Maryland }
Kent County } Set. On this 31st day of October 1843 there came Anderson W. Melvin and John H. Melvin two of the subscribing witnesses to the within will before me and made oath on the Holy Evangels of Almighty God, that they did see Mary M. Mason the within named testator sign and seal this will and that they heard her publish pronounce and declare the same to be her last will and testament and at the time of her so doing they believed her to possess a sound disposing mind memory and understanding and that they with Margaret A Wallis signed this will as witnesses at the request of the testator in her presence and in the presence of each other.

James H. Brown Reg of Wills

State of Maryland }
Kent County to wit } I hereby certify that the foregoing instrument of writing is a true copy of the last will and testament of Mary M. Mason late of Kent County deceased and also a true copy of the probate thereto attached as taken from the original now on file and recorded in the office of the Register of Wills for the county aforesaid

(Seal Place) In testimony whereof I have hereunto subscribed my name and affixed my official seal on this 1st day of October in the year 1868.

B. H. Houston Reg of Wills for Kent County

October Term 1869.

It is further agreed that the wife of James H. Woodland and one of the Plaintiffs in this suit was formerly Margaret Travilla, daughter of Philip B. Travilla, and his wife and that Mary Cake wife of Samuel S. Cake and one of the Plaintiffs in this suit was formerly Mary Travilla daughter of Philip B. Travilla and Ann his wife.

It is further admitted that the defendant in this cause is the person called Arthur Johns Wallis, the devisee of the land mentioned in the will of Mary Matilda Mason, and that he has been in possession of the land in controversy under said Will, and being the land mentioned in the proceedings in this cause ever since the death of the said Mary Matilda Mason.

It is further admitted that the case of Woodland and wife against Hugh Wallis Executor of Mary M. Mason in 6 Maryland Reports 151 &c arose under the said Wills of John and Mary Matilda Mason in reference to certain negroes, bequeathed by the said John to the said Mary Matilda Mason, and that the said case as reported, may be referred to by counsel, as if it were incorporated into this Statement of Facts and case stated.

It is further agreed, that if, upon this statement
