MAC AVALANCHE.

I am a most important man—Mac Avalanche by name,
I turn, and turn, and always am forever one—the same;—
I'm now for Jackson, now for Tip, and then for Captain Ty;
I'm now for Polk and Dallas too, and yet I am for I.

I am a second Warwick—I all Presidents can make;
I am a second Jove to bid earth, sea, and heaven shake.—
I'm all, and I am every thing, there's nought beneath the sky.
I'm certain, but must centre still; forever still in I.
I hate your "Harry of the West,"—I hated "little Van;"—
I sent "Old Tip" to Washington,—I only —I'm the man.
I joined the Whigs in '40—I—bold John Mac Avalanche,—
I now to "the Democracy," do hold the olive branch.

I must be coaxed and flatter'd,—aye! until I have my till.
I know I'm I, and that no man can dare dispute my will.
I'll show the whole admiring World, "from Indus to the Pole"
I rule supreme, and only I this People can control.

Stanzas.

The dead leaves strew the forest's walk,
And withered are the pale wild flowers;
The frost hangs blackening on the stalk,
The dew-drops fall in frozen showers.
Gone are the spring's green sprouting bow ers,
Gone summer's rich and mantling vines,
And autumn, with her yellow hours,
On hill and plain no longer shines.

I learn'd a clear and wild toned note,
That rose and swell'd from yonder tree—
A gay bird, with too sweet a throat,
There perch'd, and raised her song for me.
The winter comes, and where is she?
Away—where summer wings will rove,
Where buds are fresh, and every tree
Is vocal with the notes of love.

Too mild the breath of southern sky,
Too fresh the flower that blushes there.
The northern breeze that rustles by
Finds leaves too green and buds too fair;
No forest trees stand stripp'd and bare,
No stream beneath the ice is dead,
No mountain top, with sleety hair,
Bends o'er the snows its reverend head.

Go there, with all the birds, and seek
A happier clime, with livelier flight.
Kiss, with the sun, the evening's cheek,
And leave me lonely with the night.
I'll gaze upon the cold north light,
And mark where all its glories shone,—
See—that it all is fair and bright,
Feel—that it all is cold and gone.

A Rich Practical Joke.—A friend told us a few evenings ago; and though it was told us in confidence, we cannot resist the temptation of laying it before our readers, let the consequence be what it may:—

"In the western part of this city live and flourish two jolly young fellows, who follow sign painting for a livelihood—and who are sometimes in the habit of cutting up what are termed "highshines." It so occurred, a few days ago, that one of the partners had some outdoor business to attend to and left the shop in charge of his partner and a little boy who was employed to grind paints. During his absence, the partner remaining went to work and painted the boy's neck, so as to represent a large gash and a cut over the eye. He then took red paint, bespattered it over the floor and clotted the boys hair, and made him lie down in a corner. He then painted a great gash on his own check, bared his bosom, disordered his dress, dipped a long bladed knife in the red paint-pot, and patiently awaited the coming of his partner. Directly he heard him at the door, and the performance commenced. The partner stuck his head into the room door, one glance was sufficient—the boy prostrated on the floor, with his throat cut, groaning and crying murder—chairs, tables, benches jugs & paint-pots were strewed around the room in dire confusion while the murderous partner, with the bloody looking knife in his uplifted hand, was running through the room uttering wild and incoherent expressions. It was evident to the partner at the door, that his partner had killed the boy. The thought was horrid. Swift as lightning he flew to his father, and informed him of the circumstances. A number of friends were mustered, who repaired forthwith to the scene of action. The crowd augmented as it neared the shop—and in walked the whole posse—but what was their astonishment to find the boy without a mark of any kind; the room in perfect order; no mark of blood perceptible, and the partner engaged in lettering a sign! and utter ignorance of any transaction of the kind avowed by both him and the boy, to the other partner's great mortification—more especially as the persons he brought there hinted to one another that, during his absence, he might have indulged too freely in fire water.—Commonwealth.

Mormonism has made considerable progress in Scotland. At a meeting of the faithful in Glasgow last month, some 500 were present, all in mourning for the prophet, Joe Smith. The Scotch Mormon Conference embraces 18 churches.

Determined to perform his Duties.—A man in Michigan, not long since, committed suicide by drowning himself.—As the body could not be found, the coroner held an inquisition on his hat & jacket.

JUDKIN'S PATENT SPECIFIC OINTMENT.

 The above Ointment is offered to the public as a safe and certain remedy for those obstinate diseases, some of which have so long baffled the skill of medical science

1st. White swellings of every description.
2d. Sore legs, and ulcers of long standing.
3d. Schirrus, or glandular tumours, particularly those hardened tumours in women's breast, which oftentimes, terminate in ulcerated cancers
4th. Felons, or what some people know by the name of Catarrhs, of every description
5th. Rheumatic pains in the joints.
6th. Sprains and bruises of every description, or in whatever part situate 7th Tetters of all kinds. In this complaint the patient, in applying the ointment, must keep the part out of water.
8th. Chilblains, or parts effected by frost.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The following communication, addressed to the proprietor of Judkin's Ointment, from the Hon. John Talliaferro, member of Congress, is highly interesting. The greatuitous manner in which it is made, exhibits feelings of no ordinary character towards suffering humanity; and is certainly well deserving of public attention.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, 1839

Sir.—It has been my wish for a considerable time, to communicate to you the good effect with which I have used the Ointment invented by a Mr. Judkins, and which I now understand is made and sold by agents appointed by yourself. I have applied this ointment during the last three years, to every species of tumour and wound, without failure to produce a cure in every instance. I consider it the most decided and efficient remedy in all cases of tumour, be the cause what it may, and I have found nothing so good for wounds of any description. It may be proper to add that the cure of a tumour called the white swelling, given over by the most distinguished physicians as incurrable, and which they have decided would, without amputation, prove fatal to the patient, was, under my immediate notice, effected by the use of Judkin's Ointment and the patient is in fine health; his limb affected by the tumour being restored to a perfect state of soundness. Also, that the leg of an aged man which had been wounded, and exhibited one dreadfully ulcerated surface from the knee to the foot, and which for more than two years had been considered incurable, was effectually cured by the application of Judkins Ointment. I mention these two cases, which fell under my immediate notice and management, as a decided evidence of the efficacy of this remedy in cases of tumour and of ulcers—I have experienced as decidedly the good effect of this remedy in the cure of felons, and of every species of fresh wound. It seems to me that any one who will observe on the operation of this ointment, must, be satisfied as to its beneficial effect. I can with the utmost confidence recommend the use of this valuable remedy

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
JOHN TALIAFERRO.

To Mr. Charles Herstons, Proprietor of Judkins' Ointment, near Frederick town, Md.

PILES.

Before leaving Boonsboro, I had heard much of an article in which you appear before the public as proprietor, named Herstons' Judkins Specific Ointment, made by C. Herstons near Frederick, Md. and of its decided efficacy in cures on persons with whom I am well acquainted, since my residence in Baltimore it has performed a cure on a friend of mine afflicted with piles. Having myself been a sufferer for some years with this distressing disease, I now unhesitatingly applied your Ointment in my own case, and am gratified that I can say it made a perfect cure.

J. A BENTZ.

Counting Room, Lombard street.

A few weeks ago a case of woman's sore breast came under my notice, the breast greatly inflamed, the nipple scarcely to be seen—her appearance clearly spoke the great misery she was in; she told me she had been suffering three months with it, and was confined to her bed; she then had fixxsed poultice to it; other things had been tried. I advised Judkin's Ointment knowing it had often been successful in like cases. She got and applied it according to the directions accompanying it: in 24 hours all pain was gone; it broke and commenced discharging copiously and so continued some days; the relief from extreme pain to perfect ease excited the woman's astonishment; a few days reduced her breast to its usual state, & in eight days the cure was complete.

C. HERSTONS.

Frederick county, April 8 1825.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Messrs. L. & R. T. Lowndes, merchants Cumberland.

Gentlemen,—I was afflicted with a sore leg—the fame of Judkins Ointment induced me to get a jug of it—but it happened not to be of Mr. Herston's make. I used it according to directions, but my leg kept getting worse.

Mr. Herstons, travelling to the west stopped at my house; during the time, on looking at the ointment I had, he immediately pronounced it not of his make, and furnished me with one which was. On opening and smelling it I was sensible of the difference, although it looked like it. I then applied the ointment he gave me to my leg; it became in a state of amendment on using the first plaster and so continued until it got quite well.

This ointment is certainly very valuable, and it would be a pity it should be lost to the public by a counterfeit article bearing the name and being not genuine

WILLIAM K. NEWMAN.

From Rev. Beverly Waugh.

I have known Mr. C. Herstons to be the proprietor of Judkin's Ointment for several years during my residence in Maryland and the Ointment made by him to have been in much repute. It has been frequently used in my own family while living in Maryland, & during my residence in this city with success.

THE SUBSCRIBERS grateful for the patronage heretofore received begs leave respectfully to inform their friends and the public generally, that they now have on hand & are daily manufacturing the most approved ever offered to the public on this Shore. Their superiority over other machines consists in simplicity and strength, which will enable us to warrant them with perfect safety Notwithstanding there are numerous Machines used in this county it is a well known fact that they are too liable to become injured and broken from trivial causes, arising from their complicated construction. The Machines we now offer to the public have been tested by a number of experienced Farmers both on the Western and Eastern Shore, and have invariably given general satisfaction.

They would also call the attention of the public to their extensive assortment of,

PLOUGHS,

Plough Castings,—
Mill Castings, &c. &c.

Their assortment of Ploughs embraces a great variety, viz:

WINAN's Self Sharpner	BEACH Improved
DAVIS	BERNARD

BEACH	Plough &c

The merits of most of the above Ploughs are already well known; but the Wiley and Patent Cycloidal have been recently introduced by us on this Shore, as a valuable acquisition to the Farmer. The Patent Cycloidal, in 1842 took the first premium at the agricultural Exhibition, near Govanstown, Baltimore county Md. over numerous competitors, composing some of the most celebrated Ploughs of Pennsylvania, New York and Maryland. All our Ploughs are stocked of the best timber, and warranted to run well. We are also prepared to do

HEMSLEY'S WORM DESTROYING SYRUP.

Prepared by R. F. Hemsley,

CHEMIST & PHARMACEUTIST, Easton Md.

WHEN we consider the great number of children who die annually in our county by worms it becomes important that the public should be in possession of some Medicine for their removal, which will combine safety and efficiency in its employment, this desideratum is afforded by the 'Worm Destroying Syrup.' It is not my wish, nor is it my design to throw around this preparation the unmeaning & extravagant eulogiums with which such medicines are usually ushured into notice, I only desire for it a fair & judicious trial to secure its full approbation. The large and increasing sale of this article is the best proof of the value and estimation in which it is held by numerous & respectable families. The presence of worms may generally with readiness be detected by the following.

SYMPTOMS.

Variable appetite—foul tongue—feted breath—full hard and tense belly—dull heavy expression of the Countenance—a bluish streak under the eye—itching at the nose—puffiness of the upper lip—disordered and irregular bowels—starting and screaming in sleep—grinding of teeth—pain in the bowels & frequently drowsiness or convulsions, attended by slow fever.

RECOMMENDATIONS.

Being acquainted with the general and successful use of Mr. R. F. Hemsley's Worm Destroying Syrup, I cheerfully recommend it to the public as a valuable remedy for the expulsion of worms.

TRIST. THOMAS, M D.

I CONCUR IN THE ABOVE,

JAS. A. MUSE, M. D,

Easton March 20 1844

I have for the last two years used with success Mr. R F Hemsley's 'Worm Destroying Syrup' Indeed I look upon it as a specific in those cases, and knowing its composition feel no hesitation in recommending it where worms exist.

WM. H THOMAS, M. D,

Easton March 23d 1844

Having examined MR. R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP,' and being conversing with its general and successful employment in Easton and the vicinity, I take much pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and efficient remedy for the expulsion of worms from the alimentary canal.

CHRIS. C. COX, M. D.

Easton March 7 1844

There is no authelmintic preparation from the use of which I have seen better results than from MR R. F. HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP' having been made acquainted with its composition I can confidently recommend it, not only as a vermafuge but as a gentle tonic suitable in those cases of debility occurring in consequence of the presence of worms in the stomach and bowels.

A. M WHITE, M. D.

Talbot county March 26th 1844

From DR W. HEMSLEY.

Having prescribed the 'Worm Destroying Syrup' with success in my neighbourhood I can confidently recommend it as superior to any other preparation offered to the public.

I have tried in a desperate case of worms MR R F HEMSLEY'S 'WORM DESTROYING SYRUP' and it proved immediately efficacious, this case had baffled the skill of Physicians previously, and the disease must soon have killed the servant. I feel it my duty to give this certificate in favour of the valuable medicine.
