at a planted Stone marked with the figures 13 planted at the end of sixty two and one half perches on the given line of the said tract of land called Taylors Hall and running thence with and bounding on said line reversely North one degree East sixty two and one half perches to a marked limestone at the place where formerly stood the sixth boundary tree of the said tract of land called Taylors Hall and the beginning of a tract of land called Barretts Delight, thence running with and bounding on the given line of Barretts Delight reversely North eleven degrees East fifty five and one half perches to a stone marked with the figures 15 thence North eighty three and three quarter degrees West six hundred and eighty nine perches to a stone marked with the figures 16 set up at the end of fifty one and three quarter perches on the north eight degrees east two hundred and fifty perches line of the said tract of land called Thomas and John Cockey's Meadows, surveyed by three and three quarter degrees allowance, thence running with and bounding on Thomas and John Cockey's meadows reversely the six following courses South four and one quarter degrees West fifty one and three quarter perches South sixty six and one quarter degrees West one hundred and twenty six poles South fifteen degrees East six poles North Eighty six and one quarter degrees East one hundred poles South sixty degrees East thirty two poles North fifty two and one half degrees east Eighteen perches to the end of the second line of the aforesaid tract of land called Penelope and Thomas Cockey Dye's addition to Longsdon Taylors Hall, Waysons Farm, Jerah Thomas and John Cockey's Meadows, thence running with and bounding on said line reversely, South five degrees West Eighteen perches to a Stone marked with the figures 14 the same standing at the end of the North five degrees East three and one half perches line of a parcel of land Known as part number Four, and thence with a straight line to the place of beginning Containing five hundred and thirty acres of land more or less with the appurtenances, which Anne Nisbet, Alexander D. Brown, Colegate N. Brown Thomas J. Lee, Cassandra Lee, Mary N. Bassom, Albert Gean Fradeller, John R. Moore and Mary Moore demised to the said John Doe for a term which is not yet expired and ejected him from his said farm and also wherefore with force & arms &c. the said John O. Price, Richard Padian and Solomon Armstrong entered into seven undivided tenth parts, the whole into ten equal parts to be divided of and in one other parcel of land called Lot Number Five abutting towards the North on lands of Mrs Frances J. D. Taylor, and towards the South on lands of the heirs of Mrs Mary Nisbett and towards the West on lands of John Parks and William Basley containing and laid out for five hundred and thirty acres of land more or less, with the appurtenances, situate and lying in the said County which Anne Nisbet, Alexander D. Brown, Colegate N. Brown Thomas J. Lee, Cassandra Lee, Albert G Gean Fradeller, Mary N. Bassom, John R. Moore and Mary Moore demised to the said John Doe for a term which is not yet expired and ejected him from his last mentioned farm, and also wherefore with force & arms &c. at the County aforesaid the said John O. Price, Richard Padian & Solomon Armstrong entered into seven undivided tenth parts, the whole into ten equal parts to be divided of and in one other parcel of land marked and designated in the proceedings in a certain cause in the High Court of Chancery of Maryland wherein Thomas D. Cockey, Joshua H. Cockey Thomas Gist and Penelope his wife Alexander Nisbet and Mary his wife Cheseilla C. D. owings and Penelope D. owings were complainants and Francis Thwaites Owings was defendant, as Lot number Five and in the decree passed in said