To the Editor of the EASTON GAZETTE

Sir,

You will herewith receive a copy of the Annual Report of the Board of Trustees, made in pursuance of the Act of Assembly to the Treasurer of Maryland, and which will be read with interest here, the subject matter being one of vital importance to the citizens of this community.

At the request of the Board this copy has been furnished for publication by the President, and with a wish, that you will give it a place in your next paper.

I am, Respectfully,
Your ob't. serv't.
J. BOZMAN KERR,
Secretary of the Board of Trustees of Easton Academy.

To DENNIS CLAUDE, Esq. Treasurer of the Western Shore of Maryland.

The Trustees of the Academy at Easton in Talbot County, in pursuance of the Act of Assembly passed at December session in the year Eighteen Hundred and Thirty-five, chapter 351, respectfully report; That at the last Annual Report the Trustees had the gratification to state, that this Institution had been greatly revived under the supervision and instruction of Dr. ARNOLD, and that it was then in every respect in the active fulfilment of its obligations to the State and to the community in which it is located—Since the above mentioned period Dr. Arnold has voluntarily retired from this school and as soon as practicable the Trustees sought to supply his place by a gentleman, who would sustain the increasing reputation of the Academy and urge its benefits to the farthest limits of its usefulness—Happily for the interests of education such a gentleman was found, without any injurious delay, in Mr. John Neely, a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, who produced such testimonials of eminent qualification in every respect and from such reliable sources as to determine the Board without hesitation, to avail themselves of his services—He was therefore invited to take charge of the Academy and entered upon his duties at the beginning of the Winter Session in October last—and from his well established reputation in the city of Baltimore and elsewhere in this state, the Trustees confidently expect a considerable accession to the number of the pupils and correspondent elevation in the rank and usefulness of the Institution.

The usual branches of a thorough English education together with instruction in the Latin Greek and French languages are taught in this School—Mathematics, Natural Philosophy, and Chemistry constitute also a part of the studies pursued here. For preparation in the two last mentioned branches, provision to some extent had heretofore been made by the Trustees, by the purchase of apparatus to which considerable addition has been made by the Gentleman who now presides over the Institution. Most of the Academies in the State are believed to be but illy provided, with such apparatus as are necessary for the successful illustration of the sciences of Natural Philosophy and Chemistry and we therefore cordially congratulate the friends of this School on the ample provision it contains for thorough instruction in those interesting and valuable pursuits.

Provision has also been made for the comfortable accommodation of a large number of pupils, with board, lodging &c. in the family and under the eye of the Teacher—We therefore do not hesitate to present this school to the community, as affording all the facilities of a complete Academic course, that can be found in the best established Schools or Academies in the State.

The whole number of students at this time is Thirty one—Of these seven are pupils under the provisions of the law, requiring "one poor boy" to be educated and supplied with books, stationary, &c. for every one hundred dollars of the donation—There is yet one vacancy, which it is expected, will be very shortly supplied The Trustees have been scrupulously regardful of the provisions of the law referred to and the wisdom which dictated its enactment has been fully manifested, in the benefits which have been experienced—Seventeen pupils are studying Latin, three Greek, four French and five Mathematics.

The property of the Institution, consisting as heretofore stated, of a well-built two story brick house, is in very good repair.

All of which is respectfully submitted
By order of the Board,
THEO. R. LOOCKERMAN, Pres't.
January 20, 1844.

MR. CLAY IN ACCOMAC.

Mr. Clay having been requested by a meeting of Whigs of Accomac, has accepted an invitation to visit that retired county, supposed by him and no doubt truly, to present a lively representation of Old English manners and customs two hundred years ago—that is in the time of the Commonwealth and Cromwell. The following is Mr. CLAY's letter:

ASHLAND, 12th Dec. 1843.

GENTLEMEN: On the eve of my departure from New Orleans, I have received your obliging invitation to visit Accomac. There are two places in the United States which, more than almost any other, I am desirous of seeing! one is the Eastern Shore of Virginia, and the other the Island of Nantucket; in both of which the primitive manners, customs and hospitality of the early emigrants to them from Europe, I understand, are admirably preserved. Your letter, gentlemen, by the propriety and delicacy of the grounds on which you place your friendly invitation, adds to the motives which I previously had to see the Eastern Shore; but I dare not trust myself with a possitive engagement to accept it. All that I can allow myself to hope is that, if, after my arrival at Norfolk, I find myself under circumstances, that will admit of an excursion to Accomac. I shall take the greatest pleasure in making it. In the meantime, I pray your acceptance of my profound acknowledgments, and assurances of my being faithfully

Your friend and obedient serv't.
H CLAY.

RUMORED WITHDRAWAL OF MR. VAN BUREN.—The Richmond Whig of yesterday contains a letter from a correspondent at Washington, dated January 15, which states that it is currently reported in that city 'that the friends of Mr Van Buren have in their hands a letter from him requesting his name to be withdrawn as a candidate for the Presidency.'

The Whig adds—

We do not, of course, vouch for the truth of the rumor it alludes to, and will only engage for the veracity of our correspondent.

The N. Y True Sun mentions a rumor that both the Senators from Rhode Island intend to resign their seats.

A CALHOUN MOVEMENT.—The New York Tribune says that the Calhoun General committee of that city, have issued an Address, dissenting from the manner in which certain of the Loco Foco Delegates have been elected to the National Convention, as well as to the general maxims of party policy put forth by the Van Buren's State Convention at Syracuse, refusing to be governed by the decision of the Baltimore Convention, and calling a new Convention to be chosen by Districts, to assemble in Philadelphia on the 4th day of July next, and nominate 'Democratic candidates for President and Vice President.

INTERESTING FROM SOUTH CAROLINA. Extract of a letter from a highly respectable gentleman dated Charleston, S. C., January 10th:

'John C. Calhoun's two nephews joined our Clay Club, also Langdon Cheves Judge Butler & many other warm friends of John C. Calhoun; and if this State finds that Henry Clay will need her vote to elect him, he will get it; if not needed, she will throw it away.'—N. Y. Express.

FROM WASHINGTON.—Rejection of Mr. Henshaw.—The Senate, on Monday last, with a full Senate, after an Executive session of some hours, rejected the nomination of Mr. Henshaw. The vote on his confirmation stood ayes 8, nays 40.

Mr. Proffit was served up in like style on Thursday last, being rejected as Envoy to Brazil.

Mr. Rives's letter, it is said, has stirred others up to writing. Ex-Governor Gilmer of Va (now holding the seat in the House which belongs to Hon. Wm. L. Goggin) is said to have likewise avowed that, if the Presidential contest is narrowed down to the naked question of Clay or Van Buren, he must go for Clay.

A MOVEMENT AT WASHINGTON.—A Washington correspondent of the Boston Courier says: 'A diplomatic dinner was given day before yesterday by the Hon. Wills P. Mangum, at which were present among others, the Hon. Daniel Webster, and Messrs Barrow, Choate, Crittenden and Rives of the Senate. Gen. Scott of the Army. All these distinguished gentlemen have definitely agreed to support the nomination of Henry Clay to the Presidency. Mutual explanations were made, and existing differences arranged. So now look out for a bold fight against Van Buren.'

LETTER FROM TEXAS.—Its Annexation to the United States.—Advices from Galveston to the 31st ult. have been received at New Orleans. The only item of news is that a bill has been introduced into the lower House, providing for the annexation of the Republic to the U. States, in case the latter consents.

The funniest thing we have yet heard of, as taking place in Congress, is the threat of Charles J. Ingersol to 'make' Mr. Adams, 'care for him.—Augusta Chro.

We learn from a Washington paper that on Tuesday evening the U. S. Senate, in Executive session, confirmed the nominations of a number of marshals and district attorneys, and also the entire list of appointments and promotions in the Army, submitted by the President. Among the confirmations is that of General George M. Keim, as Marshal of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

The re appointment of Joseph Redue, as Surveyor of the Revenue at Chestertown, Md. was also confirmed.

The material provisions of the Bill reported to the Maryland House of Delegates last week, for the completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal, are thus stated in the Annapolis Republican:

The bill authorises the Company to contract a loan of $3 000,000, upon an issue of bonds of the Company in certificates of $100, at 6 per cent, redeemable in 20 years,—for the redemption of which the State surrenders her liens upon the work, or the work may be paid for in stock of the company. They are also authorised to contract for a slack water to the mouth of Savage,—and for this purpose, are allowed to issue bonds redeemable in 30 years at six per cent, for the redemption of which, a sinking fund is to be created from the revenue derived from that portion of the work.

The certificates of indebtedness already issued by the company, are to be replaced capital and interest, by an issue of bonds.

SIGNING THE LAWS.—The Governor appeared in the Senate Chamber, at four o'clock on the 16th, and in the presence of the two branches of the Legislature, attached his signature (the seal of the State having been previously affixed) to engrossed bills from No. 1 to 25 inclusive.

The N. Y. True Sun says that Mr. Proffit will get his outfit. The Committee on Ways and Means have provided for it in their general civil and diplomatic bill.

The Denton Pearl of the 23d inst. says,—On Tuesday night last the Stores of Messrs. Turner & Slaughter, and Mr. John Evitts, of this place were entered by some person or persons, and a small amount of money abstracted from each of them. Fortunately, they had removed what money there was in their stores, the night previous, to their dwellings, except a small amount of change.

Mr. Evitt's store-house was entered by means of boring out the pannel of the door, and that of Messrs. Turner & Slaughter's by raising the door off the hinges by a bar of iron. We learn suspicions are entertained as to who are the robbers, but there is not testimony sufficient to arrest them.

THE TRUE RESTORATIVE.—In the grand and triumphant march of science, when the very elements have been brought under the control of man, and the wonderful and mysterious in nature has been unfolded and spread open to the view of the world, there has no discovery been made of greater importance to mankind than that which relates to the effect of vegetable substances upon the human system. A deep and careful investigation has conclusively proved that the diseases incident to the human frame cannot be eradicated and removed only by the proper use of vegetable compounds, and that mineral substances when used internally are detrimental, and in most cases produce death. There are some vegetables which possess a more active power than others, and it is from such that Stainburn's Vegetable Extract Pills, are compounded. By a process known only to the proprietor, the finer particles are separated from the grosser, and the whole essence and virtue of the materials are reduced to a small compass. The afflicted, if they wish a speedy return to health, should give them a trial.

Price 25 cents per. box. Office 338 Broadway, N. Y. next door below the Tabernacle.

Said pills are sold in Easton by the agent E. M. DAWSON & BROTHER, and by agents published in another part of our paper.

DIED.

On the 24th inst, after an illness of several days, which she bore with patience, fortitude and Christian resignation, Mrs. Ann Sears, consort of Capt Edwd. Sears, in the 51st year of her age.

The deceased was a faithful follower of the lowly Jesus, for the last 30 years of her life;—during nearly half of that time she has been in almost constant bodily pain, but with true Christain fortitude, she bore it all patiently, and kept her eyes steadfastly fixed upon the God of her salvation.

She was at the residence of her son, in St. Michaels, (whither the illness of a daughter had called her,) when the last attack of her devouring disease made its appearance. She was sensible, from the first, of the approach of Death, and often said she did not wish to live, that her peace was made on high, and she would soon be at rest forever! A few minutes previous to dissolution, she raised her eyes & hands toward Heaven, and exclaimed, 'Praise the Lord, I'm on my passage home!' articulation then ceased, and in a short time her spirit, made white with the blood of Christ, took its departure from its frail tenement of clay, for the Heavenly mansions of Eternal repose.—O, may our passage through the Dark valley and Shadow of Death, be illumined as hers was, and may we all sing praises together around the Throne of the Almighty Jehovah.
