EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, June 1.

FOR PRESIDENT

HENRY CLAY,

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT

THEO. FRELINGHUYSEN.

FOR GOVERNOR

THOMAS G. PRATT.

On the first side of to day's paper will be found an address delivered on the occasion of the death of the late Senator in Congress, our esteemed and lamented townsman, the Hon. John Leeds Kerr. Our last paper contained the proceedings of the Court and Bar, expressive of regret and condolence at the loss of this useful citizen to his immediate family and the community at large. Ending as fame & every other distinction of this life do in the awful reality of death, the excellent address of Mr. Browne demonstrates in the language of the poet, "We are shadows and the dreams of shadows are all our fancies imagine."

The great Loco Foco Convention is at an end and has terminated to our surprise as well as that of the Locos.

JAMES K. POLK for President!

GEO. M. DALLAS for Vice President!

Amazement—How suddenly these Locos manufacture great men! and out of what small materials too—all we know of Mr. Polk is that he was a party hack in the house of Representatives for many years, and the party speaker for the Locos His favoritism generally, his packed committees and general conduct as speaker called down on him the withering denunciation of John Quincy Adams, Wise, Payton and others. Talents of a high order, Statesmanship or capacity for Government we never heard him accused then of possessing. Mr. Van Buren was thrown aside because he was beaten one hundred and forty thousand votes for the Presidency—Mr. Polk was beaten on his second trial about seven thousand votes for Governor in Tennessee, then a Loco foco State, and himself Polk in the Gubernatorial chair. A statement of the case in the single rule of three will tell how far he will be beaten by Clay in the Presidential contest—The Candidate for the Vice Presidency is much the abler man of the two—We presume there will be a life of both published soon, as the people are ignorant of their great merits and want light respecting them.

It is really amusing to hear the Locos speak of their candidate for Governor, Mr. James Carroll—a worthy citizen, of great wealth, but of exceedingly moderate intellect. One would suppose him the most gifted man in the land. The Locos must surely have their eyesight and vision impaired by the contemplation of his golden heaps and piles. There are a thousand Loco Focos just as moral as Mr. Carroll—many thousands infinitely more talented—whence then their great admiration? We see he scorns to canvass the State—good cause for such course we presume. He lacks the intellect. How suddenly these gentlemen change their policy. Gov. Thomas challenged Mr. Johnson to canvass the State, and his friends applauded his course—It was the precedent for such course—The Whigs disapproved of it—But now in their nominating convention they are told by their candidate he cant stoop to this course of going through the State. What say you gentlemen to this.

From the Balt. Sun of yesterday.

FINALE OF THE CONVENTIONS.—The National Democratic Convention, yesterday morning, brought their labors to a close, having nominated the Hon. Geo. M. Dallas, of Philadelphia, as their candidate for Vice President, in place of the Hon. Silas Wright, from whom a respectful letter of declination was received.

WHIG MEETING,

AT THE COURT HOUSE IN EASTON.

An adjourned meeting of the county Clay Club took place on Friday Evening, the 24th inst. at the Court room in Easton, at which the Whig Party assembled in such full force as gave unequivocal indication, how deeply each member felt the responsibility of the important canvass before him, and how much the heart of each was in it.

The meeting was as animating and encourageing one, throughout, graced by the presence of many fair ones, & enlivened by the spirit of song. Alacrity and zeal were manifested in every movement of the assemblage, and there was no trace in the contenances of the Whigs of that halting between two opinions, which, for a long while has pervaded the whole body of the modern Democracy, 'one and indivisible.'

S. Teackle Wallis, Esq. of Baltimore, was introduced to the meeting by the President of our county Clay Club, John Bozman Kerr, Esq. and enforced attention to the eloquent and unanswerable argument, through which he developed principle after principle, as inscribed upon the banner of the Whig Party.

It is seldom, that soul stirring eloquence is found in such unsevered union with strong argumentative power, and we hope that this patriotic appeal will make its way to the minds and hearts of many hitherto arrayed against us.

The Whig ball rolled on and the inspiring theme was prolonged by effective addresses from our townsmen, T. R. Loockerman, Esq. and Dr. C. C. Cox.

Previously to adjournment the meeting was addressed by Genl. Tench Tilghman, of the Trappe District, in the able and spirited manner, that has secured for him the reputation of a plain and popular speaker.

The result of such a meeting, marked, as it was with good feeling and harmonious action, may naturally be anticipated. The people of the County are fully alive to the vast importance of the present struggle against a set of men, banding themselves in contrary parts, without a single principle in common with one another. Pretending to be the guardians of the fame of their late leader Van Buren, identified with them by the obstinately sustained policy of a four years administration, they are ready to give his pretentions to the winds for an available man, even though his name have never been connected with the high office of President, in the meetings of the people from one extreme of the country to the other. We venture the assertion that not five men in the union ever dreamed of James K. Polk, of Tennessee for the Pesidency, till thus foisted upon the people by a nomination of a convention.

A state Convention of this same party, after weighing the merits and rival claims of two candidates: was presented the name of James Carroll Esq. of Baltimore city, for Governor; but we confidently say to our friends, far and near that the Whigs of Talbot, marshalled by Pratt will be found twice victorious under their patriotic and noble hearted leaders, CLAY AND FRELINGHUYSEN:

Names memorable long,
If there be force in virtue or in song.

WHIG MEETING.

At a meeting of the whigs of the middle Election district of Caroline county in Denton, on Saturday, the 18th day of May, called for the purpose of forming a CLAY CLUB. Dr. George T. Martin was called to the chair and E. R. Sprague, was appointed secretary.

The following preamble and Constitution was then unanimously adopted,—Whereas there are in the present contest between the great political parties questions of principles and of policy involved upon which depend not only the perpetuity but the existence even of our institutions and of all we hold sacred in this home of liberty, That whereas the success of these principles is of such high and paramount importance as to demand of every whig hearty and untiring efforts in their behalf, therefore.

Resolved, that for the purpose of more successful exertions and feeling the force of the motto that in concert of action there is strength, we the Whigs of the middle Election district in convention assembled adopt the following constitution,

ARTICLE 1st.—Name and object.

This association shall be called the Central Clay Club of Caroline county.—The object of this association shall be the more full, free and effectual circulation of political information throughout the community and to ensure more successful efforts for the election of T. G. Pratt, for Governor of Maryland. Henry Clay & Theodore Frelinghuysen, for President and Vice president of the United States,

ARTICLE 2d.—Officers.

The officers of the Club shall be a President two Vice Presidents, two recording, and one corresponding Secretary, one treasurer.

ARTICLE 3d.—Membership.

Any gentleman over eighteen years of age may become a member by subscribing his name to this Constitution.

ARTICLE 4th.—Time of meeting.

The regular meetings of the Club shall be held every other Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at their Club Room in Denton. The President is hereby authorised to call special meetings of the Club whenever in his judgement he shall think best, or at the solicitation of 10 members of the Club

The Chair then appointed a committee of five to report officers of the Club. Whereupon the following named gentlemen were reported and afterwards chosen officers of the Club. For Prest. James Turner; for Vice Pres'ts. Chas. W. Smith and Lewis Chaffinch; for recording Secretaries, Thos. H. Slaughter and Joseph Pierson; for corresponding Secretay E. R. Sprague; for Treasurer Wm. A Wright. The following resolution was then proposed and adopted.

Resolved, that the proceedings of this meeting signed by the Chairman and Secretary be forwarded to the Easton Gazette; American Whig and Baltimore Patriot, for publication

GEO. T. MARTIN, Chairman
E. R. Sprague, Secretary.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEIT NOTES.—We were shown the other day, a counterfeit $1 bill on the Farmers' Bank of this city. It may easily be detected from the fact that the bees on the genuine note are scattered over the entire top of the hive while those on the counterfeit are in a bunch on the left side only. The paper is also a shade lighter and a little larger than that of the genuine, and the signature of the cashier appears to be executed in a rather cramped style. Examine them closely.—Annapolis Rep.

A LETTER FROM BISHOP HUGHES.—Bishop Hughes, of New York has written a letter to the Hon. James Harper, Mayor of the city of New York which occupies almost four of the closely printed columns of the Courier and Enquirer, of that city. The publication, according to the Bishop is predicated upon a letter from a young Native American to me, (the Bishop,) in which he advises me that he has provided himself with a 'poignard' by which I am to 'bite the dust.' From sundry commentaries upon this allegation, the Bishop proceeds to review his own course with respect to the exciting subjects of the day including the Philadelphia riots.

The Natchez (Miss.) Gazette contains a letter, giving an account of the Episcopal Convention held in Jackson, Bishop Oley presided. The letter says:

'Dr Hawkes, of Holly Springs, has preached, and spoken in the Convention several times. He was at the close of the Convention, elected the Bishop of the Diocese of Mississippi. I would that you and all our State, could have listened to that splendid discourse upon christian education, which he delivered in the Convention on Friday morning.'

An Episcopal Church is about being erected in the city of Troy N. Y. by Mrs. Mary Warren an enterprise springing from her own benevolence & purse

We stated a day or two ago that the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, in session in New York, had appointed a committee to devise, if possible, some 'plan of pacification' on the subject of Slavery. On Saturday morning Bishop SOULE, on behalf of the committee, reported that after a calm and deliberate investigation of the subject entrusted to them, they had been unable to agree upon any plan of compromise to reconcile the views of the Northern and Southern Conferences—The report was accepted, and the committee discharged from any further consideration of the subject.—Balt Amer.

DEATH OF CAPTAIN SHUBRICK OF THE UNITED STATES NAVY.—Captain Lovett of the ship Shaw at Boston, from Cadiz April 16th announces the death of Capt. Shubrick of the United States frigate Columbia. Captain S. died on the 23d of March on the passage from Rio Janeiro to Cadiz. The news of the arrival of the Columbia at Cadiz, the 6th of April, were received here by the steamer Hibernia, but this is the first announcement of the death of Capt. Shubrick.

NAMES.—Some of our contemporaries seem to startle at the translation of Mr. Frelinghuysen's given name—'The Gift of God' The name is very common; & it is that often assumed, & usually given, as a sobriquet to our whole nation 'Jonathan' is, we believe, Hebrew for 'the gift of God;' and we hope that the whole nation will prove worthy of its title.—U. S. Gazette.

The Washington Spectator says that the group of statuary executed by signor Persico for the embelishment of the eastern front of the Capitol, has been placed on its pedestal, and is the subject of unbounded admiration to all who have examined it. It is undoubtedly the most magnificent work of art within the United States.

A recent letter from Washington, published in the New York Post, mentions the immediate cause of the late resignation of Mr. Spencer as Secretary of the Treasury. We learn from a private source on which we have full reliance, that the statement thus made is correct, and we therefore annex that portion of the letter furnishing as it does a further development of the extraordinary proceedings adopted by the National Executive in connection with the Texas annexation project:

In carrying out the preparations for the naval expedition against Mexico it became necessary to procure the deposite of $100,000, by way of secret service money, with a confidential agent at New York. As there could be discovered no act of Congress directing such a disposition of any part of the public money Mr Spencer, when requested by the President declined giving the order, or to allow it to be given, to his subordinates.—He next, it is said, received a peremtory order to transfer the money.

Mr. Spencer, seeing the game was up coolly wrote a second refusal, and with it sent in a note of resignation. He remained in the department just twenty four hours afterwards and having in that short space squared all the ends of his concerns with it, shook off the dust of his feet against the place. In the meantime, the probability is that the $100 000 has gone into the hands of the confidential agent of the Navy Department, and has been confidentially' applied. But this is a small item in the funds which have been absorbed in the expeditures of that department but of which there is no account and which have yet to be paid by Congress.

THE HARBOR OF HAVRE DE GRACE.—The Harbor Bill which passed the House of Representatives on Thursday last, appropriates $20 000 for the improvement of the harbor of Havre de Grace, Md—The amount for the Delaware Breakwater is $100 000, and the whole amount appropriated for different harbors by the bill is $439,000. It has yet to pass the Senate.

Stainburn's Vegetable Extract Pills.

When groaning under fell disease,
Who was it first procured us ease,
With pills that could not fail to please?
'Twas Stainburn.

Experience's test these Pills have stood,
And slanders foul from Druggists rude;
Still praised by all the wise and good,
Is Stainburn.

Who is it health and strength produces,
By making pure our blood and juices,
And saves us from M. D.s' abuses?
Why Stainburn.

His Pills, they make the people well,
They ring the Doctors' funeral knell;

FOR SALE.

THE FARM called 'Hickory Ridge,' where Mr. Wm. Chapman now lives, about 1½ miles from Easton, near the road to Dover Bridge, and on the road to Barker's Landing. This farm adjoins the lands of Dr. Theodore Denny and Bennett Tomlinson, Esq. and is naturally the same description of land with the fine farms of these gentlemen, which are now so celebrated for their fertility and productiveness. There are extensive and fine meadow grounds and good marl beds on this tract. The land is waving and lies well for improving. It comprises about, and is conveniently situated for dividing into two farms. The vicinity to Easton would afford great advantages to families desirous to have access to the excellent schools there, and also to avail themselves of the ready market for poultry, butter, vegetables and fruit.

350 ACRES,

If not disposed of previously, this farm will be offered at public sale at the Court-house door in Easton on Tuesday 21st of May.

The above sale was unavoidably postponed on account of the weather. The land will still be offered either at private or public sale.

THE LAND

Known as 'Poplar Neck,' in Caroline county, about four miles below Dover bridge, formerly belonging to the late Gov. Goldsborough, is also for sale. There is about in the tract, very heavily TIMBERED, and considered among the best lands in the county.

2,200 ACRES

THE HOUSE & LOTS AND FARM adjacent, the residence of the late Hon. J. L. Kerr, are also offered for sale.

Persons desiring to be informed respecting any of the above property will receive immediate attention by addressing their communications (post paid) to

THEODORE R. LOOCKERMAN,
Counsellor at Law, Easton, Md. or
NICH. L. GOLDSBOROUGH,
Attorney at Law, Cambridge, Md.

Or those in the vicinity of Easton can receive information by enquiring at the house.
