April Term 1868

she never saw them together any where else but seen them at their home often together, deponent went to their house sometimes as often as three or four times in a week. This deponent was a right smart girl at the time she was Elizabeth nursing her baby, deponent does not know if it was a boy or a girl, deponent on the several visits she made to the house as above stated addressed her as Mrs Boone, did not know any thing else, whether she was his wife or not. Does not know how long Mrs Boone lived there after this, deponent and her father had finished gathering apples which occupied about a month. Mrs Boone lived a year or two in the neighbourhood as witness was told by the neighbors at the time, when the neighbors talked of them they said we will go over and see the Boones, as far as deponent knows Elizabeth passed with all the neighbours as his wife, never heard any thing whether she was or no. deponent Mother went often over to make them visits, Hookstown took its name from witnesses two great grand fathers, deponents father like the other children had one acre of ground in Hookstown besides the money he had and being a tanner he made a good deal of Money Deponents Mother was a member of the Methodist Church to which Church deponent also belongs.

Deponent has heard Old John Boone speak to this child calling him my son Stephen that was always his talk and this child always went by the name of Stephen Boone and all the neighbours knew that. Deponent knew Stephen from a child and until after he had married, Old John Boone spoke to his child as my son Stephen and he appeared to be very fond of him. Deponent knew the little child Stephen untill he grew up to wear Jacket and trousers and afterwards as above stated when he reached manhood. Has seen Stephen off and on but not always at the house. Stephen married Polly Reed who lived in that neighbourhood and was of respectable family

Cross Examined

Never saw Mrs Boone untill deponent and her father went to Mr Boones house to gather apples, deponent had seen Mr Boone before. Deponent supposes she was about ten or twelve years old at the time she went there to gather apples, deponent knew Mr Boone as long as she knew herself, deponents brother married Mr Boones sister, after the frost had come in the fall of the year or the next deponent and her sister went to Mr Boones and got some apples in their handkerchiefs, deponent was not a frequent visitor at Mr Boones she only went there on the occasion of gathering apples with her father to make cider, and afterwards she went as before stated to get some apples after the frost came but whether in the fall of the same year or the next she does not remember. Deponent did not know whether the person she saw there as before stated was his wife or not she did know at the time they were gathering apples whether the child she saw there was Mr Boones child or not, she cannot tell how long after it was that she saw a boy who was called Stephen Boone, she does not know whether the child she saw at Mr Boones house was Stephen Boone or not, deponent cannot say when it was she heard the neighbours talk of going to the Boones. Deponent never heard she was or was not the wife of Mr Boone, she passed as his (Boones) wife but witness does not know she never heard anybody say to contrary but what she was his wife. Stephen Boone was a good smart boy in Jacket and trousers when
