EASTON GAZETTE.

EASTON, MD.

Saturday Morning, Dec. 21.

CHRISTMAS. Another Christmas, gentle reader, is just before us. Ere we greet thee again editorially the twenty-fifth of December, 1844, shall have passed away & mingled with the dim & illimitable past. Often and again have we shared our holyday sympathies and joys with the readers and patrons of the old "Gazette"—yet our feelings are not the less fervent and heartfelt now for the years that have rolled over us. The soul to feel for our friends, thank God! is still warm in this breast of ours; and the hand that hath moved so often to the pleasant promptings of that heart is not yet paralyzed.

Receive then our annual benison—we say to one and all in advance of the day "A happy Christmas!" May the approaching festivities gladden the hearts of the young in their "heyday of fetterless glee" and may the dim eye of gown'd and slippered age, from the comfortable corner of the old family hearth-stone grow brighter and brighter for its coming. But in the midst of our rambling we grow meditative. We look into the mirror and find that our face has become more elongated and our temples less blooming. We have come in for a share of times changes. How fondly & how impatiently did we once look forward through the long vista intervening between one Christmas and another! Hope gilded our dreams then. The days were far too long—the weeks moved too slowly—the months which separated us from the festivities of old St. Nicholas were far too tedious in their lumbering courses. Alas! how different now! The years fleet by us with locomotive celerity. We have scarcely time to note down one anniversary season—before whew!—whew!—whiz! sweeps by the train of months, and we are bolt up against another.

Christmas as it was and as it is— Alas! the degeneracy of these latter days! Further and further is this utilitarian age pushing aside the deliberate and comfort inspiring arrangements of the olden time. Happy old England! Two or three centuries ago, twelve days "open house" barely sufficed for the Christmas festivities. Turn over, my dear Reader, the pages of Miss Landon's Drawing room Scrap book for 1836 and you will gaze there upon a picture to warm and gladden your heart, even amid the icebergian formality and harrowing despatch of these pleasure-killing centuries. "There entertainment" says the gifted L. E. L. referring to the family at Wycoller Hall, 1650, "was a large Hall of curious ashler work—a long table, plenty of furmenty, like new milk, in a morning, made of husked wheat, boiled and roasted beef, with a fat goose and a pudding, with a plenty of good beer for dinner. A round about fire place, surrounded with stone benches, where the young folk sat and cracked nuts, and diverted themselves, and in this manner the sons and daughters got matching without going much from home."

But we have done. Once more our best wishes! Should the snow fall—may the fires be warmer—the roads smoother—the company more jovial—the bells ring a merrier tune under a more sparkling and exhilicating moonlight, than ever before! And should the streams be locked with ice, my dear little rosy cheek'd boy, may the surface be of the glassy slippery texture which you most admire—may the skate fit more pleasantly to your boot—and as you glide on the ringing lake, under the pendant locks of the willow, glittering with the "hoar frost," may your brow glow more healthfully, and the pulse throb wilder pleasure than ever before!

But Father, Mother, Sister, Brother—if affliction hath been busy with your household joys—if Death hath made a vacan place in your ancient hearth—if one cloud which the last year hath hung out in the horizon of your sky, darken the sunlight of your mirth—then—then— we press your hand in silence, and pray inwardly, that "God may temper the wind to the shorn lamb.'

Meeting of the Legislature.—The Legislature of Maryland will meet in Annapolis on the 29th inst. being the last Monday in the month.

Awful Catastrophe.—One of the most remarkable accidents of the age occurred yesterday, we are informed, in the neighbourhood of St. Michaels.—A lady and gentleman of that district were riding in one of our antiquated county Gigs, when to their utter consternation, the carriage was found to be in a light blaze—Upon further examination it was discovered that the fire had communicated to the garments of the interesting couple. They were not slow in making their escape from the burning vehicle, and while employed in extinguishing the fire on their persons, the carriage was consumed to ashes, while the horse stood patiently in the shafts, in philosophic indifference to the scene. The presumption is, that the parties were quite absorbed—at least the joke is not a bad one.

Christmas Presents.—Our neighbour, H. J. Stranberg, has received a rich and varied assortment of Toys, Confectionary, &c. for the Holydays.—Call and view his splendid collection.

Christ's Church.—This handsome edifice, alike creditable to the Architect as well as the enterprise and liberality of our Citizens, will be opened for Divine service on Christmas morning. It is expected that the Bishop of the Diocese will officiate during the day.

Talbot County Court.—The adjourned term of Talbot County Court met yesterday—Present the Hon. P. B. Hopper.—

The case of the State vs. William Tyler, Indicted for the murder of William W. Graham and found Guilty of murder in the first degree, was brought up under a motion for a new trial. The motion was sustained—a new trial granted, and the case continued until next May Term.

The Court then adjourned until Friday, 3d January next.

The London Times contains the following very explicit contradiction of the statement, brought by the last steamer, that Mr. Newman, the distinguished Puseyite, had left the Church of England:—

Sir.—I understand that it is stated in the Morning Chronicle and other papers, that a letter has been received by me from the Rev. J. H. Newman, intimating that he can no longer continue a member of the English Church. This is a simple falsehood. I have had no letter, and no intimation of the kind whatever.

I am Sir, your obedient servant,
ISAAC WILLIAMS.

Bisley, Nov. 7.

The original circumstances that lead to the death by suicide of Capt. Newman, of the U. S. brig Bainbridge, at Montevideo, are thus referred to by himself in a letter to a friend in New York:

On my coming into this port, I had to pass the Buenos Ayrean Squadron, and when abreast of them, one, of their schooners fired two shots, one ahead and the other astern of me. My first impulse was to return his shot and proceed on, but seeing a boat approaching me from the Admiral, and knowing that our nation had acknowledged the blockade, I thought it proper to heave two and receive the boat. The officer, on coming on board, stated that he was directed to apologize for the schooner's firing, as they were not aware of the character of the vessel, and supposed she was a merchantman. My brother officer on the station seemed to think that I ought to have returned the shot and continued on my course, and I now very much regret that I did not do so.

Fight between two Lawyers in Court.—We learn from the Hagerstown News, that Mr. Mason and Mr. Spencer, two members of the Bar, had a personal rencontre in the court room at that place on Thursday. They were engaged upon opposite sides as counsel in a case then before the Court; when waxing too warm in behalf of their respective clients, they lost sight of discretion and proceeded to blows. The court fined each party $25, and required them to enter into bond to keep the peace.

Narrow Escape.—Mr. Bibb, Secretary of the Treasury, came near ending his official relations with the Government on Monday night last, at Washington, by an accident which remains as yet unexplained. His sleeping apartment was discovered on fire at a late hour, though before retiring he had adopted even more than customary precaution. The size of the room alone prevented him from being smothered, as the rug, carpet, and part of the furniture was consumed before he was awakened.—Balt. Clipper.

SINGULAR STATE OF AFFAIRS.—In the Mississippi House of Representatives, on the 25d ult., Mr. Richmod made a report from the Committee on elections relative to Decatur county. The report states that the said county is without a representative; that Rolla Harper, said to have been elected—but about his election there seems some doubt because the poll books were not sent in as required by law—has since died; and Mr. Stevenson, the competitor, has, absconded. If he had not run off, the committee declare that he would have been ineligible to the office, because he is owing the State a sum of money for taxes in the county, which he had collected and never paid up.

HOW LARGE IS TEXAS!—A Texas paper, answers this interrogatory by showing that it is as large as six States in the Union, viz: Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama Georgia, South Carolina and Virginia.—These States, united, contain 311,000 square miles. Texas contains 318,000

THE POLK ORGAN.

A Washington Correspondent of the Newark Advertiser says,—

"By way of illustrating the present uncertainty of the political aspect of affairs as really entertained by the party shortly to come into power, I am well advised that the editors of the Globe recently addressed a letter to the President elect, with a view to the positive certainty of securing to that press the assurance of its becoming the government paper, and that the reply to the same was any thing but satisfactory Hence the apparant silence of the Globe in the cause of Mr. Polk.

Further, I feel so well founded in my information as to state that some of the friends of Mr. Polk are now in treaty for the purchase of the Madisonian, for which $8000 have been already offered, the editorial charge of the same, if purchased, to be placed in the hands of a gentleman from Tennessee, who, I think, conducts one of the democratic papers of that State. A very pleasant prospect sure for Messrs Blair & Rives.

A HEAVY SEIZURE.—The London Correspondent of the Boston Atlas writes:—"There has been a great excitement in the city to day, growing out of the seizure, by direction of her Majesty's Commissioners of Excise, of the extensive distillery of the Messrs. Smith of Whit-chapel. The seizure was made by the officers suspecting that the firm had not been in the habit of accounting for the full amount of duty payable upon their stock of spirits. This firm have paid to Government annually, from three to four hundred thousand pounds sterling for duty alone. The extent of their business may be judged from this fact. Their large premises are now closed and upward of one hundred workmen are, in consequence, thrown out of employment. The buildings and stock are now estimated at £200,000, which will all go to the Crown should the charges be proved."

TREMENDOUS SNOW-STORM ON LONG ISLAND—SUSPENSION OF THE TRAVEL.—The storm of Wednesday night was one of the heaviest ever known in Long Island. The snow fell at Greenport, the Eastern terminus of the Railroad, and for a distance of thirty five miles West from that place, to the depth of from ten to twelve feet. Gangs of Laborers are employed along the whole route in shoving the snow from the railroad track. They were aided by seven locomotives, but were not expected to succeed in effecting their object before Monday. It is expected that the travel will soon be resumed.—Inter.

Removal. Jacob German, for 20 years past postmaster at Gracehan, Frederick county, Md. has been removed by President Tyler, and the same appointment at Mechanicstown, in the same county, at Mr. has been removed, and Reuben Ogle appointed in his place.

NATURALIZATION LAWS.—The following is the Resolution on this subject which was passed in the U. S. Senate on Monday:

Resolved, That the committee on the Judiciary be instructed to inquire into the expediency of modifying the naturalization laws of the United States so as to extend the term allowed to enable foreigners to become citizens; to require greater guards against fraud in the steps to be taken in procuring naturalization papers, and to prevent as far as practicable fraud and violence at elections, and to prohibit the introduction of foreign convicts into the United States.

INTELLIGENCE FROM AFRICA.—Dates to the first October have been received from Liberia At that time the Colony was in a prosperous condition and matters indicated a continuance of prosperity.

The brig Atalanta was expected to sail for N. York about the middle of October. The Adario, Madona and Echo had arrived from the United States.

SANTA ANNA.

A letter from Vera Cruz to the New York Sun says:—"seven departments of States have declared against Santa Anna, and he is reported to have taken flight for this city, on his way to the Island of Cuba, where he will probably seek a temporary asylum."

The writer says further:—"The Committee of investigation in Congress, to which was referred the charge against him of embezzling five millions of dollars from the public Treasury, have not yet reported. In anticipation of that report, he had resolved upon testing the strength of his opponents, discharging Gen. Arista from the command of the Northern division of the army, threatning Paredes with a Court Martial, and courting their opposition with the hope of gaining new [illegible] extermination against all who oppose him. Returning to Mexico as a conqueror he expected to be able to bring Congress into his views.—Should this fail against him, he will retire to Spain, or perhaps to England, where he has invested five or six millions of dollars upon which he can live comfortably for the rest of his days."

NEW HAMPSHIRE LEGISLATURE.—A resolution submitted to the House of Representatives of New Hampshire, requiring the State Treasurer to receive the portion of plunder assigned to that State under the repealed Act distributing to the States the Proceeds of the Public Lands, was indefinitely postponed by a vote of 177 to 55.—Jour. of Com.

Notwithstanding the talk about "Repudiation" in England, the place of honor has been accorded to the United States at the decorations of the new Royal Exchange in London—the armorial ensign of Great Britain being placed over the centre of the West portico, and those of our country over the East portico. The armorial bearings of other nations are "anywhere."—U. S. Gaz.

'I feel too lazy to work,' said a loafer, and I have no time to play. I think I'll go to bed and split the difference.

The Pioneers Magazine of America.

GODEY'S MAGAZINE AND LADY'S BOOK, FOR 1845.

The best earnest a publisher can give of what he can and will do next year is a reference to what he has done last year, or at ANY TIME FOR THE LAST FIFTEEN YEARS. Under this view of the case it would be quite sufficient for ordinary purposes for us to say that the high character of this magazine to literary and artistical merit will be properly sustained. But we are aware that the rapid and dazzling succession of novelties which we have brought forward within the last few years naturally excites a lively curiosity, and every subscriber is saying to himself what will Godey do next?

It is merely with a view to gratify this curiosity on the part of our friends that we now proceed to enumerate some of the features of our next year's plan, promising, however, that the enumeration must necessarily be partial and incomplete, from our invariable practice of seizing upon every new and brilliant form of embellishment the moment it presents itself as well as securing the services of all the Popular, Lively and Piquant Writers the moment their characters are distinctly developed and pronounced. The honour of bringing forward first rate genius into public notice and favour, and serving as a sort of prime conductor to ELECTRIC FLASHES which send their light through the whole Union, has become [illegible] to habitual to the Lady's Book.

Our original idea of illustrating American history by views of Battle Grounds we are still ardently pursuing in a style that defies all competition. The not less brilliant idea of illustrating the Heroism of American Ladies by a series of ENGRAVINGS & NARRATIVES which will serve to place in their true light the patriotism devotion and self sacrifice of our female ancestors in the revolutionary war, emphatically called the Heroic age of America, is also original with us. Other incidents of revolutionary history will be selected are the Reception of the news of Lexington Fight.

The Battle of Concord Bridge, by Frankenstein.

The Germantown Battle-ground. by Russel Smith

Trenton Battle Ground, by Hamilton.

with a large number of others, engaged but not yet sent in by the artists. Another new and striking feature we now propose for the first time to public, having had artists engaged for twelve months in working it out. Our readers will peruse to note the date of the commencement of this feature it will consist of characteristic scene views in which the peculiarities of Scenery, Costume and Customs of every State and Territory of the Union will be presented in succession This idea will of course be claimed by others, but our readers will not forget to make dates

Our proffered premium of $200 for the best painting of a subject illustrative of American Female Patriotism has already brought a splendid array of talent into the field. The award has been postponed for another month out of courtesy to artists who have pictures still upon their easel.

The premium of $250 for the best engraving will of course bring forward a series of first rate steel plates.

In addition to all these advantages, the privilege of engraving the premium pictures of the Apollo Association will serve to form a Keystone to our splendid system of Embellishments.

The public know our literary contributors well for they have long been in the habit of recognizing them as the leading writers of America in Magazine Literature—the literature which exacts from the ablest pens their most piquant and brilliant contributions, at the same time that it condenses into a compact and pleasing form the Moral, the useful and the solid to narrative, sketch and essay writing.

MEZZOTINTS, MEZZOTINTS

It is only necessary to say that in this department we have Sartain, Sadd and Warner, and each of them has several plates in hand. We shall, we think, have one in each number next year.

AUTHENTIC FASHION PLATES

Godey's Lady's Book is the only Magazine that can be relied upon for the real fashions.

Our translators suffer nothing of merit and interest which is suited to the design of the Lady's Book, in the Literature of Germany, France, Italy, and other nations of the European continent to escape them

Among many novel features in the literary way which are now in the course of preparation, for well known reasons we choose to announce but one in this connection, viz:

The Border Legends of America, many of which have just reached us from the distant regions which were formerly the scene of border wars and hunting expeditions, and where the exploits of the famous Indian killers and hunters still furnish themes for purely national Ballads, Songs and Stories to their children and grandchildren by the winter's fireside.

It is not necessary for us to give the names of our writers—previous numbers will show that they are the best in America.

TERMS OF GODEY'S MAGAZINE
