aforesaid which is not yet expired, and ejected the said Richard from his said farm, and other wrongs to the said Richard then and there did to the great damage of the said Richard and against the peace government and dignity of the state &c wherefore the said Richard saith he is injured and hath sustained damage to the value of one hundred dollars and therefore he brings suit &c.

William T. Hamilton W. Motter, Plaintiffs Atty.

Thereupon on motion of the said William H. Grimes by his Attorney, aforesaid, leave is given by the Court here, to the said William H. Grimes, to ascertain his defence, and answer to the declaration aforesaid of the said Richard Roe Lessee as aforesaid, in the plea aforesaid.

Thereupon further process of and upon the premises aforesaid between the parties aforesaid by order of the Court here, and in conformity, with the Act of Assembly is continued from term to term until the first Monday of March in the year 1868

At which said First Monday of March, being the second day of the same month, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and sixty eight, come again into Court here, as well the said Richard Roe Lessee as aforesaid by Wm T. Hamilton, George Schley and Andrew L. Lynster, Esquires, his attorneys, as the said Wm H. Grimes by Daniel Weisel, Wm Price and Henry Hyde Douglas Esquires his attorneys, and thereupon the said Richard Roe Lessee as aforesaid by his attorney aforesaid, suggests and makes known to the Court here, that since the continuance of the plea aforesaid the said Mary C. Liter hath intermarried with a certain John H. Sites, and the said Emma S. Liter hath intermarried with a certain Jacob Daybrop, and prays leave of the Court here to amend his declaration aforesaid, and to make the said John H. Sites and Mary C. his wife, and the said Jacob Daybrop and Emma S. his wife parties, and to him the same is granted and the said Richard Roe Lessee as aforesaid by his attorneys aforesaid declares anew against the said defendant in the plea aforesaid, as follows to wit:

State of Maryland Washington County to wit:

William H. Grimes late of Washington County yeoman, was summoned to answer unto Richard Roe in a plea whereof with force and arms &c at the County aforesaid he entered into all that tract or parcel of plantation land lying and being in Washington County in the State of Maryland, the same being part of a tract of land called "Eversoles Establishment", and part of a tract of land called the "Resurvey on Lewis Farm" beginning at a stone near the West side of the "Marsh Branch" it being the original beginning of the whole tract called "Eversoles Establishment", and running thence with the outlines of said whole tract the eight following courses to wit, South seventy two degrees East one hundred and seventy two perches to a stone, South thirteen degrees West one hundred and thirteen and one half perches to a stone, South eighty six and one half degrees West one hundred and eleven and one half perches to a stone, South twelve degrees East one and three fourth perches to a stone South forty one degrees East twelve and one half perches to a stone, North eighty two and one half degrees East eighty perches to a stone, South thirteen degrees East twelve perches to a stone, South twenty three and one half degrees West fifty four perches to a stone, thence leaving the outlines aforesaid, and running South twenty three and one half degrees, West six perches into the main road leading from Williamsport to Cramptons Gap in the South Mountain, thence North fifty six degrees West seventy four perches to a marked black oak, North forty six degrees West fifty perches, North fifty five degrees West twenty six perches, North sixty seven degrees West fifty four perches to a rock, North twelve degrees East two perches into the aforesaid road, North sixty four degrees West thirty perches