POETRY.

A GEM POEM.

BY MRS. WELBY.

From the Louisville Journal.

The following lines are worthy of the genius of their authoress, whose poetry has been read with delight wherever the English language is written and spoken—

PULPIT ELOQUENCE.

The day was declining—the breeze in its glee
Had left the fair blossoms to sing on the sea,
As the sun in its gorgeousness, radiant, & still,
Dropped down like a gem from the brow of the hill;
One tremulous star in the glory of June
Came out with a smile and sat down by the moon,
As she graced her blue throne with the pride of a queen—
The smile of her loveliness gladdened the scene.

The scene was enchanting! in distance away
Rolled the foam-crested waves of the Chesapeake bay,
While bathed in the moonlight the village was seen
With the church in the distance that stood on the green,
The soft-sleeping meadow lay brightly unrolled,
With their mantles of verdure and blossoms of gold,
And the earth in her beauty, forgetting to grieve,
Lay asleep in her bloom on the bosom of eve.

A light hearted child I had wandered away
From the spot where my footsteps had gamboll'd all day;
And free as a bird's was the song of my soul
As I heard the wild waters exultingly roll;
While lightening my heart as I sported along,
With bursts of low laughter, and snatches of song,
I struck in the pathway half-worn o'er to sod
By the feet that went up to the worship of God.

As I traced its green windings, a murmur of prayer
With the hymn of the worshippers rose on the air,
And drawn by the links of its sweetness along
I stood unobserved in the midst of the throng.
For a while my young spirit still wandered about
With the birds, and the winds, that were singing without;
That birds, waves and zephyrs, were quickly forgot
In one angel-like being that brightened the spot.

In stature majestic, apart from the throng
He stood in his beauty, the theme of my song;
His cheeks pale with fervor—the blue orbs above
Lit up with the splendors of youth, and of love;
Yet the heart-glowing rapture that beamed from those eyes,
Seemed saddened by sorrow, and chastened by sighs,
As if the young heart in its bloom had grown cold
With its loves unrequited, it sorrows untold.

Such language as his I may never recall,
But his theme was salvation—salvation to all,
And the souls of a thousand in ecstacy hung
On the manna-like sweetness that dropped from his tongue:
Not alone on the ear his wild eloquence stole;
Enforced by each gesture, it sunk to the soul,
Till it seemed that an angel had brightened the sod,
And brought to each bosom a message from God.

He spoke of the Saviour—what pictures he drew,
The scenes of His sufferings rose clear on my view—
The cross—the rude cross where He suffered and died;
The gush of bright crimson that flowed from His side,
The cup of His sorrows—the wormwood and gall;
The darkness that mantled the earth as a pall;
The garland of thorns—and the demon-like crews
Who knelt as they scoffed Him—"Hail, King of the Jews."

He spoke, and it seemed that his statue-like form
Expanded & glowed, as his spirit grew warm;
His tone is so impassioned—so melting his air,
As touched with compassion he ended in prayer;
His hands clasped above him—his blue orbs upthrown,
Still pleading for sins that were never his own,
While that mouth were such sweetness ineffable clung,
Still spoke, tho' expression had died on his tongue.

Oh God! what emotions the speaker awoke!
A mortal he seemed—yet a deity spoke;
A man—yet so far from humanity riven;
On earth—yet so closely connected with Heaven!
How oft in my fancy I've pictured him there
As he stood in that triumph of passion and prayer.
With his eyes closed in rapture—their transient eclipse
Made bright by the smiles that illumined his lips.

There's a charm in delivery—a magical art
That thrill's like a kiss, from the lip to the heart;
'Tis the glance—the expression—the well chosen word,
By whose magic the depths of the spirit are stirred,
The smile—the mute gesture—the soul-startling pause,
The eye's sweet expression—that melts while it awes—
The lip's soft persuasion—it musical tone—
Oh such was the charm of that eloquent one!

The time is long past—yet how clearly defined
That bay, church, and village, float up on my mind,
I see a pid azure the moon in her pride,
With the sweet little trembler that sat by her side;
I hear the blue waves, as she wanders along,
Leap up in their gladness & sing her a song,
And I tread in the path-way half-worn o'er the sod,
By the feet that went up to the worship of God.

The time is long past, yet, what vision, I see!
The past, the dim past, is the present to me.
I am standing once more 'mid that heart-stricken throng!
A vision floats up—'tis the theme of my song—
All glorious and bright as a spirit of air,
The light like a halo encircling his hair;
As I catch the same accents of sweetness & love
He whispers of Jesus; and points us above.

How sweet to my heart is the picture I've traced;
Its chain of bright fancies seemed almost effaced,
Till memory, the fond one that sits in the soul,
Took up the frail links & connected th whole.
As the dew to the blossom; the bud to the bee;
As the scent to the rose; are those memories to me.
Round the chords of my heart they have tremblingly clung,
And the echo it gives, is the song I have sung.

JUDKIN'S PATENT SPECIFIC OINTMENT.

 The above Ointment is offered to the public as a safe and certain remedy for those obstinate diseases, some of which have so long baffled the skill of medical science:

1st. White swellings of every description.
2d. Sore legs, and ulcers of long standing.
3d. Schirrus, or glandular tumours, particularly those hardened tumours in women's breast, which oftentimes, terminate in ulcerated cancers.
4th. Felons, or what some people know by the name of Catarrhs, of every description.
5th. Rheumatic pains in the joints.
6th Sprains and bruises of every description, or in whatever part situate.
7th Tetters of all kinds. In this complaint the patient, in applying the ointment, mus keep the part out of water.
8th. Chilblains, or parts effected by frost.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The following communication, addressed to the proprietor of Judkin's Ointment, from the Hon. John Talliaferro, member of Congress, is highly interesting. The greatuitous manner in which it is made, exhibits feelings of no ordinary character towards suffering humanity; and is certainly well deserving of public attention.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, 1829

Sir.—It has been my wish for a considerable time, to communicate to you the good effect with which I have used the Ointment invented by a Mr. Judkins, and which I now understand is made and sold by agents appointed by yourself I have applied this ointment during the last three years, to every species of tumour and wound, without failure to produce a cure in every instance. I consider it the most decided and efficient remedy in all cases of tumour, be the cause what it may, and I have found nothing so good for wounds of any description It may be proper to add that the cure of a tumour called the white swelling, given over by the most distinguished physicians as incurrable, and which they have decided would, without amputation, prove fatal to the patient, was, under my immediate notice, effected by the use of Judkin's Ointment and the patient is in fine health; his limb affected by the tumour being restored to a perfect state of soundness Also, that the leg of an aged man which had been wounded, and exhibited one dreadfully ulcerated surface from the knee to the foot, and which for more than two years had been considered incurable, was effectually cured by the application of Judkins' Ointment. I mention these two cases which fell under my immediate notice and management, as a decided evidence of the efficacy of this remedy in cases of tumour and of ulcers—I have experienced as decidedly the good effect of this remedy in the cure of felons, and of every species of fresh wound It seems to me that any one who will observe on the operation of this ointment, must, be satisfied as to its beneficial effect. I can with the utmost confidence recommend the use of this valuable remedy

I am, Sir, very respectfully,

JOHN TALIAFERO.

☞PILES.☜

Before leaving Boonsboro, I had heard much of an article in which you appear before the public as proprietor, named Herstons' Judkins Specific Ointment, made by C. Herstons near Frederick, Md. and of its decided efficacy in cures on persons with whom I am well acquainted. since my residence in Baltimore it has performed a cure on a friend of mine afflicted with piles. Having myself been a sufferer for some years with this distressing disease, I now unhesitatingly applied your Ointment in my own case, and am gratified that I can say it made a perfect cure

J. A BENTZ.

Counting Room, Leonard street

A few weeks ago a case of woman's sore breast came under my notice, the breast greatly inflamed, the nipple scarcely to be seen—her appearance clearly spoke the great misery she was in; she told me she had been suffering three months with it, and was confined to her bed; she then had flaxseed poultice to it; other things had been tried I advised Judkin's Ointment knowing it had often been successful in like cases. She got and applied it according to the directions accompanying it; in 24 hours all pain was gone; it broke and commenced discharging copiously and so continued some days; the relief from extreme pain to perfect ease excited the woman's astonishment; a few days reduced her breast to its usual state, & in eight days the cure was complete.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Messrs. L. & R. T. Lowndes, merchants Cumberland.

Gentlemen,—I was afflicted with a sore leg—the fame of Judkins Ointment induced me to get a jug of it—but it happened not to be of Mr Herston's make. I used it according to directions, but my leg kept getting worse.

Mr. Herstons, travelling to the west stopped at my house; during the time, on looking at the ointment I had, he immediately pronounced it not of his make, and furnished me with one which was. On opening and smelling it I was sensible of the difference, although it looked like it. I then applied the ointment he gave me to my leg; it became in a state of amendment on using the first plaster and so continued until it got quite well.

This ointment is certainly very valuable, and it would be a pity it should be lost to the public by a counterfeit article bearing the name and being not genuine

TESTIMONIALS:

Westminster, Carroll Co. Md. Aug. 12, 1842

Mr. C. Hearston; dear sir—Having made use of several bottles of Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial of which you are proprietor, I feel a desire to inform you of its beneficial results. The first use made of it in my family was by myself, for pain in the breast—the next was for Cholic, being violently attacked; the next was a case of Cholic in a colored man in my imploy; the next was a case of a child a few weeks old which was much afflicted with cholic and consequently very restless; the next case was pain in the bowels and stomach of the colored man spoken of above, in which case he was unable to work. It is with pleasure I inform you that in all the above cases it effected a speedy cure—in some of the cases a single dose had the desired effect. After commencing the use of the Cordial with the child it soon became very fleshy and has continued to grow rapidly ever since—is now past one year old and whenever attacked by the cholic (which has not been for some time,) has invariably found relief from a dose of the Cordial. From the use made of it in my family my wife is quite unwilling to be without a bottle of it in the house at any time.

Yours respectfully, JOHN M'COLLUM.

Leesburg, Va. July 10, 1841.

Mr. C Hearstons, dear sir—Having been called on by one of your agents (Jas. S Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty, I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals! I have a young woman in my family who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia, by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial she was fully cured! Given under my hand this 10th day of July 1841. PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md. Sept 14, 1840

Mr. C erstons: Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia. I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines as well as medical assistance had been tried but all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

From the Rev T. H. W. Monroe,

Liberty town, Frederick Co. Md
May 9, 1840.

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present I now state to you that I have used Drs Dresbach, Kuhan and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage. For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regard as Dyspepsia, in its respirant stages, to obtain relief from which I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as I trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully,

THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr C Herstons—I willingly comply with your request to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz: defective appetite, impaired digestion, languor debility, &c. These symptoms were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief and finally cured her. PHILAMON LOWSON.

SICK HEADACHE

Sir—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, for dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c, had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbor's; she hastened home & took a dose of the cordial, sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand, this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house.

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

THOS. BARTHOLOW

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md. Sept. 1840.

Mr. Herston—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic. She thought she would have died—I was alarmed. In the discription given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms, or cramp, in the stomach' It justly sustained its character in my wifes case. The attack commenced about daylight Fortunately the cordial was in the house—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room, sat down in a chair, and in five minutes was perfectly relieved. JACOB KESSLER.
