EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, Oct. 14.

FOR PRESIDENT

HENRY CLAY,

OF KENTUCKY.

MARYLAND WHIG TO THE CORE.

We give below the entire returns from all the counties in the State, by which it will be seen, that we have completely "turned the tables" on our friends, the Loco Focos—as we have five majority in the senate, upon joint ballot the Whigs have seventeen.

"It never rains but it pours"—at least so says an old adage—upon the heels of the Victory achieved in our State, come cheering news from Georgia and Pennsylvania. The next accounts, we get, will come from Ohio and New Jersey.—and the effect of the glorious Victories in Tennessee and Maryland will be seen when they reach us. The ball is in motion and upon every turn a State sticks to its swelling sides—Keep it going!

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTIONS.

The vote for Mayor of Philadelphia stands Scott, Whig 6585; Perkins, Dem. 3976—Whig majority 2609.

The vote for Sheriff, the City and County voting together, stands, McMichael, Whig 11 664; Hutchinson, Dem 13 079—Whig majority 1587. The Whig City and County officers are all elected So far as Congress is concerned—far as heard—there are elected 6 Whigs, 4 dem. and one independent dem. who is said to have pledged himself in favour of the Tariff, and a distribution of the public lands.

We extract the above from the Baltimore Sun of yesterday.

THE WHIG TRIUMPH IN GEORGIA.

The Southern mail last night brought news from the election in Georgia, which removed all doubt of the result. The Whigs carry every thing—Governor, members of Congress, and both branches of the Legislature! It is the most decisive triumph the Whigs ever gained—it is the most thorough rout the Loco Focos ever suffered in Georgia We look over the returns with amazement—the victory of 1840 was nothing to what we are achieving now. But the men who achieved so noble a victory have a right to make their own report of it. We therefore copy the following:—Balt Pat.

From the Augusta (Geo) Chron of Saturday

VICTORY! VICTORY!!

All hail Georgia! Locofocoism routed, horse, foot and dragoons! A Whig Governor, two Members of Congress and both branches of the Legislature Whig, by triumphant Majorities.

As we anticipated a few days since, we have now the unalloyed pleasure of announcing a most glorious triumph of the Whigs of Georgia. They have routed Locofocoism throughout the length and breadth of the State. From the sea board to the mountains, the returns proclaim the triumph of the Whig cause—the election of a Whig Governor, two Whig members of Congress, and majorities in both branches of the Legislature—the first Legislature under the amended Constitution, which prescribes biennial sessions. It is, therefore a most important victory, and one involving, in an eminent degree, the highest interests of the State, both in its local and national relations.

Gratifying as is this triumph to us when we regard it for its influence upon our local affairs, it dwindles into comparative insignificance when associated with our national politics. It is not the mere triumph of a political party in a State based upon local questions, but it is the triumph of principles—of Whig principles—of the principles of the great Whig party of the Union—it is the triumph of a national Bank, and the advocates of a sound currency—a Tariff for revenue over direct taxation and the Locofoco humbug of 'free trade,'—a distribution of the public lands—and above all, it is a triumph which proclaims to the world, trumpet tongued, in terms which admit of no ambiguity, that Georgia has unfurled her banner to the breeze with the name of HENRY CLAY, the farmer of Ashland—the unrivalled Statesman and Orator, inscribed upon its folds. It is thus that we must contemplate this great triumph of the Whigs of Georgia, to appreciate its importance in all its bearings upon the great questions of the day.

We glory in it also, because it has afforded the whigs of Georgia an opportunity to wipe off the foul insinuation which had been cast upon the fair fame of their State, that she would attach herself to the car of Calhoun; and most nobly have they vindicated her reputation.

Henceforth, therefore, Van Burenism, Calhounism and Locofocoism, under whatever leader, in Georgia is prostrate, and we now enter Georgia in the great contest of 1844, for the National Whig Banner.

GLORIFICATION!—When we noticed the great Whig Victory in Tennessee, we were twitted with Glorification!

Well—here's Maryland to glorify on! Georgia to glorify on!! and Pennsylvania to glorify on!!! and we shall soon have the same tune to sing to Ohio and New Jersey. So all hail!! to such Glorification we say—twit as much as you please—give Clay the Great States, and we'll glorify as long as we have a pen to scratch or a type to set up!! Chew that!!!

The Whigs of Baltimore have nominated for Mayor J O. Law and the Locos Genl. Marriott. The election takes place on Monday next.

CHANGE OF WEATHER.

Nothing has a greater effect upon the system than the sudden changes in our variable climate. While nature gradually prepares the habits of animals for the changes of seasons, mankind assume their own way, and actually combat nature.—The body should be prepared to meet the change by medical effect, so as to throughly cleanse the frame and render us more able to endure the alteration, by so doing, we are less liable to take cold and other complaints. When the bowels are healthy, all other parts of the system are so likewise; how necessary is it then they should remain so. The mildest and most effectual PURGATIVE now to be found is STAINBURN'S VEGETABLE EXTRACT PILLS for cleansing the stomach and purifying the blood. Formed by Extraction from the best vegetable medicines that the earth produces, it is the most decided discovery and improvement upon physical remedies of modern days. Time, care, and expense, aided by experience, have not been spared in its perfection, and it will speedily assume an ascendancy commensurate with its superior merits.—

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT.

THE annual course of lectures in the Medical Department of the University of Maryland will commence on the last Monday of October next, and be continued till the first day of March following.

The course of instruction will consist, as usual, of lectures on the Theory and Practice of Medicine, on Obstetrics and Medical Jurisprudence, on Chemistry and Pharmacy, on Surgery, on Materia Medica and Therapeutics, and on Special and General Anatomy.

The well know advantages of the University of Maryland, its spacious halls, its unrivalled apparatus, the abundant and cheap materials for the pursuit of practical Anatomy afforded by the city of Baltimore, and the ample resources of the valuable Museum belonging to the College, leave nothing to be desired by those who attach themselves to it as students of the various departments of medical science.

The lessons of the Professors of Surgery, of the Practice of Physic, and of Therapeutics will be illustrated by daily clinical instruction in the wards of the Baltimore Infirmary.—This Institution, which is connected with the College and in its immediate vicinity, presents at all times a number and variety of cases amply sufficient to afford to Students an acquaintance with the practical application of the principles of Medicine and Surgery. Constant opportunities occur during the session of witnessing in it important surgical operations

The Professors of the several branches, thus provided with all the necessary and desirable means of aiding students of medicine in the acquisition of a thorough professional education will make every exertion to promote the interest of their pupils, and to prepare them properly for the arduous and momentous duties of the medical profession
