April Term 1869

thereupon, it is ruled by the Court of Appeals here, that the said G. B. Wilson et al join in the errors by the said L and P. Lamay's lessee above assigned in the record of proceedings aforesaid, or Judgment by the Court of Appeals here, will be rendered against them in default thereof: and the said G. B. Wilson et al by their attorneys aforesaid, say, there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the Judgment aforesaid, and they pray that the Court of Appeals here will proceed to the examination, as well of the record of proceedings aforesaid, as of the matters aforesaid, by the said Louis and Priscilla Lamay's lessee above for error assigned, and that the said Judgment may be in all things affirmed, and so forth. But because the Court of Appeals here are not advised what Judgment to give of and upon the premises, thereupon this case was continued by Regular continuances until the first Monday in April 1869. And now at this day, to wit, the said first Monday in April being the fifth day of the said month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty nine come again into the Court of Appeals here, the parties aforesaid by their attorneys aforesaid. Whereupon, as well the record and proceedings aforesaid, and the Judgment given in form aforesaid, as the matters aforesaid, by the said Louis and Priscilla Lamay's lessee above for error assigned, being seen, and by the Court of Appeals here fully understood, and mature deliberation thereupon had; for that it appears to the Court of Appeals here, that there is no error in the record of proceedings aforesaid, nor in the giving of the judgment aforesaid: Wherefore it is considered by the Court of Appeals here, that the Judgment aforesaid, given in form aforesaid be in all things affirmed and stand in full force and effect, the said causes for error above assigned and alleged in anywise notwithstanding.
