The Committee having retired for consultation, returned & reported the names of the following gentlemen, whom they recommended as officers of the Convention. The report was concurred in:

President.

T. R Loockermar, of Talbot.

Vice Presidents.

A. R. Sollers, of Calvert.
J. Baer, of Frederick.
J. B. Ricaud of Kent.
B. C. Ross, of Baltimore City.

Secretaries.

G. Vickers, of Kent.
B. E. Gantt, of Anne Arundel.
J. R. Eccleston of Dorchester.

Mr. Loockerman, on taking the chair addressed the Convention in eloquent terms, returning thanks for the honor conferred upon him, and claiming the indulgence of the members for any errors he might commit. He spoke of the important duty they had assembled to perform, and urged the great necessity of unanimity in all its proceedings. Mr Loockerman spoke at length of the unanimous feelings which influence the Whig party in their selection of a candidate for President, and alluded very handsomely to the flattering prospects which brighten upon the hopes of the party.—Mr. Loockerman's address was received with great applause.

On motion it was

Resolved, That the Convention be governed by the Rules which govern the proceedings of the House of Delegates of Maryland.

On motion of C. S. W. Dorsey, Esq of Anne Arundel, it was

Resolved, That the members of this Convention shall pledge themselves, one to the other, to give their cordial support to the nominee of this Convention.

On motion of Mr. Long, of Somerset, it was

Resolved, That the Convention now go into Executive session.

At half past four o'clock the Convention re-assembled & having been organized,

Mr. Tilghman, of Talbot County, rose and nominated the Honorable THOMAS G. PRATT, of Prince George's county, to be designated by this Convention as the most suitable candidate of the Whig Party for the office of Governor of Maryland.

The nomination was promptly responded to by the Convention and unanimously adopted.

Mr. Causin then addressed the Convention in an eloquent manner. He alluded to the triumphant victory of the Whigs of Maryland as taking the van in the Whig cause and leading to the successful results in other States which have characterized the recent elections, and to the importance which attaches to the approaching State election, preceeding as it does the Presidential election. He concluded by pledging St. Mary's county to the support of Hon. Thos. G. Pratt.

Mr. Crain of Charles county addressed the Convention in a forcible manner and said that the delegation from Charles county did not come into the Convention for the purpose of advancing the interests of any individual but to promote the interests and insure the success of the Whig party. He hoped that the party would not attempt to concentrate on individuals but unite for the benefit of the Whig cause. He believed that there would be union among the Whigs, and that the hopes in which our adversaries indulged of division in the Whig ranks, and a consequent defeat, would be fallacious, and concluded by pledging the support of the Whigs of Charles county to the support of the nominee of the Convention.

Mr. Pitts addressed the Convention in the eloquent and felicitous manner for which he is so deservedly celebrated.—After expressing his gratification at the spirit of compromise and harmony with which the deliberations of the Convention had been conducted, he said that the Whigs of Baltimore had stricken down the very altars at which democracy worshipped—that the Whigs of Baltimore gave every thing for the cause and nothing to the man, and if any one supposed that their individual disappointments would prevent them from rallying at the polls at the next election in all their strength—he was a stranger to the hearts of the Whigs of Baltimore. They had passed through a fiery ordeal, and the citidel, so called, the last lone asylum of democracy had fallen before the conquering phalanx of the Whigs, and they had marched in triumph over its ruin. He concluded by pledging the vote of the Whig party of Baltimore to the support of the Hon. Thomas G. Pratt.

Mr. Roman pledged the Whigs of Washington and Alleghany to the support of the nominee of the Convention. He gave an interesting sketch of the labours and success of the Whigs of Washington county, by which they changed the vote from a majority of five hundred for the Democrats to a Whig majority of two hundred and fifty, and offered to accept on the spot the draft of the President of the Convention for a Whig majority of two hundred and fifty.

Mr Alexander, of Anne Arundel, returned thanks in the name of Prince George's and Anne Arundel counties, for the honor conferred on them by the choice of the Convention, and expressed the gratification experienced by them at the unanimity with which the nomination was made and the very liberal spirit which prevailed throughout all the members of the Convention.

Messrs. Tilghman of Talbot, Bond of Harford Long of Somerset, Brengle of Frederick Keyser and Kilbourn of Baltimore county, and other members also addressed the Convention, pledging their respective counties to the support of the nominee.

Mr. Bowie of Montgomery gave an interesting biographical sketch of the Hon Thomas G. Pratt; having known him intimately from his youth, he knew that his success in life arose from no family influence—he was the orphan child of a widowed mother—he rose by his native energy, pure in purpose and upright in heart; he had rendered service to the State and was one of the noble band of twenty one who held the bonds of society together when boldest hearts trembled.—He concluded his eloquent address by invoking the delegates to redeem the promises they had made to support the nominee of the Convention.

Resolutions of thanks were then tendered to the officers of the Convention for the able and impartial manner in which they have discharged their duties.

The Chair was desired to appoint a committee of one from each county and the city of Baltimore whose duty it should be to select a State Central Committee for the State of Maryland.

The Chair appointed the following:

Dr J S Martin Worcester
J C Gist Carroll
B J Heard St Mary's
J B Spencer Queen Ann's
James Turner Baltimore county
W S Constable Kent
P M Crain Charles
Henry Bruce Allegany
D J Baer Frederick

R L Jenkins Prince George's
J C Wilson Caroline
J D Roman Washington
J H Jamar Cecil
T Tilghman Talbot
A R Sollers Calvert
E Long Somerset
W H Archer Harford
J R Eccleston Dorchester.

On motion, the Convention then adjourned sine die.
