barbarism and butchery natural to the ferocity of savages; but now that it has occurred between so called civilized men in a civilized Commonwealth—we find some of the papers of that State merely heading their paragraphs of the conflict, with the words, "Serious Affray!"—Penn Enq.

ELECTION RETURNS.

TENNESSEE.—The mail of last night brought no later papers from Tennessee than we had before. A slip from the Nashville Banner of the 8th inst. says:—

All our information continues to be favorable to the whig cause. It is now certain that Governor Jones is re elected by an increased Majority. This of itself is a great and important victory.

The returns from Middle Tennessee are all in; and considerable portions from the two other divisions of the State.—They leave no reason to doubt that the Whigs will have a majority in each branch of the Legislature; & we may add our confident belief that they will have also a majority of the members of Congress.

INDIANA.—The Madison, Ia. Banner publishes the returns for that town and county, and remarks:—

They will probably astonish the Locofocos no less than the Whigs. The majority of the Whig ticket is less than was anticipated by any intelligent man of either party—and the defeat of Judge Dunn for the Senate, and Mr. Woodward for the House is a result entirely unlooked for by us.

The majority of Mr. Henley, the Locofoco candidate for Congress, will probably not be less than 800 in the District, and from the falling off in Bigger and Bradley's majorities in all the counties heard from, compared with former elections, we shall not be surprised to learn that the Locofoco candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, are elected, and that modern democracy has swept the State as it did in '39.

KENTUCKY.—The returns from this State are very unsatisfactory. The Cincinnati Chronicle says—

From Kentucky, we learn that Stone, Locofoco, of the 5th District, Thomasson Whig, of the 7th, Davis, Whig, of the 8th, French, Lofoco, of the 9th, and Tibbatts, Locofoco, of the 10th, are probably returned to Congress, being a Locofoco gain of two members.

It is also stated that in the third District the contest is very close between Grider, (W.) and Irwin (irregular W.)

ILLINOIS.—We have nothing definite from this State. The rumors which had reached Cincinnati state that the Whig defeat was complete.

ALABAMA.—We have no returns from this State.

NORTH CAROLINA.—No further information has reached us in regard to the doubtful districts.

The official majority of Rayner (W.) in the 9th district is 840.

THE RAINS.—While the heavy and continued rains have been committing such lamentable devastations in several sections of our country, they have left our county comparatively unharmed.

Almost the only loss our citizens have or will experience is in the oats crop. Thousands of bushels of this grain is rotting in the fields. One of our townsmen, Col. Hollingsworth) has SIXTY acres out, and almost every farmer in this vicinity has more or less in the fields, some in shock, and some in swathe. The excessive and soaking rains have also injured much that is stacked.—Cecil Whig.

CALVERT COUNTY.—The Whigs of this county have nominated James S. Morsell, Samuel Turner, and J. J. Dalrymple, Esqs. for the House of Delegates.

ACQUITTAL OF R. P. DOWDEN.—This interesting trial, which lasted six days, was brought to a close last Saturday afternoon, by the Jury, after a few minutes absence from the Court, returning about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, a verdict of Not Guilty. On the announcement of this verdict there was an evident and audible expression of gratification by clapping of hands on the part of the audience, which however, the Court endeavored to suppress. After returning the verdict of Not Guilty, the jury retired into the Marshal's office, and there all put their names to a paper of which the following is a true copy:

'We, the jurors who tried Mr. Dowden do acquit him fairly, fully & honorably, & pray that the President may re instate him in office.'

THE DISTRICT ATORNEY, on the rendition of the verdict of acquital on the charge preferred against the prisoner for stealing the treasury notes, announced his intention to abandon the other two indictments for forgery. The prisoner appeared to be much overpowered by his feelings when the verdict was announced.

In the course of the day Z. C. LEE Esq. and the Secretary of the Treasury gave evidence to the Jury as to the manner in which they had treated Mrs. Dorsey, as to what she had said to them and what they had said to her, denying the truth of many of her statements and repudiating with indignation the charge of conspiracy.

Per Se.—The Madisonian of Friday thus defines the position of Mr. Tyler and his friends:

In conclusion, we say once for all, that the Administration will throw itself into the scale of no one of the aspirants. To do so would be an act of political suicide. Nor shall the tauntings of the Globe or any other rabid press, whether speaking under others or not, lead us to make war upon any one of the candidates. 'A fair field and an open sky to each;' and according to the old Scotch proverb, De'il take the hindmost.'

What we say we design as well for our friends as our foes. The President will, we are sure, go into no coalition—The offices of the government, when vacancies occur, will be conferred upon those only who are best qualified to aid him in administering the Government and who will honestly and sincerely cooperate with him in so doing. He belongs to no clique, no personal faction, but to the country; and his efforts are directed singly to the advancement of its glory and prosperity.

Who are the Democrats!—asks the Raleigh (N. C.) Register. The editor might as well seek for an answer to the anxious inquiry that was once raised, for the 'man who struck Billy Patterson.'—The Register tries to solve the question by asking more; but like the man who fell into the Slough of Despond, the harder he tries to get out of the mud, the deeper he sinks into the mire:—Are the followers of Buchanan & Co., who go for a Protective Tariff, Democrats? Or the Calhounites who go for Free Trade and direct taxation? Are the Democrats of Kentucky, who go with Col Johnson for incidental protection, the Regulars? Or the Democrats of the south who denounce the Tariff as unconstitutional? Or are the supporters of Van Buren, who go with him both ways, the real Simon Purrs? All these factions differing so widely on an important question, each call themselves Democrats. They can't certainly, all be the real grit.

[Mass. Spy

KEEP THE SYSTEM FREE.

This cannot be too often impressed upon mankind. When the body feels heavy and the mind dull, the course can be at once traced to physical reasons.—the functions of the body upon whose regularity and healthiness the principle of life rests, are at such times disordered, and require prompt attention.—Life at best is formed of as delicate materials as the minutest watch, and is as easily injured. They both need immediate repair when out of order, to be of service to the possessor.

The Stomach and Bowels if kept free from impurities, render the whole system perfect and healthy. The best medical preparation of modern times to effect this, is Stainburn's Vegetable Extract Pills, formed entirely of pure extract from the best vegetable remedies in the world. No other pills are as pure, as easy of operation, or as systematic in cleansing the whole body. They are the ne plus ultra of modern medical discoveries.

Price 25 cents per box. Office 338 Broadway, N. Y. next door below the Tabernacle.

Said Pills are sold in Easton by the agent, E. M. DAWSON & BROTHER, and by agents published in another part of our paper.
