degrees East, twelve perches. North two degrees East thirty-two perches, West thirty two perches, North five degrees East, thirty four perches North twenty degrees West, sixty perches, till it intersects the North twenty degrees East line of said Land, thence running and bounding on that line South seventy degrees West, one hundred and five perches, then South five degrees East two hundred and twelve perches to three bounded black Oaks, being the second bounded trees of that tract of land called the Enlargement, and then with a straight line to the beginning, and also two Negro Boys, Adam, and Charles, and an unbroken bay Colt called Grief.

Item I give and bequeath unto my Son William Greene Boone, and his heirs forever, all the remaining parts or parcels of that tract of land called the Enlargement, that is not heretofore bequeathed to my son John Cockey Robert Burley Boone and to my Son Richard Boone, and also a negro Boy named Solomon, and my riding Mare Jipsey.

Item. I give and bequeath to my daughter Rebecca, and her heirs forever, a negro girl named Eve, also a feather bed and bolster.

Item I give and bequeath unto my daughter Ann Boone and her heirs forever, a negro Girl named Thena and a sorrel horse called Dobbin.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Elizabeth Boone, and her heirs forever, a negro Girl, named Judah.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Sarah Boone, and her heirs forever, a negro Girl named Comfort.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Susannah Cockey Boone, and her heirs forever, a negro Girl named Darkey.

Item. I give and bequeath unto my daughter Mary

Boone, and her heirs forever, a negro Girl named Cassandra.

Lastly. All the residue of my Estate, after my just debts are fully paid and satisfied. I give and bequeath unto my dear and beloved wife Sarah Boone, as also my dwelling plantation for and during her natural life, that is in case she does not marry, but if she should marry, I then will that an equal distribution of my effects, not already bequeathed should be made and equally divided between my three sons and six daughters. And I do hereby make, ordain, and appoint my said wife Sarah Boone, together with my son John Boone, Executrix, and Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal, this sixth day of December Anno Domini one thousand seven hundred and seventy four

Thos. Boone (Seal)

Signed, Sealed, published and declared by the testator to be his last will and testament in the presence of us.

Jno. Hopkins
Daniel Evans
Thomas Rutter

Baltimore County Set.

On the 10th day of February 1775 came Thomas Rutter and David Evans, two of the subscribing evidences to the within and foregoing last will and testament of Thomas Boone, late of the said County, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangely of Almighty God, that they saw the testator sign and seal, and heard him publish and declare the same to be his last will and testament, that at the time of his so doing, he was to the best of their several apprehensions of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and they together with John Hopkins, the other evidence, subscribed their names respectively as witnesses thereto, in his presence