in the City and County of Baltimore, that is to say, the stores or warehouses at the lower end of Wheep Side Dock, with the lots of ground on which they stand, purchased from the heirs of Thomas Harrison and James Hutchings, and now in the occupation of Peter Lemming and Henry W. Gray; also three lots of ground on Ridgely's Addition to Baltimore Town, distinguished on the plat thereof, by the numbers two hundred and four, one hundred and eighty-eight, one hundred and seventy-two. Purchased in part from William M. Nelson.

Beginning for the same at the intersection of Ridgely and Hague streets, and bounding on Ridgely street, and back to Planet alley; also one other lot of ground on Ridgely's Addition to Baltimore Town, distinguished on the plat thereof by the number one hundred and twenty-eight, likewise purchased in part from William McNealens, situate on the East side of Russell street, at the intersection of Hammond street, also ten other lots of ground in Ridgely's Addition to Baltimore Town, and distinguished on the plat of the same, by the numbers, one hundred and forty-two, one hundred and forty-three, one hundred and fifty-eight, one hundred and fifty-one, one hundred and ninety-five, one hundred and ninety, one hundred and ninety-one, two hundred and six, and two hundred and seven, forming a square, bounding on Russell, Hammond, Jonathan and Hague streets, also all the property belonging to me, fronting and binding on Dolphin street, in Ridgely's Addition to Baltimore Town, contiguous to the property sold to McBerry, and running back to the line of said Addition, and running with said line until it intersects Eutaw street at the Northeast corner of lot number four hundred and twelve, agreeably to the plat of said Addition, and including said lot number four hundred and twelve, which fronts and binds on Eutaw street, with all the rents and profits of said property; also a lot of ground on Goodman street, on which is now erected a two story brick building the present residence of my said daughter, Sarah, fronting on Goodman street, twenty-four feet, nine inches, and running back to an alley; also a lot of ground on Lee street, beginning at the southwest corner of Dilhi's brick house, and bounding on Lee street, twenty-five feet to the corner of the alley, and thence westerly bounding on said alley, running parallel with Goodman street, forty-nine feet; thence easterly parallel with Lee street twenty-five feet to Dilhi's property, then in a straight line to the place of beginning, to hold the said lots, pieces or parcels of ground, with their premises, appurtenances and improvements, to the said Sarah Lemmon, her heirs and assigns forever.

Item. I further give and devise unto my said daughter, Sarah, and to her heirs and assigns forever, all my right, title and interest in a lot which I leased to Dilhi for one hundred and twenty-five dollars per annum, fronting fifty feet on Lee street, and running back to a street opened by Col. John E. Howard and myself; also, I give and devise to my daughter, Sarah, her heirs and assigns forever, all my right, title and interest in a lot purchased from Jacob and Mary Billmyer situate on the corner of Bond and Fleet streets, Fell's Point, which I leased to Thomas Fenton for one hundred dollars per annum.

Item. I give and bequeath to my said daughter, Sarah Lemmon, my pew in the New Baptist Church, at the corner of Sharp and Lombard Streets, all my household furniture, and any other or all articles which may be in her possession, they not being worth dividing.

Item. It is always to be understood that the property devised and bequeathed to my said daughter, Sarah, shall be liable and held responsible for any debts that my estate may be subject to in consequence of my having been security for her, or for any of her children
