WHIG BANNER.

EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, May 18.

FOR PRESIDENT

HENRY CLAY,

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

THEO. FRELINGHUYSEN.

FOR GOVERNOR

THOMAS, G. PRATT.

The spring term of Talbot County Court commences on Monday next.

☞Henry E. Wright, Esq. of Queen Anne's county, has been chosen the Whig electoral candidate for the Second Congresssional District.

The Cambridge (Md.) Chronicle, hitherto a neutral paper, has hoisted the Whig banner.

☞Our thanks are due to Mr Strandberg for a waiter of Ice Cream. We advise the lovers of good Ice Cream to give him a call.

THE RUINS.—We saw on Saturday, the ruins in Kensington, the blackened and crumbled walls of the Church, of the School House, and of many, very many dwelling houses, that the passions of men had doomed to destruction. The heart sickens at such exhibitions, & enquires for the justice of man, that allowed of such unlawful unruly violence, or the justice of Heaven which seemed to sleep; amid the wrong doings of the wicked, both when the murders were committed & the property wasted. We learned nothing there to answer that inquiry, but returning by the way of Fourth street, we went up and stood amid the smouldering ruins of Saint Augustine's; and we renewed our inquiry, our eye rested on the uppermost portion of the opposite wall from which the fire had peeled every particle of plastering, and licked off the decorative paint; but as if in defiance of the wrath of man, and the fury of the flames; there stood in clear, uninjured letters, the inscription—"THE LORD SEETH." and we turned away satisfied in our heart, and exclaiming, in quiet submission, 'Shall not the Judge of all the earth do right?"—Phila. U. S. Gazette.

MR. WEBSTER IN FANEUIL HALL.—At a great meeting of the Whigs of Boston, held at Faneuil hall, on Thursday evening 12th inst. to receive the report of their delegates to the Baltimore Convention, Mr. Webster spoke, and in the most emphatic manner repeated the declarations made in Baltimore of his hearty concurrence in the Whig nominations for the presidency and the Vice Presidency.

FROM WASHINGTON.

It is reported in Washington that Mr. Alexander H. Everett will be nominated as Secretary of the Treasury.

It is said that Mr. Tyler is desirous to recall several foreign ministers, Mr Everett, Mr. Todd, Mr Jenifer, &c., but that Mr. Calhoun is opposed to it.

The Washington correspondent of the New York True Sun says—'I learn from a source as authentic as possible to be—without calling it official—that immediately upon the rejection of the Treaty, Texas will make an arrangement with Great Britain for her protection. The terms are already agreed upon, and only wait the respective signatures, as soon as the Treaty is rejected.

VIRGINIA.

The Richmond Enquirer states that the Virginia Senate will consist of 21 Locos and 11 Whigs; and the House of 61 Locos and 73 Whigs—making the Whig majority on joint ballot, two.

GOOD NEWS FROM CONNECTICUT.—The Hon. Jabez *H*untington, at present United States Senator, was re-elected on Thursday by the Legislature of Connecticut, now in session at New *H*aven, for six years from the 4th March, 1845.

☞THE TARIFF BILL.—The action of the *H*ouse of Representatives upon the Tariff Bill was on Thursday 9th instant, brought to a close by laying the bill on the table. The vote stood 105 to 95, the Pennsylvania delegation all voting with the yeas.

PUBLIC OPINION.—We are happy to perceive that the Philadelphia papers are loud and decided in expression of abhorrence at the riotous and bloody scenes recently enacted in that city. The Philadelphia Gazette says:—'Disgrace has been heaped upon us. Sanctuaries dedicated to the worship of God have been destroyed by a lawless mob, and the fame of our city has been further polluted by a blot on our escutcheon.

THE NATIONAL PRIZE BANNER AT WILMINGTON.—The Whigs of Wilmington, to whose charge the splendid Prize Banner awarded to the State of Delaware, had been consigned, turned out in great numbers on Saturday, and received it with appropriate ceremonies and display, 'indicative, at once,' remarks the Philadelphia U. S. Gazette, 'of their appreciation of the gift of their brethren of Baltimore and of their deep devotion to Whig principles.' At three o'clock the banner was brought from the Railroad Depot and placed in a Roman car, which had been made to receive it drawn by four horses. A procession was then formed and moved off, passing through the principal streets of the city. Several banners with appropriate devices and mottos were born on the occasion.

The procession finally paused in front of the Town Hall. Here John Wales, Esq. of Wilmington, was called to preside and a number of assistants appointed.—A series of resolutions were unanimously adopted setting forth the great cardinal principles of the Whig party, and responding to the Whig nominations for the Presidency and Vice Presidency. The following resolution was also adopted by acclamation:

Resolved, That we receive with becoming pride and satisfaction, this splendid symbol of the generous and patriotic feelings of our Whig brethren of Baltimore; that we will ever cherish and defend it as the emblem of patriotic desert and of high and honorable principles, and that under its glorious folds we shall always march with confidence inspired by the recollection of the cause and principles with which it will ever be associated.

Addresses were delivered during the afternoon by Mr Bradford, Mr. Rugley; of Sussex. Mr. Wallage, of Philadelphia and Mr. Chauncey P. Holcomb.

SANTA ANNA.—A letter published in the New Orleans Picayune, has the following story, somewhat apocryphal, about Santa Anna:

'By the way, the great gun of this free Republic, as they call it here, has recently had a regular gambling siege at El Incero, near this city. He invited gamblers and chicken fighters from all parts of the Republic to come and be skinned by him, and the call was listened to by a great number of these worthies, but instead of suffering themselves to be fleeced by his Excellency the President that is, an Emperor that is to be, they gave him, what is put down in your western river parlance, 'unequivocal and particular gross.' He lost almost all his chickens and $20,000 that was bet upon them, and afterwards, 'by pressing his luck,' lost 600 doubloons (onzas) at monte. It is said that the thing so worried him that he ordered his cockpit to be destroyed at once & every chicken that afterward dared crow on his premises was decapitated at once. Diosfy Libertad. Jalapa, April 18.'

GENERAL JACKSON.

The Hon B. F. Butler brings the gratifying intelligence from the Hermitage, that the health of the venerable Ex President has been greatly restored, and that he is now blessed with physical and mental vigor equal to that enjoyed on retiring from the Presidential chair.

Is the above a 'sign,' or a feeler? General Jackson, it was thought, when he retired from the Presidential chair, had physical and mental vigor enough for the duties of the Executive office; and as the party need a candidate, why not put back? The visit of Mr. Butler to the Hermitage, has resulted, it would seem, in something very like a miracle: for it was only a very short time before his reaching the General's residence, that the old Hero, in a letter, described his physical infirmities, as of a kind soon to triumph over resistance. And Mr. Butler goes, looks at, and conquers the disease of 'old age,' and announces the result with a most Cæsarean promptness. The gentleman who raised an army, by planting dragon's teeth, was scarcely more potent than Dr Butler. The former, we think; had some trouble with his creations, or raisings. May the latter escape such difficulties.

DEATH OF Mr. BARNUM.

The Baltimore American thus notices the death of a gentleman extensively known and much esteemed.

'The decease of this long known and much respected citizen has caused a general feeling of regret throughout the whole community. For many years Mr. Barnum, as the proprietor of one of the first *H*otels of the city, and, indeed of the Union, has been familiarly known both at home and abroad; and his admirable qualities as an accomplished host, and a worthy and liberal hearted gentleman, were widely appreciated and prized. He had attained to a good old age, having passed his seventy fourth year. Few persons in the city would have been more missed. HIS death seems to leave a vacant space in every one's circle of friends and acquaintances.'

TEN DAYS LATER FROM CANTON.

The New York True Sun says:

'The Zenobia, with dates of 27th January, arrived last night. Our latest dates here were to 17th January, via England 12th January. Mr. Cushing had not arrived out. The British Plenipotentiary has successfully resisted the Mandarins in their attempt to enforce odious restrictions on the trade at Shanghai. Numerous swift sailing clippers from the United States and England, had arrived at Canton to engage in opium smuggling. The Markets had undergone no change.'

We were shown a few days since a young loggerhead turtle, weighing about a quarter of a pound, which fell on the deck of the United States Steamer Poinsett during a shower of rain without being injured.—Pensacola (Flor.) Gaz.

ANOTHER LARGE GUN.

The Trenton Gazette states that another large gun is to be constructed at the iron works of Messrs. Bird & Weld, for the Princeton. It is stated that the process will be commenced by placing together, in the form of a cylinder a number of wrought iron staves of the whole proposed length of the gun, and of proper breadth, and four or six inches in thickness. These will be held together by wrought iron hoops, lying close together the whole length of the staves, and welded upon them. Upon this row of hoops another of larger diameter will be laid, and these welded upon the former and additional rows will be put on and welded to those previously on until the desired thickness shall be obtained. The rim of the hoops will be about six inches wide, and they will be so laid that the middle of the rims in one row of hoops will cover the joints between those of the next smaller row. The sides of hoops will be carefully turned smooth before they are laid on. The rims of the hoops will be thicker at the ends than in the middle, so that when, after being put on in a heated state, the hoops cool and contract, they will bind those under them, not only upon the staves, but to each other, and thus present a resistance in both directions to the explosive force of the powder. Thus, it would appear, that the sad explosion on board the Princeton is not to prevent more experiments in 'big guns.'

HINTS ABOUT UMBRELLAS.—That is a good piece of advice which Ollapod, in the Knickerbocker, gives to his readers: —Lend not thy umbrella, nor suffer thou it to be stolen from thee. In this did I procure my indisposition. The night was dark, the rains descended, the floods descended and beat against me: the umbrella was loaned it had never come home. *H*eaven forgive the borrower"! There are some, however, who do not borrow this rainy weather, much to be desired, and requisite articles—they steal it without compunction. I lately heard the preacher of a Wesleyan conventicle at Providence, deliver the following speech from the altar:—'I would announce to the congregation, that, probably by mistake, there was left at this house of prayer, this morning, a small cotton umbrella, much damaged by time and wear in place whereof was taken a very large brown silk umbrella new & of great beauty. I say, my brethern was probably by mistake, that of these articles the one was taken, and the other left; though it is a very improper mistake and should be discountenanced if possible. Blunders of this sort, brethren and sisters, are getting a leetle too slick.'

A WORD TO THE SEDENTARY.—This term includes all those who pass their time within doors: embracing clerks and students, the majority of mechanics and professional men, with almost the entire female population of all cities.

These persons cannot possibly enjoy health without using a vegetable purgative medicine of sufficient power to overcome that languor of the circulation, and inactivity of the stomach and bowels, which must necessarily result from want of exercise.

Stainburn's Vegetable Extract Pills, being a mild cathartic, always acting harmoniously the system will be found singularly effective in these cases; because they cleanse the blood from all impurities remove every cause of pain or weakness, and restore the constitution to perfect health and vigor.

Price 25 cents per. box. Office 338 Broadway, N. Y. next door below the Tabernacle.

Said pills are sold in Easton by the agent E. M. DAWSON & BROTHER, and by agents published in another part of our paper.
