At the said third Monday in May to wit in the year eighteen hundred and sixty two Come again into the Circuit Court here the parties aforesaid by their Attornies aforesaid.

And afterwards to wit on the twenty fourth day of June in the year last aforesaid the said John O. Price by J. Neilitt Steele Esquire, his Attorney as aforesaid filed in Court here the following motion to wit.

Ann Nesbitt & others vs John O. Price	In the Circuit Court of Baltimore County. Ejectment.

The Defendant by his Counsel

April Term 1868

moves the Court that the order heretofore passed for the removal of the above Cause to the Superior Court of Baltimore City be rescinded and that the said Cause be reinstated on the Trial Docket of this Court.

Because the said order was improvidently passed on a suggestion and affidavit under the 2d section of the 75th Article of the Code of Public General Laws, on the – day of March 1862, when said section had been in fact repealed, by the act of the General Assembly of Maryland passed on the 18th February 1862 being Chapter 174 of the session of 1862 and when therefore this Court had no power to remove the cause under said section

Because in other respects said order was improperly and illegally passed.

J. Neilitt Steele for Deft
