April Term 1863

Ann Nesbitt & others } In the Circuit Court for Balti-vs } more County.
John O. Price } On this third day of April 1863.

before the subscriber a Justice of the peace for Baltimore County personally appeared John O. Price and made Oath that it is not true that he summoned or caused to be summoned a large or small number of persons as Witnesses in the above Cause without intending to examine them or with the view that they should become prejudiced by hearing the Case and be afterwards summoned as Jurors to try it, that at the time of the former trial of the Cause, he could not know — and in fact did not suppose, that the Jury would not agree upon a verdict, but on the contrary expected that their verdict would dispose of the Case finally and therefore did not think of preparing for another trial and the deponent further made oath that although this case may have been talked about, by those persons who where present in Court at the former trial and by the friends of the parties, as all cases of any importance are talked about in the County, he believes that a fair and impartial — Jury for its trial can be found without difficulty in — Baltimore County, and he has no reason to believe the — Contrary.

Sworn before

Z. Poteet. Justice peace

And afterwards to wit, on the nineteenth day of — April in the year eighteen hundred and Sixty three, the said suggestion and affidavits having been read and — heard and sufficient reason therefore having been shewn to the Court here for the removal of said Cause It is ordered by the Court here in pursuance of the Constitution of this State and of the acts of Assembly, in such case made and provided that a Transcript
