April Term 1865

Certificate called Batchellors Study lying in Baltimore County supposed to contain Seventy three acres of land as mentioned in the Schedule of the said Mark Alexander heretofore filed in this Honorable Court and did then and there sell the same unto John Diffenderffer for the sum of Ninety five dollars he being then and there the highest bidder and purchaser of the same and your Trustee further reports that at the time and place he did set up and expose at public sale all the right title and interest of the said Mark Alexander in and to one Land Office Certificate called Alexanders Ship yard supposed to contain three acres of land as mentioned in the Schedule of the said Mark Alexander as aforesaid unto Frances H Bolgiano for the sum of ten dollars he being then and there the highest bidder for the same and all the right title and interest of the said Mark Alexander in and to a tract of land called Stewarts Sylvania supposed to contain 25 acres of land as mentioned in the Schedule of the said Mark Alexander as aforesaid unto Isaac Causlen for the sum of forty dollars he being then and there the highest bidder for the same also all the right title and interest of the said Mark Alexander of and to two lots of a tract of land being in Bedford County in the State of Pennsylvania the whole tract supposed to contain twelve hundred acres as mentioned in the Schedule of the said Mark Anderson unto Isaac Causlen for the sum of thirty five he being then and there the highest bidder for the same your Trustee further reports that at the time of publishing the sale aforesaid, there was inserted in the telegraph of Baltimore a Notice to all persons having claims on the above Lands by Mortgage Trust or otherwise to produce them on or before the day of sale which said Notice was continued as aforesaid until the day of the sale as will appear by the advertisement aforesaid hereunto annexed, Your Trustee has produced the Notes and Cash taken on the sale aforesaid The amount of Cash Ten dollars and the residue in Notes at four Months from the day of sale,

Samuel Moale Trust 17 1800

And on the 19th day of February 1800 the Chancellor passed the following order,

In Chancery Dec. 1800

Ordered that the sale made by Samuel Moale Trustee for the benefit of the Creditors of Mark Alexander an Insolvent of the property of the said Mark Alexander shall be absolutely ratified and confirmed 7½ per cent allowed for Commission Signed A C Hanson Chan.

April Term 1865

Test Samuel McNavary Reg cur cur

And on the 19th day of February 1818 came the Trustee and filed in Court an additional report of his proceedings in the premises in the Words following

To The Honorable William Kilty Chancellor of Maryland The additional report of Samuel Moale Trustee for the benefit of the Creditors of Mark Alexander an Insolvent debtor States that by Virtue of a resolution of the Legislature of the State of Maryland passed at December Session 1817 the said Trustee has received from the Treasurer of the Western Shore the sum of four hundred and sixteen dollars and Eighty two Cents which he hath deposited in Court to the Credit of the Estate of the said Mark Alexander which is submitted to this Honorable Court,

Saml Moale Trust Feby 19th

On the 19th day of February 1818 personately appeared Saml Moale before the subscriber a justice of the peace for Baltimore County and made Oath to the truth of the within report,

Before John F Harris.

Whereupon the Chancellor passed the following order.

The sum of $416. 82 State to have been received on account of Mark Alexander may be paid into Court by depositing the same in the Farmers Bank to the Credit of the Estate of the said Mark Alexander subject to the order of this Court February 19. 1818.

Wm Kilty Chr

And on the 30th day of February 1818 came the Auditor of the Court of Chancery and made a report of his proceedings in the premises in the Words and figures following to Wit.

Estate of Mark Alexander an Insolvent Debtor	In Chancery. 30th February 1818.

The Auditor reports to the Honorable The Chancellor that he has examined all the papers relating to this Case which Case is represented to him) as was to be found and it appearing by a report of the present Trustee filed on the 30th June 1801 that the usual Notice has been given to Creditors to produce their claims to this Court and more appearing among the proceedings that