his own house that the vote of his State had to be cast against him, elevated to the highest honors that the nation can bestow. The inferences to be drawn from this are n no way favorable either to honorable ambition or noble acheivement. The elevation of James K. Polk to the Presidential chair in preference to such a man as HENRY CLAY will be considered a criterion in after time of the nation's wishes, and whatever may be the endowments of future aspirants for that post, wisdom, experience, services and worth will be proscribed, while it will be taken for granted that he is best fitted for it who is the most expert in political jugglery.

We would be glad to believe that something good and something great might emenate from the administration of Mr. Polk—against him individually we have no unkind feeling to express—but the sad experience we have had in times past of the atrocious practices of his party; forbids the hope of either. Coming events have already cast their shadows before. As soon as Loco-focoism has shed its magic influence over the land, the hand of business begins to be paralyzed; State securities, Bank stock and various other stocks have felt its withering force and have depreciated greatly in value.

This is but the beginning of things; what has happened once, will, under like circumstances, always happen again, and we may now look forward to a regular progression in misfortunes, until we find ourselves involved anew in all our former difficulties, viz. a perfect stagnation of business and trade, a deranged and broken currency, confidence between man and man, utterly destroyed—national debts accumulated both at home and abroad; a diminished revenue, a discredited government, a profligate expenditure of the public means, and defaulting public agents.—All these evils we have suffered before and we grieve to think that the success of loco-focoism is likely to entail them upon us a second time.

In view of all these calamities that threaten us there is but one course for the Whig party to pursue. Let them continue firm, united and consistent in sustaining the cause and the principles for which they have so nobly, valiantly, confidently contended—their cause is the cause of Justice, Law Patriotism and their countrys welfare, and while, struggling for these they can never go wrong. The party is as powerful and numerous, if not more so, than it ever was, and it is of the genuine American stamp and no other.—We are greatly mistaken in our estimate if it does not appear when the official accounts of the votes of the States are rendered, and we can ascertain the amount of the foreign vote that has helped our opponents to their Victory, that the Whig party have a majority of the genuine American citizens on their side. Let us then stand firmly and fearlessly in the maintenance of our cause and all will be well hereafter.

It is conceded that the Whigs have carried Tennessee by 200 maj. Mr. Polk is the first President ever elected without the vote of his own State.

CHAPMAN CROWING. In Davies and Martin Counties, Indiana, Chapman Locofoco, is elected to the Senate, in the place of Abner Davis, Locofoco, deceased, by a majority of 13. This leaves the Senate tied as before.

In consequence of the death of the Senator from Johnston county, North Carolina, a special election was held there on the same day with the Presidential election, which resulted in the choice of a Locofoco Senator. This was a gain to that party, and produces a tie in the State Senate.

MR. POLK'S BIRTHDAY.—On Saturday, November, 2, James K. Polk reached his 50th year.

BISHOP ONDERDONK OF NEW YORK.

Bishop Onderdonk, of New York has published another letter, addressed to the clergy and people of his diocese. It is as follows:

Brethren—The objects of the threats to which I referred in my recent letter to you, has been in a measure accomplished. After several weeks given to diligent hunting up of causes of accusation against me, a few specifications, all assigned to years gone by, have been deemed sufficient to warrant the further and more formal investigation of a trial. Your Bishop, therefore, is now the subject of a canonical presentment.

My humble trust, through Christ, in Him of whom the inspired word saith, "the righteous Lord loveth righteousness; His countenance will behold the thing that is JUST;" affords me a consolation, support, and confidence, for which I cannot be sufficiently thankful.

Never dear brethren, could I, with clearer conscience, and never with purer and more heartfelt devotion, than now, minister among you. In my present position, however, an avoidance of public ministrations may be reasonably expected. I submit. For the present I suspend all public services. Believe me however, on that very account, my prayers in your behalf will be the more frequent and earnest.—This is a privilege and consolation of which thank God, my enemies cannot deprive me; and that I shall be the subject of your faithful fervent prayers is an assurance full of comfort to the heart of Your affectionate pastor, BENJ. T. ONDERDONK.
Bishop of New York.

New York, Nov. 11, 1844.

We are informed, says the Express, that the charges against the Bishop are numerous, and that the canonical presentment is of a marked and important character.

[BY REQUEST!]

TENTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE "UNION DORCAS SOCIETY.

The departure of another year devolves upon the Board of Managers the duty of presenting to the "Union Dorcas Society" a statement of their proceedings during the last twelve months. We gratefully acknowledge an over-ruling and kind Providence has continued to us the means of carrying relief to the suffering within the narrow sphere alloted to us. When it is remembered that each year we tread the same beaten track of limited, but real usefulness, we can have nothing to present in our annual report which will attract by its novelty.

The duties of the visiting committees commenced in November. In that month 11 persons were visited and relieved: in December 15 individuals were assisted: in January 28 had comfort and warmth conveyed to their otherwise cheerless abodes: in February 22, March 25, April 14, May 13, June 11, July 10, August 21, September 11, October 10.

Could our subscribers and patrons see the eye brighten, the sad & sorrowful countenance relax, when our managers enter with their proffered aid, they would feel that it is a privilege to do good to the poor.

From the Treasurer's report we ascertain that at the last annual meeting there was a balance of - - - 00 42cts
Collected from subscribers - $21.75
From Donors - - - 50.37½
From Meth. E. & M. P. Churches 10.00
Fines - - - 37½

Whole amount - $83.52

Donations in wood, groceries, meal, shoes and medicine have been generously contributed. Our expenditures have so nearly equaled our receipts that, after deducting a small sum to begin the month with we shall not have one cent remaining in the treasury.

Perhaps it will be interesting to our friends to cast a hasty glance upon our past operations. This Society was organized in 1834. At our first anniversary in 1835, we had collected $85 85—expended $84 85
In 1836, received 95 22—expended 91 47
In 1837, received 115 80—expended 110 29
In 1838, received 142 58—expended 116 97
In 1839, received 138 28—expended 134 46
In 1840, received 188 22—expended 137 29

We had then a balance in hand almost equal to the amount of collection for the last year.

In 1841, received $94 25—expended 161 80
In 1842, received 110 26—expended 114 75
In 1843, received 100.12½—expended 100 00

Surely none can repent, that for the last ten years, that they have contributed of their abundance to the aged, the sick, the widow and the orphan. It must afford matter for thankful reflection when you lie upon your warm and well covered couch to know that the destitute have been visited and relieved by our active and untiring managers, and that no one in our village will perish during that cold, blowing, piercing night, from absolute want.

The Jurors of Talbot county have, on several occasions, remembered our little band; will they not during the coming term recollect that winter, with its snows and howling winds, which penetrate the dwellings of the poor, is fast approaching,—and enable us by their liberal donation to put a few additional comforts into those poverty-stricken tenements.

Humble and unostentatious as our Society is, we do not think, for the last year or two, it has been properly appreciated or encouraged. If we consider its object, it binds all who have "bread enough and to spare to assist in dispensing aid to their indigent fellow creatures. He whose command it is to "always abound in the work of the Lord"—"not to weary in well doing,"—thus makes it an imperative and lasting duty to persevere in this labor of love.—"To whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required. Nov. 1844.

The U. States Bank Building in Chesnut street, Philadelphia is now used by the Government as the Custom House of that city.

Upwards of six hundred emigrants from Europe arrived at New York on Wednesday.

For Sale, at this Office.

JUDKIN'S PATENT SPECIFIC OINTMENT.

 The above Ointment is offered to the public as a safe and certain remedy for those obstinate diseases, some of which have so long baffled the skill of medical science

1st. White swellings of every description.
2d. Sore legs, and ulcers of long standing.
3d. Schirrus, or glandular tumours, particularly those hardened tumours in women's breast, which oftentimes, terminate in ulcerated cancers
4th. Felons, or what some people know by the name of Catarrhs, of every description
5th. Rheumatic pains in the joints.
6th. Sprains and bruises of every description, or in whatever part situate 7th Tetters of all kinds. In this complaint the patient, in applying the ointment, must keep the part out of water.
8th. Chilblains, or parts effected by frost.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The following communication, addressed to the proprietor of Judkin's Ointment, from the Hon. John Talliaferro, member of Congress, is highly interesting. The gratuitous manner in which it is made, exhibits feelings of no ordinary character towards suffering humanity; and is certainly well deserving of public attention.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 22, 1829

Sir.—It has been my wish for a considerable time, to communicate to you the good effect with which I have used the Ointment invented by a Mr. Judkins, and which I now understand is made and sold by agents appointed by yourself. I have applied this ointment during the last three years, to every species of tumour and wound, without failure to produce a cure in every instance. I consider it the most decided and efficient remedy in all cases of tumour, be the cause what it may, and I have found nothing so good for wounds of any description. It may be proper to add that the cure of a tumour called the white swelling, given over by the most distinguished physicians as incurrable, and which they have decided would, without amputation, prove fatal to the patient, was, under my immediate notice, effected by the use of Judkin's Ointment and the patient is in fine health; his limb affected by the tumour being restored to a perfect state of soundness. Also, that the leg of an aged man which had been wounded, and exhibited one dreadfully ulcerated surface from the knee to the foot, and which for more than two years had been considered incurable, was effectually cured by the application of Judkins' Ointment. I mention these two cases, which fell under my immediate notice and management, as a decided evidence of the efficacy of this remedy in cases of tumour and of ulcers.—I have experienced as decidedly the good effect of this remedy in the cure of felons, and of every species of fresh wound. It seems to me that any one who will observe on the operation of this ointment, must, be satisfied as to its beneficial effect. I can with the utmost confidence recommend the use of this valuable remedy

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
JOHN TALIAFERO.

To Mr. Charles Herstons, Proprietor of Judkins' Ointment, near Fredericktown, Md

PILES.

Before leaving Boonsboro, I had heard much of an article in which you appear before the public as proprietor, named Herstons' Judkins Specific Ointment, made by C. Herstons near Frederick, Md. and of its decided efficacy in cures on persons with whom I am well acquainted, since my residence in Baltimore it has performed a cure on a friend of mine afflicted with piles. Having myself been a sufferer for some years with this distressing disease, I now unhesitatingly applied your Ointment in my own case, and am gratified that I can say it made a perfect cure.

J. A BENTZ.

Counting Room, Lombard street.

A few weeks ago a case of woman's sore breast came under my notice, the breast greatly inflamed, the nipple scarcely to be seen—her appearance clearly spoke the great misery she was in; she told me she had been suffering three months with it, and was confined to her bed; she then had flaxseed poultice to it; other things had been tried. I advised Judkin's Ointment knowing it had often been successful in like cases. She got and applied it according to the directions accompanying it; in 24 hours all pain was gone; it broke and commenced discharging copiously and so continued some days; the relief from extreme pain to perfect ease excited the woman's astonishment; a few days reduced her breast to its usual state, & in eight days the cure was complete.

BEWARE OF IMPOSITION.

Messrs. L. & R. T. Lowndes, merchants Cumberland.

Gentlemen,—I was afflicted with a sore leg—the fame of Judkins Ointment induced me to get a jug of it—but it happened not to be of Mr Herston's make. I used it according to directions, but my leg kept getting worse.

Mr. Herstons, travelling to the west stopped at my house; during the time, on looking at the ointment I had, he immediately pronounced it not of his make, and furnished me with one which was. On opening and smelling it I was sensible of the difference, although it looked like it. I then applied the ointment he gave me to my leg; it became in a state of amendment on using the first plaster and so continued until it got quite well.

This ointment is certainly very valuable, and it would be a pity it should be lost to the public by a counterfeit article bearing the name and being not genuine

WILLIAM K. NEWMAN.

I have known Mr. C. Herstons to be the proprietor of Judkin's Ointment for several years during my residence in Maryland and the Ointment made by him to have been in much repute. It has been frequently used in my own family while living in Maryland & during my residence in this city with success
