WHIG BANNER.

EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, April 6.

FOR PRESIDENT
HENRY CLAY, OF KENTUCKY.

THE WHIG MARYLAND STATE CONVENTION for the nomination of GOVERNOR, to meet in Baltimore on,
TUESDAY, THE THIRTIETH OF APRIL.

THE WHIG NATIONAL CONVENTION for the nomination of candidates for PRESIDENT & VICE PRESIDENT of the United States to meet in Baltimore on WEDNESDAY, THE FIRST OF MAY.

THE YOUNG MEN'S WHIG NATIONAL CONVENTION OF RATIFICATION to meet in Baltimore on THURSDAY, THE SECOND OF MAY.

WHIG RALLY!

The Whigs of the Trappe District, desirous of forming a CLAY CLUB for disseminating political information among their fellow citizens, in union with other similar associations throughout the county, are requested to meet in the Trappe on Saturday the 13th of April.

MANY WHIGS.

WHIG MEETING.

DENTON, April 2, 1844.

Pursuant to a call the Whigs of Caroline county assembled at the Court-house on Tuesday the 2nd April, when the Hon. Jacob Charles, was called to the Chair and E. R Sprague appointed Secretary. The following named Gentlemen were then duly Elected Delegates to the Gubernatorial Convention to be held in Baltimore upon the 30th inst — From the upper District Abraham Jump Esq substitute Charles N Tilden Esq from the middle District John Nicols & Wm F Chilton Esqrs. substitutes James Turner and James Carter Esqrs. from the lower district Jacob C Wilson Esq. substitute Curtis Davis Esq.

The following Resolutions were then unanimously adopted.

Resolved, That we regard the approaching Gubernatorial Election with feelings of deep and unabated interest, as an election involving the honor and welfare of Maryland and that nothing should be left undone which proper efforts can secure to elevate to the Executive chair that man whose talents and character will preserve the one and promote the other

——That in the District from which the selection must by the Constitution be made there are eminent Citizens whose distinguished services in the state recommend them to the favorable consideration of the Convention & the election of any one of whom would adorn the station to which he may be called.

——That the Delegates from this county possessing the full & entire confidence of those for whom they act, in the choice of a Gubernatorial Candidate be left to the exercise of their own judgment, that this Convention deems it inexpedient to express a preference for any particular individual until their Delegates shall have conferred with the Delegates from the different counties of the State, when they shall have met in Convention.

——That be the Nominee who he may we pledge ourselves to give him a full vote and a cordial support.

——That the proceedings of this Convention signed by the Chairman and Secretary, be forwarded to the Editor of the 'Denton Pearl' 'Easton Gazette' and 'American Whig' for publication. JACOB CHARLES, Chr.

E R SPRAGUE, Sec.

THE NEW CABINET.

John C. Calhoun, of S. C.	Sec'ry of State.
John C. Spencer, of N. Y.	Treasury.
William Wilkins, of Pa.	War.
John Y. Mason, of Va.	Navy,
Charles A. Wickliffe, of Ky.	P. M. General.
John Nelson, of Md.	Attorney General.

One of the reports from Washington is that Mr. Wickliffe, the Post Master General, is to be appointed Minister to France at the close of the present session of Congress. Another report is that the same office is to be given to Judge Mason, now Secretary of the Navy.

FREE TRADE.—It is said in the London Times that a subscription was recently opened in England to raise funds to circulate Free Trade Tracts in foreign countries. About $140 000 were subscribed. Some of these tracts are to be printed in New York, for circulation in the United States.

CONFIRMATION.—On Sunday last the interesting rite of Confirmation was administered to sixteen persons, at St. Stephen's Church, Lee street—J. N; McJilton, Rector. Bishop Whittingham officiated. Prayer was read by Rev. Mr. McJilton; and Scripture lessons by the Rev. Mr. Peck. A very large assemblage was present to observe the ceremonies. Balt Pat.

The Albany Evening Journal very pertinently remarks, upon the recent election of a Whig successor to Mr. Wilkins, in Pennsylvania, that Mr. Darragh is the thirteenth member elected to fill vacancies in the present Congress, and of the whole thirteen not one is a Locofoco.

The National Intelligencer says—The U. S. steamer Col. Harney, Lieut. Bontwell commanding, has arrived at the Navy Yard, having on board the Statuary for the Capitol, lately brought from Italy in the United States ship Delaware. The steamer also brought up from Norfolk the Marine Guard which returned from sea in the Delaware, and a detachment of seamen for the U. S. ship Union.

The Norfolk papers of Friday announce the death of Commodore E. Pendleton Kennedy, in the 65th year of his age.—He died on Thursday afternoon, after a very severe attack of paralysis. This gallant officer was in command of the U. S. ship Pennsylvania, the flag-ship of the squadron afloat on the Norfolk Station.

HONOR TO THE DEAD.—A salute of thirteen guns was fired to-day from Fort McHenry, in respect to the memory of Commodore Edmund P. Kennedy, who died at Norfolk, Va. on the 28th ult.

THE TEXAS QUESTION.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Tribune writes:

I have not seen any explicit statement from Mr. Van Buren yet as to his present views about the annexation of Texas, but Mr. Clay & all his friends do not omit any opportunity of expressing their decided opposition to the treaty contemplated by Mr. Tyler. In short, I can assure you confidently, after conversing with the majority of the U. S. Senate, that I am certain every Whig Senator will vote against annexation, except two and it is my decided belief that they all will, except one, and that is Mr. Henderson, of Mississippi his opinion I have no means of knowing but he is said to be favorable to Annexation.

So that, what ever Mr. Calhoun, Gen Henderson & Mr. Tyler may determine upon, there cannot now be even a majority of votes obtained in the Senate for the Treaty. As I told you before certain Senators were not so ignorant as they pretended to be about it. However, Mr. Clay having promply and manfully denounced it, and Mr. Benton having received his cue from Mr. Van Buren, also denouncing it, we may reasonably doubt if any treaty will now be sent into the senate.

MR. WEBSTER AND THE 'ANNEXATION.'

The New York Commercial Advertiser of Thursday afternoon, speaking obviously on authority of Mr. Webster himself, (who was however and had been for some days before in Massachusetts,)—and in reply to certain suggestions contained in a letter from Washington published in a New York paper—makes the following pregnant statements:

'That no negotiation for the annexation of Texas was undertaken or commenced while he was in the Department of State, through that Department, or in any way that brought it to his [Mr. W.'s] knowledge. If there had been any intercourse beween the Governments of the U S. and Texas since 1837, it was not within his cognizance. Mr. Webster never 'conferred' with Mr. Upshur concern annexation—never said a word to him or heard him say a word upon that subject from the day when Mr. Upsher became Secretary of State to that of his lamentable death.

Mr. Webster never spoke to the President, or was spoken to by him on that subject after he left the Cabinet. It is notorious that Mr. Webster declared openly against the annexation of Texas fully and deliberately so long ago as 1837; and the ground he then took he has always since maintained openly and without reserve.

'Mr. Webster has never written a line upon the subject of annexation, for or against, in the National Intelligencer.

'Mr. Webster's attention and anxiety were directed to the subject before the commencement of the present Congressional session: he was induced to expect that it would be broached in the President's message: and he spoke of it in this city and elsewhere at the time. But when the message appeared, without the anticipated recommendation, he dismissed the matter from his mind until his thoughts were again directed to it by information received from a Southern member of Congress.'

GREAT BRITAIN AND TEXAS.

It has been repeatedly stated says the Boston Journal as a rumor, that Mr. Pakenham the British Minister at Washington, has signified to the Government of the United States, that the British Government had no purpose of acquiring Texas for itself. We have not given hitherto full credit to the report, not knowing on what authority it rested. But we have now information which is to be fully relied on, of the fact, that Mr. Pakenham has assured the Government of the United States, that he is authorized to say that the British Government under no circumstances, would receive Texas as a province or dependence of its own.

THE MENAGERIE—We beg leave to call the attention of the 'Clay Executive Committee' to the following advertisement. It presents the opportunity of procuring another delegate to the Whig National Convention at Baltimore.

'For sale a grizzly or Rocky Mountain Bear, at the Blackhorse tavern Market street, between 11th and 12th, Philadelphia.'

Globe of Friday the 29th ult.

If rare beasts are to constitute any of the paraphernalia of the Baltimore Convention, we suggest to the 'Clay Executive Committee, the purchase of the two throughbred hyenas now in the city—Blair and Kendall. They need no recommendation from us as to genuineness of the breed; the public have had sufficient proof of that to pronounce them unequalled in ferocity and brutality. As to the probability of their being bought, we presume there will be but little difficulty about that; they have been purchased once, and are no doubt still 'in the market'—Whig Standard.

TRUE BUT ODD.—Modesty to female character is what saltpetre is to beef; while it preserves its purity it imparts a blush.

THE PRIZE BANNER.

The Baltimore Sun contains a description of the Prize Banner to be presented by the Whigs of Baltimore, to the largest Delegation from any one State to the National Convention to assemble in that city in May next.

'The principal painting, constituting the front of the banner, exhibits in the centre an excellent portrait of HENRY CLAY, of the size of life, supported on the right by a female figure representing Commerce, seated on a bale of merchandize, with an offing in the rear and two ships, one coming up in full sail, the other more remote departing; the left is supported by a female figure, representing agriculture, seated upon a sheaf of grain, and in the rear a spinning wheel, and more remote a factory in operation, and a locomotive, with its train of cars; the picture is sustained in its breadth beneath by two cornucopiæ, opening outwards and presenting an abundance of cultivated produce, each various specimen of fruits being exquisitely painted. The circle embracing the portrait is surmounted by an eagle, in hostile attitude, forming in itself a feature which apart from its connection with the whole, bears the stamp of the artist's excellence.—Under the picture, appears the following motto in gold letters:—'In all assaults our surest signal.'—The reverse side consists of a large circle, formed of a chain of the States, each link of which encircles a painting of the arms of one of the States, New York occupying the base and Pennsylvania tho uppermost position as the keystone of the arch. The space in the centre of the circle is filled with the following words in gold letters:—'The Union our strong defence; impregnable to foes, priceless to friends' The banner, which is about six feet square, is of the most superb satin, will be bordered with heavy rich bullion fringe and ornamented with crimson drapery. It will be suspended from an elaborately carved gilt scroll and supported from the beak of an eagle at each extremity. The pole will be surmounted with the Roman fasces and battle axe heavily plated with silver—the whole constituting one of the most beautiful and unique specimens of the art that has ever been exhibited in our city, or perhaps in the United States.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—At Newark, New Jersey, on Saturday morning about 3 o'clock, the large and extensive factory at the foot of the inclined plane of the Morris Canal, known as the Hedenberg's Factory a large Iron Works an Indian rubber factory, with a number of dwellings, were consumed by fire. The loss was very great. The Newark Daily Advertiser gives the following as the amount.

Hedenburg & Son, Buildings, Machinery, Stock &c.. $40,000; Hutchinson & Runyon Stock; &c $18 000; Gardner Harrison & Co. Malleable Iron Foundry $2000; John Clark Carriages Stock, &c. $2000; C. F. Post Alexetree Factory, &c. $1000; R. Heinisch Cutlery $2000; Terence Devine Glass Cutter $150; John Coles Needle Manufacturer, $300; Lewis Clink Surgical Instrument Cases &c. $800, Simpson & Bongen, Engravers Plates, &c. $500; W. R. & A. Inslee Machinery Work $200; Jesse C. Hedenberg shop in Academy street, $600. Daniel Murphy House 77 Academy street, $800. Amount of loss, $68 350

There were $16.400 Insurance effected on the above buildings. There were nearly 200 persons in the establishment now thrown out of the employment.

The 'Union Works,' thus destroyed, comprised three or four large three and four story brick buildings, (the main one 180 feet in length,) erected in 1835.

NEW INVENTIONS.—In another part of our paper will be found an advertisement respecting Stainburn's Vegetable Extract Pills, which we understand are composed by a new and very ingenius process of extraction from various useful & higly esteemed vegetable productions. This mode of preparing vegetable extracts, in the shape of pills, is certainly new, and we doubt not will soon create quite a sensation in the world of medicine, at any rate the proprietors of these pills have shown no ordinary degree of ingenious enterprise, and we heartily wish them success in their undertakings.—The Atlas, New York.

Said pills are sold in Easton by the agent E. M. DAWSON & BROTHER, and by agents published in another part of our paper.

HEMSLEY'S WORM DESTROYING SYRUP.

Prepared by R. F. Hemsley,

CHEMIST & PHARMACEUTIST, Easton Md.

WHEN we consider the great number of children who die annually in our county by worms it becomes important that the public should be in possession of some Medicine for their removal, which will combine safety and efficiency in its employment, this desideratum is afforded by the 'Worm Destroying Syrup.' It is not my wish, nor is it my design to throw around this preparation the unmeaning & extravagant eulogiums with which such medicines are usually ushured into notice, I only desire for it a fair & judicious trial to secure its full approbation. The large and increasing sale of this article is the best proof of the value and estimation in which it is held by numerous & respectable families. The presence of worms may generally with readiness be detected by the following.

SYMPTOMS.

Variable appetite——foul tongue——feted breath—full hard and tense belly—dull heavy expression of the Countenance—a bluish streak under the eye—itching at the nose—puffiness of the upper lip—disordered and irregular bowels—starting and screaming in sleep—grinding of teeth—pain in the bowels & frequently drowsiness or convulsions, attended by slow fever.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Being acquainted with the general and successful use of Mr. R. F. Hemsley's Worm Destroying Syrup, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a valuable remedy for the expulsion of worms.

TRIST THOMAS, M. D.
I CONCUR IN THE ABOVE,
JAS. A. MUSE, M. D,
Easton March 20 1844

I have for the last two years used with success Mr. R. F Hemsley's 'Worm Destroying Syrup' Indeed I look upon it as a specific in those cases, and knowing its composition feel no hesitation in recommending it where worms exist.

WM. H THOMAS, M. D,
Easton March 23d 1844

Having examined MR R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and being conversant with its general and successful employment in Easton and the vicinity, I take much pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and efficient remedy for the expulsion of worms from the alimentary canal.

CHRIS. C. COX, M. D.
Easton March 7 1844

There is no authelmimtic preparation from he use of which I have seen better results than from MR R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP' having been made acquainted with its composition I can confidently recommend it, not only as a vermafuge but as a gentle tonic suitable in those cases of debility occurring in consequence of the presence of worms in the stomach and bowels

A. M WHITE, M. D.
Talbot county March 26th 1844

From DR. W. HEMSLEY.

Having prescribed the 'Worm Destroying Syrup' with success in my neighbourhood I can confidently recommend it as superior to any other preparation offered to the public.

I have tried in a desperate case of worms MR R F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and it proved immediately efficacious, this case had baffled the skill of Physicians previously, and the disease must soon have killed the servant. I feel it my duty to give this certificate in favour of the valuable medicine.
