6th. I give and bequeath to my nephew, Uria Sis, the sum of three hundred dollars.

7. I give and bequeath to my brother, Isidmor Morrison, the proceeds of the farm I now occupy, which I authorise my executor hereinafter named to sell at public or private sale, and invest the same for his use, during his natural life, and at his death to be equally distributed amongst my brothers' and sisters' children living.

8. I give and bequeath to my colored woman, Mary Constant, - herein before named, all that portion of the Welty farm, lying east of Tom's creek, and adjoining the Methodist meeting house, yet unsold, containing sixty acres more or less. It is also my will, and I do hereby direct my executor hereinafter named, shall soon as convenient, sell all my real estate not not hereinbefore bequeathed, and all my personal estate at public or private sale, as he in his judgment may think best.

9. I devise and bequeath, all the rest and residue of my estate, both real and personal, to be equally divided between my nephews, Oliver and Reaben Morrison, or their heirs or the surviving ones of them.

And lastly, I do hereby constitute and appoint my friend, Andrew Aumen, to be sole executor of this my last will and testament, ratifying and confirming this and none other to be my last will and testament.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this twenty second day of February, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty.

David Morrison (Seal)

Signed, sealed, published and declared by David Morrison, the above named testator, as for his last will and testament, in the presence of us, who at his request, in his presence, and in the presence of each other, have subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Jos. W. Davidson. (U.S. Rev. Stamp 5 cts)

State of Maryland, Frederick county, to wit:

I hereby certify, that the foregoing is a true copy from the original as filed and recorded in the office of the Reg'r of Wills of the county aforesaid.

In testimony whereof, I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal this 15th day of January 1866.

(Seal's Place) Test:- G. L. McSean, Reg'r.

And afterwards, to wit: on the 20th day of February 1867, an agreement and exhibit were filed in the said cause, in the words following, to wit:

In the matter of the caveat of Dr. Auman, on "Brotherly Love," &c. } In the Land Office of Maryland.

It is admitted in this case, that Prudence Biggs was the illegitimate child of Catharine Webb, and her only child.

That the land in controversy, called "Brotherly Love," &c, was purchased by Prudence Biggs, and conveyed to her by deed in 1829, and that Exhibit A. A. No. 1, is a correct copy of said deed.

That about 15th May 1831, Prudence Biggs intermarried with David Morrison.

That Prudence Biggs died about 1853, never having had any children, leaving no brothers or sisters, or descendants of brothers or sisters, or other descendants or kindred, but leaving her husband surviving her.

That David Morrison died about 1865, 6, having executed the will heretofore filed in this case, marked "A. A., No. 2."
