April Term 1868

& where she has lived ever since

Honor Brown Deposition

1. To the first Inty she answers, that on the seventeenth of last March she was Seventy nine years of age.
2. To the second Inty she answers that she knew the said John C.R. B. Boone for many years and before he was married, and after he married. His fathers name was Thomas Boone.
3. To the third Inty she answers that she used to see the said Stephen Parlot and Eleanor Parlot when they were children about thirteen or fourteen years of age, and previous to that age & from the time they were little children. That John C.R. B. Boone lived in a tenement on his Mothers farm, and near to his Mothers house, and deponent in his visits to his Mother (Mrs Boone) used to see these two children about
4. To the fourth Inty she answers that Betsy Parlot was the Mother of the said two children Stephen and Elanor said Betsy had no other children so far as deponent knows & believes. Her maiden name was Betsy Dew, she lived with Parlot but whether or not they were married she does not know.
5. To the fifth Inty she answers that said John R.C. B. Boone was married to Betsy Hale she never heard of his being married to any one else. He had a child by Betsy Hale his wife called Prudence whom he recognized and brought up as his daughter & who lived with her until she married Mr Chamberlain
6. To the sixth she answers that said John C.R. B. Boones farm and deponents fathers farm were about three miles apart, and deponent always lived in said Boones neighbourhood and always knew him until the time of his death.

April Term 1868

To the additional Inty by the Defendants she answers, that said Betsy Dew was not married to her knowledge to said John C.R. B. Boone and she never heard that they were married. She went to live with said Boone after Parlot went away, and the neighbours said that they lived illicitly together, but she never heard that they were married and she never was called Mrs Boone to her knowledge.

Mrs Sarah Bluffford additional Interrogatory

That Betsy Dew and John C.R. B. Boone never were married to her knowledge or belief. It was the general reputation of the neighbourhood that they lived together illicitly she never was called Mrs Boone but was always called Betsy Parlot from the time she lived with Parlot till the time of her death

Rachel Mills Deposition

1. To the first Inty she answers that she will be seventy Eight years old next February
2. To the second Inty she answers that she knew the said John C.R. B. Boone and knew him from the time of her being a little girl, she did not know his father
3. To the third Inty she answers that she did not know them.
4. To the fourth Inty she answers, that she does not know
5. To the fifth Inty she answers that the said John C.R. B. Boone was married to Betsy Hale and deponent was at the wedding, said Boone never was to her knowledge married to any other person, By his wife Betsy he had one child, a daughter called Prudence, who married Mr Chamberlain.
6. To the sixth Inty she answers that she always lived in the City of Baltimore since she was ten years of age, that she did not know Betsy Dew but John C.R. B. Boone never was to her knowledge or belief married to any other woman than Betsy Hale, as she has before stated, she was at the