POETRY.

From Graham's Magazine for January.

"WITHOUT A STAIN."

BY PARK BENJAMIN.

Without a stain the maiden lived,
Unblemished, pure and mild—
A woman grown, she was as sweet
And simple as a child;
I loved her for her gentleness,
Her smiles and winning ways,
And for a virture in her heart
Above a poet's praise.

Boon Nature lavished charms on her,
Such charms as she bestows
Upon those seraphs of the soil,
The lily and the rose;
The soft expression of her eyes
Came surely from above—
It seemed to me a blended glance
Of Pity, and of Love.

Though various as the chasing waves,
She ever was the same;
From every motion in her form
Some grace and beauty came;
The common thoughts she told in words
From her seemed strangely new,
And earth contained no living heart
So constant, fond and true.

Yet o'er the brightness of her soul
A sudden shadow fell,
And Hope, who sang sweet songs to her
In sorrow breathed farewell.
She knew not why the music ceased,
Nor why the heavens were dim;
She only knew her cruel doom,
And that it came from him.

God! who canst heal the wounded heart
And pardon all who err,
This blast of keen and wasting wo
So temper unto her,
That in her guiltless breast may spring
The flowers of peace once more,
And all be fair as summer skies
When summer storms are o'er!

Campbell's Foreign.

SEMI-MONTHLY MAGAZINE, OR

Select Miscellany of European Literature and Art.

THIS PERIODICAL has already acquired the enviable reputation of being the most complete and spirited Magazine of the kind ever published in the country. The frequency of its publication enables the publisher to furnish the cream of the Foreign Magazines in advance of all competition. As for instance, the number published on the 1st of each month is composed principally of articles selected from the Foreign Reviews and magazines of the preceding month, and that issued on the 16th of the month can be entirely so made, thus placing the readers of the Semi-Monthly in possession of the choicest articles of the Foreign Press several weeks in advance of a monthly competitor.

IN THE LITERARY DEPARTMENT

Whilst the Magazine cannot pretend to originality in the frothy trash of the day, it is the aim of the publisher to furnish to its readers the best articles from the first minds in Europe in the several departments of Criticism, History, Biography, Voyages, Travels, &c. &c., and from the pens of such men as Brougham, Macaulay, Carlyle, Sterling, Lander, Wilson, Lockhart, Hood

To add to its attractions each number will be embellished with one of

SARTAIN'S Splendid Mezzotint Engravings, done in the very best style of that finished Artist, thus affording every year

TWENTY FOUR

of those beautiful Engravings, whilst other Magazines are trumpeting to the world their three or four by the same Artist as a chief inducement for subscribers.

THE VERY LOW PRICE

at which the Magazine is afforded can be best appreciated when it is remembered, that

THREE SPLENDID VOLUMES

containing each nearly six hundred Imperial Octavo pages, executed in the most finished Typographical style of any Magazine in the Country, the Text embellished with numerous illustrations, and each volume ornamented with

EIGHT OF SARTAIN'S UNEQUALLED ENGRAVINGS

are given every year, furnishing for Five Dollars an amount of Reading matter (exclusive of the engravings, worth of themselves alone more than the cost of the work) which cannot be procured from the original source for less than

THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS.

Included in the Engravings will be found Portraits of the most distinguished men in the World of Letters, Science and Art, thus furnishing a

PORTRAIT GALLERY

order of excellence, done in the most finished style of art, and worthy of preservation in any library.

TO POST-MASTERS & OTHERS

The acknowledged merit and rapidly growing popularity of Campbell's Magazine considered, the Publisher believes that from the following liberal terms thousands will be induced to subscribe.

TO CLUBS the following proposals are made: Five Copies for $20; Eight for $30. Single Copies Five dollars a year in advance. Single numbers 25 cents.

Editors inserting this advertisement and sending a copy of the paper containing it to this office, will be entitled to a copy of the work for one year.

Its soothing and renovating powers being peculiary adapted to such cases. TESTIMONIALS:

Westminster, Carroll Co. Md. Aug. 12, 1842

Mr. C. Hearston; dear sir—Having made use of several bottles of Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Cordia of which you are proprietor, I feel a desire to inform you of its beneficial results. The first use made of it in my family was by myself, for pain in the breast—the next was for Cholic, being violently attacked; the next was a case of Cholic in a colored man in my imploy; the next was a case of a child a few weeks old which was much afflicted with cholic and consequently very restless; the next case was pain in the bowels and stomach of the colored man spoken of above, in which case he was unable to work. It is with pleasure I inform you that in all the above cases it effected a speedy cure—in some of the cases a single dose had the desired effect. After commencing the use of the Cordial with the child it soon became very fleshy and has continued to grow rapidly ever since—is now past one year old and whenever attacked by the cholic (which has not been for some time,) has invariably found relief from a dose of the Cordial. From the use made of it in my family my wife is quite unwilling to be without a bottle of it in the house at any time.

Yours respectfully, JOHN M'COLLUM.

Leesburg, Va. July 10, 1841.

Mr. C. Hearstons, dear sir—Having been called on by one of your agents (Jas. S. Hamilton) and believing it to be my duty, I give you a certificate approving of your Dyspeptic Cordial—I do say that I have used it in my family with success, and believe the cordial should be recommended to all Dyspeptic individuals! I have a young woman in my family who suffered much for some time with Dyspepsia, by using 2 or 3 bottles of your cordial, she was fully cured! Given under my hand this 10th day of July 1841. PETER COST.

Frederick County, Md. Sept 14, 1840

Mr C Herstons: Your medicine named Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, has cured me of Dyspepsia I had this disease twelve years. Various medicines as well as medical assistance had been tried out all failed. Your cordial as mentioned above has completed a cure. For several months past I have been entirely free from this Dyspeptic disease.

From the Rev T. H. W. Monroe,
Liberty town, Frederick Co. Md'
May 9, 1840.

Dear Sir—Circumstances have prevented me from writing to you until the present I now state to you that I have used Drs Dresbach, Kuhan and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial with considerable advantage. For some years past I have been afflicted with what I regard as Dyspepsia, in its insipent stages, to obtain relief from wich I tried various remedies in vain. I was induced by the recommendation of the before named cordial, and from the use of it, have been, as I trust, entirely relieved.

Yours respectfully.

THOMAS H. W. MONROE.

Mr. C. Herstons—I willingly comply with your request to furnish a statement of the case in which your Dyspeptic Cordial was used with so much advantage. It is briefly thus. My niece Mrs Wallace, had been suffering for several months under a train of symptoms such as naturally denote the worst form of Dyspepsia, viz: defective appetite, impaired digestion, langnor debility, &c. These symptoms were at length followed by great depression of spirits, sleeplessness and nervous agitation, while every article was swallowed by distressing pain. While in this situation a friend passing through Baltimore, who had resided in your State and was familiar with its effects, advised the use of Drs. Dresbach Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, the use of which, in a few days, gave great relief, and finally cured her. PHILAMON LOWSON.

SICK HEADACHE

Sir.—This distressing disease has for many years been a source of affliction to my wife, so severe at times as to occasion her to take to her bed.

Drs. Dresbech, Kuhn and Pryor's Dyspeptic Cordial, for dyspepsia, Sick Headache, &c., had come so highly recommended by persons of my acquaintance, I got it; it has met her case fully at different times. A few weeks past one of her severe attacks came on while on a visit to a neighbor's; she hastened home & took a dose of the cordial, sat very quiet for ten or fifteen minutes—then took a second dose and remained quiet some minutes again, when she was entirely relieved. She thinks that if she had not had this medicine at hand, this attack would have sent her to bed. Such is her confidence in this cordial for her sick headache, that she has determined never to be without it in the house

I have heard a friend of mine say who has tried it twice for severe cholic, that he was promptly relieved each time by this cordial.

CRAMP CHOLIC.

Frederick County, Md. Sept. 1840.

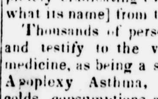

Mr. Herston—My wife, a few weeks ago, had a violent attack of cramp cholic. She thought she would have died—I was alarmed in the discription given of your medicine, named Drs. Dresbach, Kuhn and Pryor's Dispeptic Cordial. I found it highly recommended for cholic, spasms, or cramp in the stomach' It oustly sustained its character in my wifes case. The attack commenced about daylight Fortunately the cordial was in the hous—sitting on the side of the bed, she took a few swallows from the bottle, (would not wait for pouring out—walked across the room, sat down in a chair and in five minutes was perfectly relieved.
