EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, August 26.

FOR PRESIDENT

HENRY CLAY,

OF KENTUCKY.

TO THE WHIGS OF TALBOT.

You are earnestly invited to meet at Easton on Tuesday the 5th day of September next, at 3 o'clock, P. M. The meeting called for last Tuesday was postponed until the above day—When the notice was heretofore given, it was not recollected, that the Camp-Meeting, at the Bay-Side, was to take place, nor were the engagements of the Farmers, occasioned by the heavy rains, adverted to—These causes having operated to prevent as full a meeting as is desirable, you are again respectfully urged to meet on the day first above designated.

MANY WHIGS.

The Whigs of Caroline are requested to meet in their respective Election districts on Saturday the 2d of September next for the purpose of selecting eleven committee-men from each district to meet in Denton on the Tuesday following, to nominate candidates for the House of Delegates and for the Levy Court.

The Loco Foco Convention of Baltimore county, assembled at Towsontown on Saturday, and nominated James Carroll, Jr; R. S. Welsh, Philip Poultney, Joseph Walker and Carville S. Stansbury, Esqrs. as candidates for seats in the next House of Delegates.

The recent signal triumph of the Whig cause in Tennessee, where 'Clay and his policy' was the watchword of Gov. Jones, exhibits to every reflecting Whig, one of the most pleasing pictures that can be well imagined;—It shews that if a proper spirit of organization animates the whigs that if the best men of our party, will come to the rescue, that, if policy is opposed to policy, and industry to industry, the like success may be obtained by the Whigs of Talbot county, that attended the efforts of Gov. Jones. That gentlemen merits the gratitude of every Whig in the Union for his noble and untiring devotion to the good cause.

It is reported of him that 'at the sacrifice of health and comfort, at the peril of life itself, the Governor set out in the canvass in March last (labouring at the same time under physical debility) to meet the appointments of his competitor, and for more than four months traversed through the State, riding from twenty to forty miles a day, and addressing the people at more than NINETY different places.' The times have been, when in this county men were to be found, electioneering, of the Gov. Jones' stamp—and we are much mistaken if there are not such among us, yet ready to accept of nomination and devote their whole energies to the campaign.

It is the duty of our strongest men to come out—it is their duty too, to endeavour at all honorable means to be elected. Talbot has been supine long enough. She has been napping it now, since 1840, and it is high time the lethargy was shaken off—arouse yourselves, Whigs, and awake to duty!!

On the fifth of September ensuing, let every Whig come to Easton, and meet together, then and there, to give aid and sanction to the proceedings of that day, by their cheering voices and smiling faces—The Broad Banner of Clay is up! Its rustling folds the fleeting breeze waves on to us!! It spreads over the fertile fields of gallant Tennessee and four thousand acclaiming voices shout in our ears, "Victory! Victory"!!

The heavy rain on Sunday evening last, we understand, done great damage in Caroline County, carrying away or injuring every mill from Gen. Potter's to the upper part of the county—all the bridges, it is said, are swept off in the Middle and Upper district—Mr. Burchenal in endeavoring to save his mill, nearly lost his life, he was much hurt but is recovering—In Delaware we fear they have suffered even more than our friends in Caroline.

THE CABINET.—The editor of the Boston Courier, who recently paid a visit to Washington, says in a letter:—'The Secretary of State complains of indisposition, and is about leaving his office on a recruiting excursion. The Secretary of the Treasury has also been considerably indisposed, and wishes to retire for a few weeks to some place where he may obtain refreshing repose. The Secretary of War is in perfect health, and tells as many anecdotes and laughs as heartily as he did when in Boston. The Secretary of the Navy has recovered his usual health, and is ready to perform whatever his hand may find to do in the cabinet. The Postmaster General has recovered from his wound—or rather his wound is so far healed as to give him no trouble, but he is still weak from the loss of blood.'

TENNESSEE ELECTION.

From the Nashville Whig extra, August 10.

RETURNS COMPLETE.

'The returns from the late election in this State are now complete, in an unofficial form, with the exception of the vote for Governor in the county of Morgan which will not affect the aggregate majority more than 30 or 40 votes.

'The grand result is a A WHIG GOVERNOR, by a majority of 4204, and a WHIG LEGISLATURE, (both Senate and House,) with a majority of 8 on joint ballot.

KENTUCKY.—The Frankfort Commonwealth of the 15th instant, speaking of the Whig losses in Kentucky says:

'This result is apparently a great gain to the Locos; but it is actually a gain to them of but one member. They had in the last Congress two members; now they have five. Two of these five Locos, however, (Caldwell, in Owsley's district, and Stone, in Pope's) have slipped in under the legs of our men, two Whigs in each district persisting in running.—There is no doubt that these two districts contain an immense majority of Whigs. In another district Tibbats has succeeded over Wall where we have undeniably a large majority. Tibbats managed his canvass most adroitly. He pledged himself to vote for Clay, if the election came to the House of Representatives; and he is understood to be in favor of a protective tariff and some sort of National Bank; though we are not accurately advised on these points.'

We trust (adds the Louisville Journal) that our Whig friends abroad will not be disheartened too soon by our apparent losses. We have in reality lost nothing. The Commonwealth says:

"The greatest regret we have in relation to the Congressional canvass in Kentucky is that our friends abroad may not know how to account for the seemingly untoward result. We can tell them in all sincerity that our disaster has grown out of too great strength. The facts prove it.—Next year we will prove it. The Whig party of Kentucky is unconquerable, and they will prove it decisively and signally next year. The result of the election this year will arouse them, and they will put forth their mighty power next year as they did in 1840. Mark the prediction. The Whigs are already mourning over the divisions and apathy which they allowed to damage them this year, and they have already resolved to repair the injury."

It is said that Com. Jones, who took possession of Monterey, in California, has been removed from the line of promotion, with an annuity of $800.— Sun.

The above is an entire mistake. The affair of Monterey has been settled to the entire satisfaction of the Mexican Government, without even the necessity of a resort to a court martial. All the punishment inflicted on Com. J. was to withdraw him from his command. The officer who has been put on furlough with $500 per annum, is Lieut Arthur Lewis, who was lately in command of the brig Porpoise on the Coast of Africa.

Balt. Pat.

The Washington Capitol of Friday says It is rumored that the Hon. Amos Kendall is to be Postmaster General, and that the Hon. C. A. Wickliffe is to go out as Minister to France.

EXERCISES IN ARITHMETIC.—We have received from the author, David Ring, Esq., a work entitled 'Three thousand Lessons in Arithmetic,' printed very neatly by Mr. James Young of this city, and published for the use of schools.—The correctness of Mr. Ring's views are apparent, and he asserts an acknowledged fact in stating that 'the Arithmetics in use—even those which are accounted the best—do not contain a sufficient number of exercises—of such especially as have relation to the common business of life.' The exercises in review are, we think, well calculated to supply the place of the evil complained of, and must meet approbation from all competent teachers. We doubt not that this work will be generally introduced into schools. It is printed both in book form and on cards, accompanied by a key to teachers. We feel pleasure in commending Mr. Ring's arithmetical exercises to general notice, believing their intrinsic merits will be a sufficient guarantee to success.

Balt. Patriot.

THE TARIFF OF 1842.—No measure of any age or country more thoroughly or more completely realized the theory and expectations of its advocates, than has the Tariff of 1842. The benefits expected were, 1st. The revival of the depressed Manufactures of the country. 2dly The turning of the balance of Trade in our favor. 3dly. Importation of specie.—4th. The reduction of foreign goods, and the use of our own. All these results have already occurred, and not only occurred, but are the theme of loud praise by those who have been most violently opposed to the measure itself! Who has more exulted in the increase of specie, produced by this measure, than those who denounced the measure itself? Can any man in America give a reason why specie should be increased by importation from abroad, except by the restriction on importations of goods, which formerly were exchanged for our produce? That the balance of trade has been turned in our favor by the Tariff, and that only, is a fact, no longer disputed by the free trade theorists of the Atlantic Cities. The fact recently stated by us, as exhibited before the British Parliament, is so conclusive on this point, that no one can any longer doubt the decisive influence of the American Tariff, in restoring a favorable balance, and in giving a free scope and profitable employment to American mechanical genius, throughout the world. Look at two of these facts, in dollars and cents.

British Exports to the United States, in 1836.	$60,656,524
Do. do. in 1842,	17,220,578
Reduction	$43,435,946

The amount of British goods imported into this country in 1842, then is less by forty odd millions of dollars, than it was in the crisis year of 1836. The reduction in our total foreign importations, as compared with that year, is nearly double this great sum!

No principle of Political Economy is more incontrovertible than that our debt to foreign nations could be paid in no other way. We had not the gold and silver to spare: And unless we had restricted the importation of foreign goods and fostered our Domestic Industry, we never could have paid. We never could have resuscitated credit in the least degree. Our Government and States would have been still depressed. Our Manufactures in ruin. Money at high interest: and the same career of disaster, which marked the era of 1837 to 1841, have continued to prevail; diminishing our own self-confidence and the respect of foreign nations.

We have now restored a foundation for a National Currency. Is there any good reason why we should not have one? Is there any reasonable man, who expects to do away with paper money? Is there any reasonable man who thinks that the Currencies of twenty six States and six hundred Corporations is better than that of the nation? The signs of the times indicate returning political sanity. Men who recover from the loss of reason, usually do it very suddenly. It is not impossible the American People may recover from the delusions of passions, and, with their returned faculties, investigate and act upon political problems with the same wisdom and decision which characterised the days of Washington and Madison.—Cincinnati Chronicle.

HURRAH FOR VAN BUREN!—Out of sixty seven land receivers, under Van Buren, sixty four were defaulters! three only were found honest!

More than this! It is a fact that in 1838 the Loco Foco Land Officers, in & out of office, had the enormous sum of one million nine hundred and fifty thousand dollars, that the defaulting Loco Custom House officers had in their hands the round sum of one million four hundred & twenty seven thousand four hundred and ten dollars, making in all three millions three hundred and seventy seven thousand four hundred and ten dollars!!!!

These are the gentlemen who talk of two dollars a day and roast beef, & who ask for power again!—Ind. State Jour.

BALLOONING. Next year Mr. Wise is to cross the Atlantic in a balloon—or at least has promised to make the attempt; but we should not like to be his companion in the voyage. Even should he succeed, we doubt whether it will lead to any useful result.

We have been surprised that some of our æronauts have not devoted a portion of their time whilst in the atmosphere to philosophical experiments. Does the needle preserve its polarity at an an altitude of four or five miles? will the flint and steel produce light at the same height? and can the sun be viewed with the naked eye without pain? These and other matters we should like to have ascertained by Mr. Wise, previous to his trip to Europe.

YANKEE DOODLE AGAINST JOHN BULL.

An Englishman enlarging pretty considerably strong, upon the superior qualities of the vegatables that grew in "the Sea girt Isle" wound up by declaring "that his father had raised a Cabbage large enough to cover half an acre of ground.

"Well" said a Yankee present "I give in, that you can beat us in that line all hollow: but there was a work of art, built on Boston Common, that I reckon gits ahead of any thing I ever heard tell on got up by you Britishers."

"Ah! whats that? I dont recollect hearing of it."

"Why it was a Copper kettle—it was so big, the men at work on one side couldn't hear the noise of the hammers on tother side!"

"Humph!" grunted the Englishman with a sneer, "and pray what was it for? "To bile your Cabbage in, friend"!!

SANG FROID.

A Frenchman, after a short absence meet his friend at the Steamboat, and saluted him.—'Ah! Bon jour, Antoine'? 'ma foi!! How you do, Jean Babtiste? your wife make de one dead, since you left the town'?

"Is, he by gar?"

One of those Bipids, that study dress, and strive to say things before Ladies, no sensible man could be persuaded to utter, one of those, that 'neither weave, nor do they spin' was once boasting to a Lady of the extensiveness of his amours, his general favouritism with her sex &c. &c. 'In short Madam' says he 'I am a perfect Sampson among the Ladies'! 'Yes' she retorted' 'and with the same weapon.'

REAL ESTATE

IN DORCHESTER AND TALBOT COUNTIES.

BY virtue of a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, I will offer at public sale to the highest bidder, at the Court House door in the town of Easton, on next, between the hours of 10 and 4, the following highly valuable property, to wit—The Plantation on which the late Thomas Summers resided at the time of his death, and upon which George Dawson now resides. This property is situated in Bambury Neck, Talbot county, and on the north side of Choptank River, and binding with the said River, and contains about a large part of which is most excellent arable land, with large resources for further improvements. The wood and timber thereon, of which there is a great abundance, will afford fair profit for exportation, owing to its very convenient proximity to navigable waters. This farm with little care and attention would be rendered very profitable.

—ALSO—

The Farm in Talbot county, commonly known as the 'Deep Branch Farm,' purchased from the Easton Bank, containing about 255 acres of arable land, and about 146 1-4 acres of wood & timber land, & now in the occupancy of Mr. Thomas Snow. It is situated about seven miles from Easton.

THERE IS A GREAT DEAL OF VALUABLE

in this tract within about a mile of navigable water. The buildings and improvements are very respectable. The arable land very fair, and susceptible of high improvement.

—ALSO—

The Farm whereon James M. Newman now resides, purchased by Mr. Summers from P. F. Thomas Esq. Trustee for the sale of the Real Estate of Henry Turner.—This property is situated on Miles Creek, and some 6 or 8 miles from Easton. The location is an eligible one—the arable land is productive and capable of high improvement. The dwelling house on this place was recently destroyed by fire, but the remaining out buildings are good and comfortable.

—ALSO—

The farm in Bambury Neck, Talbot county, commonly known as the "Cliffs," containing about and now occupied by Mr. William Henry—The arable land is productive and of easy cultivation. Wood and timber are abundant, upon the tract and very convenient to the navigable waters of the Choptank, upon which the farm is immediately situated. The buildings upon this place are tolerably good.

300 ACRES,

I will also sell on MONDAY the 4th of SEPTEMBER next, at the Court House door in the town of Cambridge, between the hours of 10 and 12 M. the following Real Estate, which belonged to Mr. Summers, to wit.—A parcel of land purchased from J. C. Wright, Esq., containing about two miles from Cambridge, and very convenient to the county road, and enclosed with a good ditch entirely around the same.

There are three small tenements on this place, affording a very fair rent.

Also, a parcel of land from John T. Wilson Esq., containing 10 acres, in the neighborhood of the last mentioned tract.

Also, a parcel of land, from Solomon Robinson, Esq containing 12½ acres, about 8 or 4 miles from town called, 'Stewart's Outrage,' covered entirely with heavy timber & wood, and will afford an excellent investment to any person in town in want of a wood lot.

All of the above property is sold clear of Mrs. Summers,' widow of Thomas Summers, right of dower. Persons desirous of buying are invited to examine the property. The terms of sale, prescribed by the decree are one fourth cash on the day of sale, and the residue on a credit of 6, 12 & 18 months, with interest from the day of sale, to be secured by bond, with security to be approved by the trustee.

The creditors of the said Thomas Summers, deceased, are hereby notified to exhibit their claims with the vouchers thereof to the Chancery office, within four months from the last day of sale.
