[For the Easton Gazette.]

Extracts from a Letter addressed by Mrs. Payne (Missionary of the Church near Cape Palmas Africa) to a friend in this county. Calvalla St Africa.

"We look every hour for Mr. Hazlehurst and wish two or three more might accompany him. We are sadly in want of more Missionaries—both male and female—our stations have multiplied—our duties increased— our prospects brightened and our numbers lessened. The two Ladies who came out with me a year ago have both (in the inscrutable Providence of God!) been called to their rest. A former letter told you of the death of Miss Coggeshall, and the marriage of Miss Chasein & Dr. Savage—the latter event was a joyful one to us all, as it gave promise of much good to the Mount Vaughan Station, and indeed to the Mission generally—nor were we disappointed. During the six months she was spared to us Mrs. Savage did more to elevate the Female school at Mount Vaughan and to benefit the native woman in the neighbourhood than had ever before been accomplished. But 'the judgments of God are unsearchable and his ways past finding out"—in the midst of usefulness (and when her life seemed almost essential to the very existence of the Female school under her charge) God in his wisdom saw fit to remove our dear sister. Mrs. Savage's health was never very firm after the first attack of fever, and the Dr. did all he could to prevent her attempting too much. But her disposition was such, and her desire to labour for the Heathen so intense, that she suffered greatly whenever compelled to be inactive. She endeared herself very much to all connected with the mission, and her loss is severely felt throughout it. As soon as Mrs. Savage's danger was known I was sent for—and by hard travelling in a hammock, reached Mt. Vaughan ten or twelve hours before her death. Her life had given ample testimony that she was ready to die—She was buried on Christmas eve. Her talents as well as piety were of a high order, and though so young they were combined with matured and excellent judgment.

——our horse and my hammock enable us to travel very comfortably. I think a thing of going to Mt. Vaughan with natives only, and often wish you all could see me riding alone in my hammock—it is a very pleasant way of travelling, and by changing bearers frequently, we can get on rapidly. I generally have four, who cost about 12½ cts. (each.)

—— our own station continues prosperous and encouraging. The schools are quite full I have eleven native girls and find no difficulty now in obtaining them. We have had the happiness of admitting eight of our boys into the Church. They give us great pleasure by their correct & consistent deportment. One of them (called Clement F. Jones.) is a boy of the most lovely disposition I ever saw—several others are candidates for admission three of whom will probably be baptized in a week or two—one of them is a young Krooman who gives such satisfactory evidence of a change of heart, that (cautious as we endeavor to be on so important a point) we can no longer hesitate to believe him a christain. you will readily believe that the conversion of these youths is a cause of unspeakable joy to us and we feel richly repaid for all we have done and suffered in Africa. My husband continues to preach TEN TIMES every week to the natives, and is encouraged by the increased attention and seriousness with which he is heard. The people in the large town have just built a Bamboo thatched House for worship our School house not being large enough for the congregation on Sunday—it is not quite ready for use, the Pulpit and benches not being complete. We have four night schools, (in the different divisions of Cavalla) taught by Gnebwi, (our Interpreter) and six of our Christian boys—they average 25 scholars each, most of whom attend our Sunday schools. I mentioned in my last that some women had been induced to attend school they still continue and learn sewing much faster than reading—it is a great point gained to get them to attend at all—they attend religious services too much better than formerly.

—— a little incident occurred last Sunday which I hope will have a good effect. As we walked through the town on Saturday evening to notify the people (as usual) that the next day would be Sunday, we saw a Doctor, making preparations to shave one of his Students the next day—thus giving him a Diploma—Mr. Payne warned him not to do it, but (as we expected) without effect. The next morning he commenced the ceremonies, part of which consisted in killing a dog, duck, or fowl, and hiding the head the Candidate is required to look for the head, and must prove the reality of his call by finding it. Should he not succeed all parties are much mortified. The Doctor's residence is close by Gnebwi's school house, and whilst these Heathen ceremonies were going on in the one house Gnebwi was teaching his Sunday school; in the other. The head Trade-man, (a very intelligent Krooman) was passing, and being attracted by what was going on he stopped at the school house, and remarked to Gnebwi (in ridicule, for he is a confirmed Heathen) "Oh! how is this—praying to God and making a Doctor all at one time." "Well (Gnebwi replied) let us try to day which be STRONG—GOD or DEVIL." He made his boys kneel down and prayed that GOD would show his Power, and even then "put Shame" on the Doctor and his party. His prayer really appeared to be answered and granted—for (when the school broke up) they heard that the Student had not been able to find the head, and the Dr. had been obliged to get it himself and put it into his hands. It is true similar failures have occurred before—but they are exceedingly rare, and the remarkable coincidence can hardly fail to produce a salutary effect—if it has no other, I doubt not it will strengthen the faith of Gnebwi."
